DEDICATION

The 1991 Miami Dolphin media guide is dedicated to two long-time members of the Dolphin family who recently passed away, Dorothy Shula, wife of Head Coach Don Shula, and Bobbie Weaver, wife of Dolphins veteran play-by-play announcer Rick Weaver. In addition to their strong support of the Dolphins, they also were actively involved in the South Florida community. They will be missed.

ON THE COVER

In his fifth season in the NFL last year, inside linebacker John Offerdahl, the Dolphins' defensive captain, was selected to his fifth straight Pro Bowl, including his fourth as a starter. In 1990, Offerdahl was named to the NFL All-Pro team after starting all 16 regular season games for Miami and leading the team with 116 tackles.

TIMOTHY J. ROBBIE

President, Miami Dolphins
Chairman of the Board, JRS

College: Tulane
NFL: Fifth Season
Dolphins: Fifth Season
Born: August 24, 1955

Tim Robbie, a veteran of 13 years of professional sports administration, was named President of the Miami Dolphins on January 12, 1990, and shortly thereafter also was named as Chairman of the Board of Joe Robbie Stadium. Before assuming those roles, he had served three years (1987-89) as the club's Vice President for Public Affairs.

During the first few months in his new position as Dolphin President, Robbie, along with sister Janet and brother Dan, quickly established their leadership abilities by signing Don Shula and John Offerdahl to new contracts, spearheading the partial sale of the team and Joe Robbie Stadium, designing a tiered ticket pricing policy, and establishing alcohol-free seating in JRS. Since then, Tim, Dan, and Janet have worked tirelessly to help bring the Dolphins back to the playoffs by such key behind-the-scene decisions as their quick signings of the Dolphins' top draft choices and their aggressive pursuit of Plan B free agents. On the stadium side, they have spearheaded the conversion of Joe Robbie Stadium into a state-of-the-art baseball facility that proved to be a key factor in the decision to award South Florida an expansion franchise. In addition, they have attracted such major events as Super Bowl XXIX and college bowl games to JRS and are actively seeking to host additional events, such as World Cup soccer in 1994. They also have purchased additional land surrounding the stadium to upgrade the parking facilities for JRS patrons.

In addition to his duties with the Dolphins, Robbie serves as Executive Vice President of the Fort Lauderdale Strikers of the American Soccer League. His soccer roots extend back to the Strikers' membership in the North American Soccer League, when Robbie first joined that club as Director of Public Relations in 1978. He was named the team's General Manager in 1980, becoming the youngest GM in the NASL. During his tenure with the Strikers, the club was one of the model franchises in the league, advancing to the Soccer Bowl championship game in 1980. With the imminent demise of the NASL, Robbie orchestrated the Strikers' move to Minneapolis in 1983 and their entrance into the Major Indoor Soccer League the following season while serving as the club's GM and Executive Vice President through 1988.

Apart from his responsibilities with the Dolphins, Robbie has become an active member of the South Florida community, with an involvement in a variety of charitable activities and fund-raisers. He is a member of the Board of Governors of the Greater Miami Chamber of Commerce and is on the Honda Classic Foundation Board of Trustees. He also sits on the Florida International University Foundation Board of Trustees.

Robbie, 36, is a 1977 graduate (English) of Tulane University. He and his wife Ann reside in Coral Gables.

DON SHULA

Head Coach

College: John Carroll

NFL: 29th Season

Dolphins: 22nd Season

Born: January 4, 1930

"Don Shula can take his'n and beat you'n, and he could take you'n and beat his'n."

—"BUM" PHILLIPS

For more than a quarter century, Don Shula has taken "his'n" and amassed almost 300 victories during a coaching career unparalleled in National Football League history. But while others may look back at his unprecedented accomplishments in the sport, Shula is always looking ahead, constantly working to build the Dolphins once again into winners, an effort that resulted in a 12-4 record and a return to the playoffs last year. But last season's turnaround is just the latest of Shula's many achievements, and his refusal to rest on his many laurels is an important reason why he has been one of the most successful coaches ever in the NFL.

"My goals are the same every year – to win the Super Bowl," said Shula, "and we will do everything we can to do just that. We worked hard to get back into the playoffs and to become a good football team. We want to win again, and we made strides in that direction last season."

But there is more to Shula than just his victories, as impressive as that total might be. While he has gained widespread respect for his success, beyond that he has earned universal admiration for his integrity, an intangible that can't be measured by a won-loss record. Without question, Don Shula has made an impression in football, both on and off the field, that may never be duplicated.

"If I'm remembered for anything as a coach," said Shula, "I hope it's for playing within the rules. I also hope it will be said that my teams showed class and dignity in victory or defeat."

And Shula's teams are an extension of that philosophy. It's no coincidence that the Dolphins have been the least penalized team in the NFL during his seasons in Miami. Shula represents everything that's right about his profession, and certainly his coaching accomplishments will almost be impossible to match. Beginning his 29th year as an NFL head coach and his 22nd season with the Dolphins, he is travelling down a road whose final destination will be Canton, Ohio, and the Pro Football Hall of Fame. Some of the stops along that journey have established yardsticks for victories and championships virtually unmatched in NFL history:

- Shula is pro football's winningest active coach with a 298-137-6 overall mark (.683 winning percentage)
- Shula is second only to the immortal George Halas (325) on the all-time NFL coaching win list, and in 1991 will become only the second coach in the history of the NFL to record 300 career wins
- Shula is the only coach to guide a team through an undefeated season (17-0 in 1972)
- Shula has appeared in more Super Bowls (six) than any coach
- Shula is the only coach to reach the Super Bowl three straight seasons (1971-73)
- Since 1970, Shula has led the Dolphins to the best regular season winning percentage (.676) of any team in professional sports.

- Shula and Halas are the only coaches in NFL history to make playoff appearances in four different decades
- Shula is the youngest coach to win 100 games
- Shula is the youngest coach to win 200 games
- Shula's career winning percentage (.683) is the best among the NFL's all-time top-10 coaches
- Shula owns the second best regular-season winning percentage (.693) among all active NFL coaches
- Shula is the only coach to present two players for induction into the Pro Football Hall of Fame in the same year (Larry Csonka and Jim Langer, 1987), and has made three overall presentations (Bob Griese, 1990).

Shula has become to coaching what his unbeaten 1972 Miami Dolphins are to team accomplishment: the standard of excellence by which all others are measured. He was voted Coach of the Decade for the 1970s by the Pro Football Hall of Fame's 25-member selection committee, and his Dolphins reached the playoffs five more times in the 1980s.

His "ultimate" achievement was the NFL's first unbeaten, untied record of 17-0 in 1972 in only the third season of Shula's transformation of the Dolphins from a struggling American Football League franchise to an NFL power. His incredible two-year record of 32-2, including Super Bowl conquests in 1972 and 1973, probably never will be surpassed.

Maybe because Shula never regarded an unbeaten season as impossible, the feat became a reality.

With teams in Baltimore and Miami, Shula has built six unbeaten streaks of 10 or more games, and no other coach has more than two 10-game streaks. His .669 winning mark in 21 seasons in Miami (225-111-2) parallels his .728 percent success in Baltimore (73-26-4) from 1963 to 1969.

The Dolphins have either won or shared first place in the AFC East 13 times in the 21 years under Shula, and have reached the playoffs 13 times. His Dolphins were almost invincible at the Orange Bowl with an 111-26-1 record (.808), including an NFL-record 31-game winning streak at home from 1971 to 1974. A remarkable 19 times in 28 seasons, Shula's teams have won at least 10 games.

Shula, 61, has made a mark on the game as an innovator of defensive complexities and situational substitutions (including the use of the "no-huddle" offense as far back as 1984, culminating with Super Bowl XIX that season), and he has a reputation as a great motivator. Certainly, other coaches can develop brilliant strategy and exhort their players to perform at peak. But Shula seems to surpass others in his skill as a teacher.

"The important thing is not what Don Shula knows or what any of my assistant coaches know," Shula says. "The important thing is that we can transmit to the people we're responsible for. They're going to be tested on Sunday afternoon, and the fact that we win on Sunday afternoon indicates that we're getting through to them. That's what coaching is – the ability to transmit information."

Twice with the Dolphins, in 1970 and 1977, Shula has deployed five rookies in the starting defense and won 10 of 14 games each season. And for those exigencies brought on by injuries to his starting quarterback, Shula has more solutions. Backup quarterbacks for the Dolphins have a 27-7-1 record under Shula since 1970.

He cultivates a winning attitude in preseason success which reads 95-41-4 (.693), including 32-4-1 at Baltimore and 63-37-3 at Miami.

He had been the youngest head coach, 33, in NFL history when the Colts picked him in 1963 after Shula's three years as defensive coordinator of the Detroit Lions. In the old NFL, the Colts reached the title game in 1964 and 1968 after 12-2 and 13-1 campaigns, and the 1967 Colts posted an 11-1-2 record. Those three powerhouse teams averaged almost 30 points per game offensively.

Shula's resourcefulness is best documented in 1965 when injuries sidelined Colt quarterbacks John Unitas and Gary Cuozzo, and halfback Tom Matte wore the "playbook" on his wristband and directed a 20-17 upset at Los Angeles.

Shula transformed a 3-10-1 Dolphin team into a playoff qualifier his first season in Miami and laid the foundation for a perennial contender. In 1971, the Dolphins won their first of four consecutive AFC East titles, and on Christmas Day in Kansas City, the NFL's longest game (82 minutes, 40 seconds) ended with Garo Yepremian's winning 37-yard field goal in the second overtime. A week later, the Dolphins stymied the Utitas-led Colts 21-0 on the same Orange Bowl field where Baltimore had won Super Bowl V the previous January.

Dethroning the Colts launched the Dolphins to three consecutive AFC championships – a feat unequalled in either conference since the 1970 merger. But a disappointing 24-3 loss to the Dallas Cowboys in Super Bowl VI filled Shula and his players with greater drive, and in 1972 the Dolphins attracted headlines as the "Greatest Team Ever."

Shula had claimed 38-year-old Earl Morrall from the waiver list in April of 1972, recalling Morrall's leadership of the 1968 Colts. When quarterback Bob Griese suffered a broken ankle in the fifth game, Morrall took charge for 11 straight victories. The Dolphins rewrote the NFL rushing record (2,960 yards), and with a regular-season record of 105-30-5, Shula became the first NFL coach to win 100 games in his first decade. Later in his career, he was to accomplish the even more impressive feat of winning 200 games in his first 20 seasons as an NFL boss. He enters the 1991 season just two wins shy of winning 300 games in his first 30 seasons as a head coach.

Surprisingly, the unbeaten Dolphins were three-point underdogs to the Washington Redskins in Super Bowl VII. Shula elected to go with a healthy Griese, and the Dolphins dominated the Redskins 14-7 for the coach's first NFL crown.

No less impressive were the 1973 Dolphins, losing only twice in 17 games. The Dolphins set a modern NFL record by allowing only 1,290 yards passing and only five touchdown passes, and they overwhelmed three playoff opponents, 85-33, including a 24-7 rout of the Minnesota Vikings in Super Bowl VIII.

Another three-game surge in the playoffs, this time a 76-26 blitz, earned the AFC Championship in the strike-shortened 1982 season and landed the Dolphins in Super Bowl XVII. Miami held a four-point lead in the fourth quarter before Washington broke a long touchdown run that sparked a 27-17 Redskin victory.

Shula led the Dolphins to yet another Super Bowl, his fifth with Miami and his sixth overall, following the 1984 season when the Dolphins went 14-2, but they fell to San Francisco 38-16 in Super Bowl XIX.

Donald Francis Shula was born January 4, 1930, in Grand River, Ohio, and was raised in Painesville, Ohio. He was a running back at John Carroll University in Cleveland, and in 1950 he gained 125 yards when the Blue Streaks upset Syracuse, 21-15.

Shula was the lone rookie on coach Paul Brown's defending NFL champion Cleveland Browns in 1951 (until Shula's college teammate Carl Taseff joined the Browns at mid-season). Shula and Taseff were involved in the largest trade in modern NFL history, a 15-player deal with Baltimore in 1953, and Shula played four seasons with the Colts (1953-56) and one season at Washington (1957) at right cornerback. He had 21 career interceptions for 247 yards in seven seasons.

Shula entered the coaching ranks with an assistant's job at Virginia (1958) and Kentucky (1959), and he joined the NFL's Detroit Lions in 1960 under coach George Wilson – a man he later replaced in Miami. The Lions posted a 26-13-1 record with Shula as the defensive coordinator.

In 1963, Shula succeeded Weeb Ewbank as head coach at Baltimore, and in the 28 seasons which have followed he has reached the NFL's championship game seven times with two victories.

Today, he takes an active role in NFL leadership, serving since 1975 on the select NFL Competition Committee which evaluates and recommends changes in playing rules as well as regulations designed to improve the safety of playing conditions.

Shula has given considerable time, plus financial and emotional support, to several area charities. The Don Shula Foundation, formed primarily to assist breast cancer research, was established as a tribute to his late wife, Dorothy. The Don Shula Scholarship was created in 1978 and has awarded scholarships to needy scholar-athletes at several Florida colleges. He also funds scholarships in the sports administration program at St. Thomas University, the location of the Dolphins' training complex. Shula also has been active in the American Cancer Society, March of Dimes, American Red Cross, United Way (currently serving as the Dolphins' spokesman for that charity's national fund-raising efforts) and Catholic Charities.

A member of the Class of 1951 at John Carroll, Shula helps to sponsor an academic chair of studies in his name at his alma mater. The chair, funded at $1 million through major private gifts added to Shula's own commitment, is in the University's Department of Philosophy.

Shula has drawn rave reviews for his work for three years as a studio analyst during the AFC playoffs for NBC's NFL Live. He also has provided color commentary on the Super Bowl in 1987, 1988, and 1990 for British TV, and he was a member of the NBC broadcast team for Super Bowl XXIII in 1989. On Jan. 17, 1987, Shula and his Dolphin staff (including son David, the team's assistant head coach) coached the winning South squad in the Senior Bowl in Mobile, Ala. One of his quarterbacks in that game was son Mike, then a QB from the University of Alabama.

Shula especially values his family life and his Catholic faith. He was married to the former Dorothy Bartish for over 32 years before she passed away in February, and she was as visible as her husband in the South Florida community by her involvement in so many civic and charitable activities. They raised five children - two boys and three girls.

Oldest son David, 32, and his wife Leslie have three sons, Danny, Christopher and Matthew. David joined the Dolphin coaching staff late in the 1982 season, and in 1989 was named assistant head coach for the Dallas Cowboys. He spent two years in Dallas before joining the Cincinnati Bengals as receivers coach prior to the 1991 season. He starred collegiately at Dartmouth, where he set all of the pass receiving records for the Big Green. After earning his degree in history, David played for a season with the Baltimore Colts.

Mike, 26, a former all-state quarterback at Columbus High School in Miami, enjoyed an outstanding career as signal caller for the Crimson Tide of Alabama. Mike, who graduated with a degree in labor management, went to play one season with the Tampa Bay Bucs and spent three years on that team's coaching staff, including quarterback coach in 1990 before joining the Dolphins as a coaches assistant this past March.

The Shula's oldest daughter, Donna, has two children, Alex and Lindsey. Another daughter, Sharon, graduated from the University of Miami and Florida State's College of Law. Youngest daughter, Annie, graduated from St. Thomas University and is a teacher at Sabal Palm Elementary School in North Miami Beach.

DOLPHIN FACT

Don Shula is one of only four coaches in NFL history to have coached the same team for 20 or more consecutive seasons. Shula enters his 22nd season with the Dolphins in 1991. Green Bay's Curley Lambeau (1921-49) and Dallas' Tom Landry (1960-88) share the record with 29 seasons each, while the N.Y. Giants' Steve Owen (1931-53) coached 23 seasons and Pittsburgh's Chuck Noll (1969-90) enters his 23rd year as the Steelers' head coach.

SHULA IS COACH TO HALL OF FAMERS

Don Shula has ten of his former players enshrined in the Pro Football Hall of Fame. In the Hall are four Dolphin players (Larry Csonka, Bob Griese, Jim Langer and Paul Warfield) and six Colts (Raymond Berry, Ted Hendricks, Gino Marchetti, Lenny Moore, Jim Parker and Johnny Unitas) who played under Shula. Shula's total of ten Hall of Fame enshrinees is the most by any active NFL head coach. Pittsburgh's Chuck Noll is second with six former Steelers enshrined in Canton, Ohio.

In addition, Shula is the only coach to present two players for induction into the Hall in the same year (Larry Csonka and Jim Langer, 1987), and has made three overall presentations (Bob Griese, 1990).

SHULA'S MILESTONES

Don Shula, the NFL's winningest active coach, is on the verge of winning his 300th career game as a head coach in the National Football League. Shula comes into the 1991 season with a career record of 298-137-6 (.683) and is just two wins shy of joining George Halas (325 wins) as the only NFL coaches with 300 or more career wins.

Shula added another historic career milestone in Miami's 30-7 win over the Buffalo Bills on September 16, 1990, as he recorded his 200th regular season victory since joining the Dolphins in 1970. Shula joins Hall of Fame coaches Curley Lambeau (Green Bay), George Halas (Chicago) and Tom Landry (Dallas) as the only NFL coaches to earn 200 or more regular season wins with one NFL club.

DOLPHINS ARE BEST

Since the 1970 merger of the National and American Football Leagues, the Miami Dolphins under Don Shula are the winningest team in professional football. The Dolphins have the best regular-season and overall winning percentage of any NFL team during that span. Miami is also the only team in either the AFC or NFC to win three straight conference championships (1971-73).

ADMINISTRATIVE STAFF

DANIEL T. ROBBIE

Executive Vice President,
Miami Dolphins
President, JRS

College: St. Thomas
NFL: Seventh Season
Dolphins: Seventh Season
Born: August 31, 1961

Dan Robbie was named as Executive Vice President of the Dolphins on January 12, 1990, and as President of Joe Robbie Stadium later that year, after previously serving as director of Sales and Promotions for the club and the stadium. In his current capacity, Robbie has become more involved in the day-to-day operation of the Dolphins while continuing to oversee sales, marketing, and ticket office activities of both the team and the stadium, including the sale of club seats and executive suites.

The 30-year-old Robbie, now in his seventh season with the club, began working in stadium sales for the Dolphins in June of 1985 after spending two years with the Minnesota Strikers soccer team, where he was the ticket manager.

Robbie has supervised the Dolphins' annual awards banquet each of the past five years and has been a team representative at numerous NFL Public Relations/Marketing Meetings. He also serves on the advisory board of Memorial Hospital in Hollywood.

Robbie, who was appointed to the executive council of the South Florida Boy Scouts in 1988 and served as the scout show chairman for 1990 and 1991, attended both the University of South Florida and St. Thomas University. An avid soccer fan and player, Dan is single and resides in North Miami.

JANET L. ROBBIE

Executive Vice President

College: Creighton University
NFL: Second Season
Dolphins: Second Season
Born: January 13, 1947

Janet Robbie, who begins her second season in a management capacity with the Dolphins, was named as Executive Vice President of the club on January 12, 1990, and shortly thereafter assumed additional responsibilities as Executive Vice President of Joe Robbie Stadium. In that capacity, she is involved in the ongoing administrative responsibilities of the team and the stadium, particularly within the finance, accounting, and legal departments. Her responsibilities also include establishing and maintaining appropriate political, civic, and business contacts in the South Florida community and establishing outreach programs within the organization. She brings a strong business background to her role, having worked in financial and real estate related fields throughout her career.

Before embarking on her professional career, Robbie attended Creighton University and graduated with a B.S. degree in 1969. She recently relocated to Miami and has three children, John (currently the Sales Operations Manager for the Dolphins), Michele, and Lisa Glode.

EDDIE J. JONES

Executive Vice President/General Manager

College: Louisiana State

Dolphins: Fourth Season

Born: June 18, 1938

Eddie J. Jones, who has spent two decades in the NFL, was named as Executive Vice President and General Manager of the Dolphins on January 12, 1990. Jones had served the previous two seasons as the Dolphins' Vice President of Administration and Finance. In his current capacity, Jones oversees all financial functions of the Dolphins and directs the administrative operation of the team's front office.

Jones was president and chief operating officer of the New Orleans Saints from 1982-85. While with the Saints, he represented the team on the league's Executive Committee and was a member of the executive committee of NFL Properties. Jones currently serves on the NFL's Employee Benefits Committee and the Pete Rozelle NFL Player Retirement Plan Committee.

A 1963 accounting graduate of LSU, Jones began his professional career as a CPA with Arthur Andersen & Co. He began his NFL career as business manager of the Saints in 1968.

An Air Force veteran, the Houston native and his wife, Marilyn, have three children, Wendy, Todd and Jeff.

DOLPHIN FACT

Pat Kelly, who supervised stadium operations at famed Yankee Stadium for 20 years, moves into his fifth season as Director of Stadium Events for Joe Robbie Stadium.

Kelly, who began his career at Yankee Stadium in 1967, served as stadium manager and then vice president of stadium operations before joining the Dolphins. His main responsibility was the efficient operation and maintenance of all of Yankee Stadium's facilities.

While at Yankee Stadium, he supervised the Pope's Mass, numerous American League playoff and World Series games, the All-Star game, championship boxing events and New York Giants football (1967-73).

Kelly served in the United States Navy before spending 24 years with the New York City Police Department. Married to the former Catherine Conway, they are the parents of two children. The couple resides in Lauderhill.

ASSISTANT COACHES

JOHN SANDUSKY

Assistant Head Coach/Offensive Line, Run Offense

College: Villanova

NFL: 33rd Season

Dolphins: 16th Season

Born: December 28, 1925

Like many of the men who played for him, John Sandusky is regarded as "one of the best in the business." Sandusky and his offensive line just keep getting better. A veteran of three decades of NFL coaching (he begins his 33rd season in '91), Sandusky starts his 16th year with the Dolphins looking for continued success. In addition to his offensive line responsibilities, Sandusky was named Miami's Assistant Head Coach on March 1, 1989, and as a result has become more involved in the overall football operations and has taken on additional administrative duties.

The Dolphin offensive line under Sandusky again rewrote the record book in 1990. The line led the league in fewest sacks allowed for the tenth season and ninth consecutive year (1973, 1982-1990), both league records. In addition, the Dolphin offensive line went 19 straight games over the 1988-89 seasons without allowing a QB sack, shattering the old NFL record of five straight games, done on many previous occasions.

In 1988, Sandusky's offensive line allowed only seven sacks, the fewest in a season in NFL history, despite throwing the ball a league-high 621 times.

Sandusky also was instrumental in the development of the Dolphins' young offensive line and under his tutelage Richmond Webb became the first rookie tackle ever named to the Pro Bowl last year.

Despite his offensive assistant coaching title, Sandusky is also quite knowledgeable about defense, having spent seven of his 33 seasons coaching the other side of the line of scrimmage. In seven of the past eight campaigns, 13 Dolphin offensive linemen have been singled out for some type of post-season honors.

The 65-year-old Sandusky joined the Dolphins in 1976 after spending three seasons (1973-75) as an assistant coach for the Philadelphia Eagles. Prior to that, he was a coach for the Baltimore Colts from 1959-72, including the 1963-69 seasons under then-Colt head coach Don Shula. When Shula moved to Miami in 1970, he attempted, but was unable, to bring Sandusky with him. Sandusky was on the Colt staff for their two Super Bowl appearances in games III and V.

When Don McCafferty was fired as Baltimore's head coach after winning only one of the first five games in 1972, Sandusky became the Colt boss and led his charges to four victories in their final nine games. Two of Sandusky's losses that season were to Shula's undefeated Dolphin team.

Sandusky was an All-America tackle at Villanova University (1946-49) before joining the NFL's Cleveland Browns in 1950. He played both offensive and defensive tackle in six seasons in Cleveland as the Browns made it to the NFL title game in all six of those campaigns (three wins). Sandusky then played one year (1956) with the Green Bay Packers before beginning his coaching career at Villanova (1957-58).

John and his wife, Shirley, reside in Hollywood with their daughters Gina (a teacher) and Jennifer and son Jason. Jennifer attends St. Leo College and Jason attends St. Thomas University. John has two sons (Jack and James) living in Baltimore, and a daughter (Ruth) who resides in Silver Spring, Md. Another son, Gerry, is a sportscaster for WBAL-TV in Baltimore who formerly covered the Dolphins for WSVN-TV in Miami. Another son, Joe, died in '78 of complications from pneumonia while a sophomore at Tulsa University. John was married to his first wife, Ruth, for 34 years before her death in December, 1985. John has six grandchildren.

TOM OLIVADOTTI

Defense

College: Upsala

NFL: Seventh Season

Dolphins: Fifth Season

Born: September 22, 1945

Tom Olivadotti begins his fifth season as the man responsible for the Dolphins' overall defense. Olivadotti came to the Dolphins after spending two seasons (1985-86) with the Cleveland Browns as an assistant.

Under his direction, the Dolphin defense has made significant progress each of his four years with the team. In 1990, the Dolphins finished seventh in the NFL (fourth in the AFC) in overall team defense and led the league in that category for most of the first half of the season. In 1989, the Dolphin defense finished fifth in the AFC in sack production with 39 sacks after finishing 13th in the conference the year before with 24 sacks. The Dolphin defense did not allow a touchdown in four of the team's 16 games in 1988. In 1987, Olivadotti's first year with Miami, the number of big plays allowed by the Dolphins decreased dramatically, as Miami was first in the AFC (and third in the NFL) in fewest yards allowed per completion (11.63), after ranking 12th in the AFC and 22nd in the NFL the previous season.

The Long Branch, N.J., native made an impressive NFL coaching debut six years ago when he handled the Browns' outstanding linebacking corps. In 1986 he was in charge of Cleveland's defensive backs - one of the main reasons the Browns came within one game of the Super Bowl. Cleveland had the best record (12-4) in the AFC that season.

Olivadotti is familiar with Miami - he spent four seasons as a defensive coach at the University of Miami, serving the last three years as defensive coordinator. The Hurricanes captured the national championship in Olivadotti's last season (1983). He then followed head coach Howard Schnellenberger (a former Dolphin assistant) to Louisville with the understanding that he could leave if a pro coaching job arose, which it did with the Browns.

Olivadotti played defensive back, linebacker, and receiver in four years as a starter at Upsala College in East Orange, N.J., and also participated in baseball and track. While coaching at New Jersey high schools Pope Pius (1967-68), Long Branch (1968-71) and Red Bank Catholic (1971-72), he also played semi-pro ball for five seasons.

He then moved on to Salesianum Prep School in Wilmington, Del., as head coach (1972-75) before moving up to the college ranks beginning at Princeton (1975-77) as tutor for linebackers and the offensive line. Later (1978-79) he coached linebackers at Boston College and also organized the entire defense.

Olivadotti, who has a business degree, resides in Cooper City with his wife, Karen (married 6/15/68), and their two children, Kari Anne (9/30/70) and Kirk (1/1/74).

GEORGE HILL

Linebackers

College: Denison

NFL: 13th Season

Dolphins: Third Season

Born: April 28, 1933

George Hill, who is beginning his third season with the Dolphins, has more than a decade of coaching experience in the NFL. Before coming to Miami on March 1, 1989, Hill spent the previous four seasons (1985-88) as defensive coordinator for the Indianapolis Colts and spent six seasons before that (1979-84) as the linebacker coach for the Philadelphia Eagles. Hill originally joined the Dallas Cowboys staff on February 13, 1989, as Tom Landry's defensive coordinator, but left the Cowboys to join the Dolphins following Landry's departure.

With the Dolphins, Hill not only works with the team's linebackers but is also responsible for Miami's run defense. Hill coaches a blend of young performers such as All-Pro John Offerdahl and David Griggs along with seasoned veterans Barry Krauss, E.J. Junior, Hugh Green, Cliff Odom, John Grimsley and Mike Reichenbach.

While with the Colts, Hill's coaching helped earn Indianapolis respect around the league for that team's defense and in 1987 the Colts allowed just 238 points, the fewest in the NFL.

Before joining the Eagles, Hill was a part of Woody Hayes' staff at Ohio State for eight seasons (1971-78) as defensive coordinator, and during that time the Buckeyes won six consecutive Big Ten Championships and made four Rose Bowl appearances. He also was the defensive coordinator at Duke from 1966 through 1970 and served as an assistant coach at Cornell (1965), Denison University (1960-64), and Findley (Ohio) College (1959). Before beginning his coaching career, he was a four-year letterman at Denison (1954-57).

Hill was born in Bay Village, Ohio, and now lives in Plantation with his wife, Cloyde (married 6/16/56). They have two children, Greg (11/4/64), and Tammy (2/26/69).

DOLPHIN FACT

In season openers, Miami is 11-13-1. The Dolphins are 9-9-1 in season openers on the road and 2-4 in season openers which have been at home.

TONY NATHAN

Coaches' Assistant

College: Alabama

NFL: Fourth Season

Dolphins: Fourth Season

Born: December 14, 1956

Former Dolphins running back Tony Nathan enters his fourth season with Miami as a coaches' assistant. In his coaching role, Nathan charts plays both in practice and on game days and assists in the breakdown of game film. Known as an outstanding receiver as a player, Nathan works with Miami's young running backs on their receiving skills.

A nine-year veteran with the Dolphins (1979-87), Nathan ended his NFL career ranked high among the Dolphins all-time rushing and receiving leaders. His career rushing totals of 732 attempts for 3,543 yards are fourth best on Miami's all-time chart, while his 383 catches also rank fourth. In 1981, Nathan was named the team's most valuable player as he led Miami in rushing with a career-high 782 yards and an NFL-leading 5.3 yards per carry.

Collegiately, Nathan had an outstanding career as a running back at the University of Alabama. During Nathan's final two seasons with the Tide, the school posted records of 11-1 and won the national championship his senior year. He finished his career with rushing totals of 1,997 yards on 310 carries and 29 touchdowns. As a senior, Nathan ran for a regular-season total of 770 yards and added 127 yards in Alabama's 14-7 Sugar Bowl edging of Penn State to win the national championship. He was a college teammate of current Dolphin linebackers E.J. Junior and Barry Krauss.

Nathan and his wife, Johnnie (married 6/16/79), live in Miami Lakes with daughters Nichole (7/8/80), Natalie (8/9/83) and Nadia Inez (5/27/87). He was born on December 14, 1956, in Birmingham, Alabama.

MEL PHILLIPS

Defensive Backs

College: North Carolina A&T

NFL: 12th Season

Dolphins: Seventh Season

Born: January 6, 1942

Mel Phillips moves into his seventh season as defensive backs coach for the Dolphins. Under Phillips' guidance, young safeties Louis Oliver and Jarvis Williams developed into one of the NFL's most intimidating pair of safeties, while J.B. Brown, in his second year in the NFL, became one of the best young cornerbacks in the league.

Before coming to Miami, the 49-year-old Phillips previously held the same position for five seasons with the Detroit Lions (1980-84). In Detroit, Phillips coached under then-head coach (and former Dolphins' assistant) Monte Clark.

Known for his outstanding rapport with the players, Phillips works with a defensive backfield that features quality veterans Paul Lankford, Liffort Hobley, and the recently acquired Vestee Jackson, as well as young players such as Williams, Oliver, Brown, Michael McGruder, Kerry Glenn, Stevon Moore, and Bobby Harden.

Phillips, a native of Shelby, N.C., played 12 seasons for the San Francisco 49ers (1966-77), including eight as a starter at strong safety. A tenacious hitter during his playing days, his career statistics include 10 interceptions for 106 return yards (35-yard TD in 1970). Phillips twice won the 49ers' Len Eshmont Award, symbolic of the team's most valuable player. Following his retirement from the 49ers, Phillips worked for the city of San Francisco's juvenile probation department until joining the Lions.

Collegiately, Phillips attended North Carolina A&T, where he played both ways as a defensive back and a running back. As a senior, Phillips rushed for 648 yards on 100 carries for 11 touchdowns, and also caught 19 passes for 277 yards and four scores. That season (1965), A&T won the conference championship and Phillips intercepted two passes and rushed for two TDs in the title game. Phillips also lettered for the swimming and track teams at A&T.

Mel and his wife, Patricia (married 1/23/65), live in Miami Lakes with their daughters, Paulene (6/4/67) and Yvene (5/9/73). He was born on Jan. 6, 1942, in Shelby, N.C.

LARRY SEIPLE

Receivers

College: Kentucky

NFL: 11th Season

Dolphins: Fourth Season

Born: February 14, 1945

Beginning his fourth season on the Dolphin coaching staff, Larry Seiple is well-known to Dolphin fans. He spent 11 seasons in Miami as a player and rejoined the team in February, 1988, as receivers coach after spending a year as a sales representative for a manufacturing company in the automotive industry in Birmingham, Michigan.

With the Dolphins, Seiple works with Pro Bowl wide receivers Mark Clayton and Mark Duper as well as all purpose player Jim Jensen. He also coaches young talent such as Ferrell Edmunds, Andre Brown, Fred Banks, Tony Martin, and draft choices Randal Hill and Scott Miller.

Last year, under Seiple's direction, Edmunds made his second consecutive Pro Bowl appearance, while Mark Duper regained the form that made him one of the league's outstanding receivers.

In 1989, Dolphin receivers had their fair share of success as Edmunds became the first Dolphin tight end to be selected to the NFL's annual Pro Bowl contest and rookie wide receiver Andre Brown, who joined the Dolphins as an undrafted free agent, set the team rookie record with five touchdown receptions.

In Seiple's first season as receivers coach, Clayton set a new Dolphin record for receptions with 86 (finishing tied for second in the NFL in that category) while Jensen developed into one of the most dependable receivers in the league.

The Allentown, Pa., native brought seven years of experience as an NFL receivers coach to Miami. He formerly served as receivers coach with the Detroit Lions (1980-84), working under former Dolphins' assistant Monte Clark. He then moved on to Tampa Bay, where he was receivers coach from 1985-86. While in Detroit, Seiple was on a staff that also included current Miami defensive backs coach Mel Phillips.

The 46-year-old Seiple began his coaching career at the University of Miami under another former Dolphin assistant, Howard Schnellenberger. Seiple was with the Hurricanes during the 1979 season.

Seiple's playing career with the Dolphins spanned 11 seasons (1967-77) after he made the team as a seventh-round draft choice out of Kentucky. He played in 149 regular-season games for Miami (ninth-most in team history) as a punter, tight end, wide receiver and running back. Seiple finished his career with 72 receptions for 935 yards (13.0 average) and seven touchdowns. His best season came in 1969 when he led the Dolphins in receiving with 41 catches for 577 yards (14.1 average) and five TDs. He also had 16 carries for 159 yards in his career.

Seiple still holds the Dolphins' record for most career punts (633), and his career punting average (40.0 yards) is second only to the 43.2-yard average of current punter Reggie Roby. Seiple's most memorable exploit as a Dolphin came against Pittsburgh in the 1972 AFC Championship game when his daring 37-yard run on fourth down from punt formation set up Miami's first touchdown in a 21-17 victory.

He and his wife, Trudy (married 6/4/66), live in Pembroke Pines and have three children, Keri Lynn (6/10/67), Larry (7/10/69) and Lori Ann (11/26/71).

DAN SEKANOVICH

Defensive Line

College: Tennessee

NFL: 15th Season

Dolphins: Sixth Season

Born: July 27, 1933

Dan Sekanovich, a veteran of more than a decade of NFL coaching, begins his sixth season as a member of the Miami Dolphins staff. The 58-year-old Sekanovich is in charge of the Dolphin defensive line, and under his guidance Miami defensive end Jeff Cross, a ninth-round draft choice in 1988, emerged as one of the top pass rushers in the AFC and earned Pro Bowl honors after recording 11.5 sacks in 1990. Sekanovich also is credited with the development of nose tackle Brian Sochia, a former free agent who was a Pro Bowl selection in 1988.

Sekanovich spent three seasons (1983-85) as assistant head coach/defensive line mentor of the Atlanta Falcons before coming to Miami. While with Atlanta he helped to develop two young linemen in Rick Bryan and Mike Gann. With the Dolphins, he is working with young veterans like Cross, Sochia, Alfred Oglesby, Shawn Lee, Terry Price, and T.J. Turner.

Prior to his Atlanta post, Sekanovich developed one of the NFL's most feared defensive units, "The New York Sack Exchange," while defensive line coach for the New York Jets from 1977-82. In 1981, the Sack Exchange led the NFL in sacks with the defensive line getting 59 of 66.

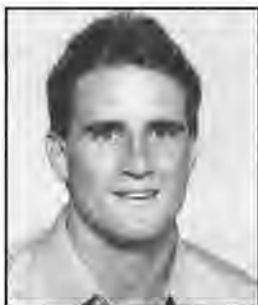

Before joining the Jets, the West Hazleton, Pa., native enjoyed his first professional coaching experience when he served on Marv Levy's staff (now head coach of the Buffalo Bills) for the Montreal Alouettes of the Canadian Football League from 1973-76. Montreal captured the Grey Cup title in 1974 as Sekanovich coached both the offensive and defensive lines.

His collegiate coaching stops included: Kentucky (1971-72), Navy (1969-70), Pittsburgh (1968), Connecticut (1964-67) and Susquehanna (1961-63).

Sekanovich enjoyed a fine playing career (1951-53) at Tennessee under General Bob Neyland, where he played as a defensive end.

Dan and his wife, Delores (married 11/27/65), have a son, Dan, Jr. (11/23/66), who recently graduated from Wake Forest, and a daughter, Catherine (11/28/68), a senior at the University of Connecticut. They reside in Cooper City.

MIKE SHULA

Coaches' Assistant

College: Alabama

NFL: Fourth Season

Dolphins: First Season

Born: June 3, 1965

Mike Shula enters his first season with Miami as a coaches' assistant. In his role, Shula will assist the coaching staff in football operations and along with Tony Nathan will assist Director of Player Personnel Charley Winner in pro scouting.

Shula, 26, joins the Dolphins after serving three seasons as an assistant coach with the Tampa Bay Buccaneers. In 1990, Shula coached the Bucs' quarterbacks after spending two seasons as an offensive assistant. In that role, he worked with the coaches in scouting NFL teams' personnel and tendencies and also assisted in coaching the quarterbacks.

Shula, who was a 12th-round draft choice of Tampa Bay in 1987, was a three-year starter and an All-Southeastern Conference quarterback at Alabama. He became just the second quarterback in Alabama history to pass for 2,000 yards (2,009 in 1985) in a season. He led Alabama to wins in the Aloha Bowl as a junior and Sun Bowl as a senior, when he served as a co-captain of the Crimson Tide. He graduated with a bachelor's degree in labor relations.

Shula, who was born in Baltimore, Md., is single and resides in Miami.

GARY STEVENS

Quarterbacks/Pass Offense

College: John Carroll

NFL: Third Season

Dolphins: Third Season

Born: March 19, 1943

Gary Stevens begins his third season as quarterback coach, but he certainly is familiar to Dolphin coaches and fans alike. He spent the previous nine years (1980-88) as an assistant coach at the University of Miami, including the last six as offensive coordinator where he was the architect of Miami's explosive offense that was centered around the passing game. During his tenure at UM, the Hurricanes won two national championships and he helped guide the careers of quarterbacks Jim Kelly, Bernie Kosar, Vinny Testaverde, and Steve Walsh as well as wideout Eddie Brown. In his six seasons as offensive coordinator, Miami averaged over 30 points per game and over 400 yards per game in total offense.

The Hurricanes' receivers coach from 1980 to 1984, Stevens switched to coaching the quarterbacks in '84, while also adding the duties of assistant head coach during that same year. Prior to his arrival at Miami, Stevens held assistant coaching positions at West Virginia (1975-79), Kent State (1974-75), and Louisville (1971-74). A native of Cleveland, Ohio, he began his coaching career in the high school ranks in the late 1960s at Benedictine High School and Chanel High School in Ohio.

A three-year letterman at running back for John Carroll University, he graduated with a degree in sociology in 1965. Stevens lives in Kendall with his wife, Rosemarie, and they have five children – Cindy, Maria, Cheryl, Kelly Ann, and Gary Ben.

CARL TASEFF

Offensive Backs

College: John Carroll

NFL: 25th Season

Dolphins: 22nd Season

Born: September 28, 1928

When Don Shula arrived in Miami in 1970, so too did Carl Taseff. Taseff and Shula's relationship dates back to their college days when they played in the same backfield together for coach Herb Eisele's John Carroll squad in Cleveland. They were also roommates in the NFL while both played for Cleveland (1951-52) and Baltimore (1953-56).

Taseff has coached the Dolphin offensive backs since coming to South Florida, and he's done it with great success. In fact, in the eight-year span from 1970-77, Taseff's backs ranked fifth or higher in NFL rushing on seven occasions. More important, Taseff has been able to change with the times. During the 1970s, the Dolphins employed a grind-it-out style that featured powerful fullback Larry Csonka. Since Dan Marino's emergence as Miami's air-oriented quarterback, Taseff's charges have become more a part of the passing game.

Taseff came to Miami after spending two years working for the CEPO scouting combine (1968-69). Prior to that, he had coaching stints with the AFL's Boston Patriots (1964) and the NFL's Detroit Lions (1965-66).

As a player, Taseff was a star running back at John Carroll University, scoring 22 touchdowns in 1950. He began his pro career in 1951 with his hometown Cleveland Browns before beginning a nine-year term (1953-61) with the Baltimore Colts. A cornerback for the Colts, Taseff set a team record with a 90-yard punt return for a touchdown against Green Bay (10/14/56). He holds an NFL record with a 99-yard return of a Walt Michaels field goal attempt against the Rams (12/12/59).

After the Colts, Taseff played the latter part of the '61 season for Philadelphia before winding up his playing career with Buffalo in 1962. Overall, Taseff's career stats show 112 punt returns for 826 yards and no fumbles.

Carl and his wife, Lucy (married 11/18/78), live in Miami. He has two daughters, Cynthia Sue and Susan (both married), by a previous marriage. He also has three grandchildren.

JUNIOR WADE

Strength and Conditioning

College: South Carolina State

NFL: 17th Season

Dolphins: 17th Season

Born: February 2, 1947

One of the key figures in the Dolphin program is veteran strength and conditioning coach Junior Wade.

In his ninth season as the Dolphins' strength and conditioning coach, Wade also administers the team's successful off-season conditioning program and assists with Miami's special teams. Previously, Wade had served eight years as the club's assistant trainer. The promotion to assistant coaching status was a well-deserved reward for the affable Wade. As a trainer, he long had held the respect of the Dolphin players for his knowledge and his willingness to boost player morale by putting himself through the same rigorous rehabilitation as that prescribed for injured Dolphins.

Appointed to his present position on Feb. 15, 1983, Wade first joined the Dolphins as training camp assistant for the 1973-74 preseasons. He was hired by the Dolphins on a full-time basis in time for the 1975 campaign. Wade's past job experience includes having worked as an athletic trainer and guidance counselor at Fayetteville State and as the trainer for the St. Louis Cardinals' baseball farm team in Orangeburg, S.C.

Wade was also the head baseball coach and assistant trainer at Davidson College. In 1975, he led the Wildcats to a 21-15 record, the best mark the school had ever posted. A three-year letterman himself at South Carolina State, Wade also earned his master's degree in education. Following his graduation from SCSU in 1969, he worked as head trainer at the school for three years.

Junior, a native of Bath, S.C., lives in Miami with his wife, Constance (married 12/13/70), and sons Aaron (2/25/72) and Jason (2/24/80).

MIKE WESTHOFF

Special Teams

College: Wichita State

NFL: Ninth Season

Dolphins: Sixth Season

Born: January 10, 1948

Mike Westhoff begins his sixth year as a member of the Dolphins' coaching staff, concentrating on special teams.

Under Westhoff's direction, the Dolphin special teams made a significant impact towards the club's progress in 1990. Pete Stoyanovich emerged as one of the outstanding place-kickers in the league, while Reggie Roby maintained his position as one of the best punters in the NFL.

Westhoff came to Miami after spending a year in the United States Football League with the Arizona Outlaws, where he was the offensive line coach for Frank Kush.

Before his one-year stint in the USFL, Westhoff spent three seasons under Kush with the Baltimore/Indianapolis Colts (1982-84). While with the Colts, his responsibilities included tight ends, special teams and weight training.

The 43-year-old Westhoff began his collegiate playing career at Wyoming in 1965, where he was a starting outside linebacker as a freshman. He then transferred to Wichita State, where he was a three-year starter at linebacker and center. He graduated from Wichita State in 1970 with a degree in history. He was the team's MVP as a junior and served as captain during his senior campaign.

Westhoff started his collegiate coaching career as a graduate assistant at Indiana University, where he earned a master's degree in educational psychology in 1974. He was named as a full-time coach at IU in '75 before becoming offensive line coach at Dayton in 1976. Westhoff then took over as coach of the defensive line and linebackers at Indiana State in 1977. He then coached at Northwestern (1978-80) and Texas Christian (1981), working with the offensive line.

In 1989, the Dolphin players recognized Westhoff's off-the-field courage by awarding him with special recognition from the NFL's Ed Block Courage Award. As a coach, Westhoff has faced many battles both on and off the field, but none can compare to his recent battle with bone cancer. Throughout his treatments, Westhoff continued to coach with the Dolphins. For his courage, the Dolphin players felt Westhoff deserved to be recognized with the Ed Block Courage Award.

Born in Pittsburgh, he was raised in Bethel Park, Pa. Mike and his wife, Marilyn (married 1/25/70), reside in Plantation with their son John Thomas (4/27/81).

FOOTBALL STAFF

CHARLEY WINNER

Director of Player Personnel

College: Washington (Mo.)

NFL: 37th Season

Dolphins: 11th Season

Born: July 2, 1925

A veteran of 37 NFL coaching and front-office seasons, Charley Winner begins his 11th year with the Dolphins. The 1991 season marks his second year as Miami's Director of Player Personnel after having served as the Dolphins' Director of Pro Personnel for the previous nine years.

In his expanded role, Winner has responsibilities on both the professional and college football levels. He handles player contract negotiations and oversees both the college and pro personnel areas, working along with Tom Heckert, the team's Director of College Scouting.

Winner joined the Dolphins in 1981 after working one year for a cable television company. Prior to that, he enjoyed a distinguished coaching career which began in 1948 as an assistant under Weeb Ewbank at his alma mater, Washington University in St. Louis. He moved to Case Tech in 1950 under head coach Lou Saban, remaining there for four seasons. In 1954, Winner began his professional coaching career at Baltimore, again with Ewbank at the helm. From 1954-65, he coached Colt ends, defensive backs, linebackers and served as defensive coordinator. During his Baltimore stint, he coached a defensive back named Don Shula, later serving on Shula's staff when he became the Colt boss.

In 1966, Winner accepted the head coaching position of the St. Louis Cardinals, a post he held for five seasons. His teams had a 35-30-5 record, including an outstanding 9-4-1 mark in 1968. From 1971-72, Winner coached defensive backs for George Allen's Washington Redskins, whose '72 squad lost to the Dolphins in the Super Bowl. He was again reunited in 1973 with Ewbank, this time as an assistant for the New York Jets. Winner took over as Jet head coach the following year, posting a 9-14 slate in two seasons. He then coached Cincinnati's defensive backfield from 1976-79. Under Winner's guidance, Bengal DBs had conference rankings of first (1976) and second (1978) during his tenure there.

A native of Somerville, N.J., Winner attended Southeast Missouri College for one year before being drafted into the service in 1942. A radio operator and gunner in the Air Force, he flew 17 missions over Germany, and once spent six weeks in a German POW camp. Following the war, he completed his education at Washington University, earning letters in football and track.

Charley and his wife, Nancy, live in Plantation. They have two daughters, Cinda and Lisa.

TOM HECKERT

Director of College Scouting

College: Youngstown State

NFL: Tenth Season

Dolphins: Third Season

Born: September 18, 1938

Tom Heckert is beginning his third season as the Director of College Scouting for the Dolphins. In his position, Heckert is responsible for the scouting of college players and Miami's preparation for the NFL draft. In that role, he works closely with Head Coach Don Shula and the rest of the Dolphins' coaching and scouting staff.

The 1990 draft, Heckert's first as Director of College Scouting, produced three starting players, including Richmond Webb, the first rookie tackle ever selected to the Pro Bowl.

Heckert has a varied background in football, including spending seven years as a college scout with the Tampa Bay Buccaneers and the Cleveland Browns. He also has both administrative and coaching experience on the collegiate level as well.

Heckert, 53, joined the Dolphins after serving two years (1987-88) as a national scout for the Buccaneers, with his primary concentration being the major conferences in the Southeast, Southwest, Northeast, and Midwest. Prior to joining the Bucs in 1987, he spent the previous five seasons (1982-86) as the Midwest area scout for the Browns, an area that included all Big Ten and Big Eight schools together with a total of 62 colleges in 12 states. He also was involved in personnel and advance scouting in the NFL during his tenure with the Browns and was part of the turnaround in Cleveland that saw the Browns go from a 5-11 team in 1984 to a playoff participant in his final two seasons there.

A 1961 graduate of Youngstown (Ohio) State, he began his coaching career as an assistant at Fitch High School in Youngstown in 1961 before a two-year hitch as a Lieutenant in the U.S. Army. He returned to Fitch where he stayed through 1965 prior to enrolling as a graduate assistant at Kent State, where he earned a master's degree in education. He served as Head Coach at Maumee (Ohio) High School in 1967 and 1968 and then moved up to the college ranks as an assistant at Adrian (Michigan) College from 1969-72. He was named Head Coach at Adrian in 1973 and Athletic Director in 1977, where he remained until joining the Browns in 1982. His overall record as a Head Coach at Adrian was 43-36-2. His last three teams there were 23-3-1, including a 9-0 season in 1980.

Heckert and his wife, Rose (married 12/28/62), have two children, Kim (27) and Tom, Jr. (24), and one grandchild, Amelia (1). Tom, Jr. is a Personnel Assistant with the Dolphins.

DOLPHIN FACT

The Dolphins hold the NFL record for most consecutive home games won. Miami won 27 straight regular-season home games (31 overall) at the Orange Bowl from 1971-74.

JOE BUSHOFSKY

College Scout

College: North Carolina State

NFL: 22nd Season

Dolphins: Second Season

Born: January 24, 1939

One of the NFL's most respected talent scouts, Joe Bushofsky enters his second season as a college scout with the Dolphins. Bushofsky is responsible for college scouting in the eastern states.

Bushofsky, 52, joined the Dolphins after serving 16 seasons with the Detroit Lions, including the last five years as Director of Player Personnel. He originally scouted the eastern colleges for the Lions before expanding his areas to parts of the midwest. In his early years with the club, he was responsible for scouting approximately one half of the colleges in the country. Bushofsky was promoted to the Lions' Director of Player Personnel in June, 1985.

With the Lions, Bushofsky worked from 1978-84 under former Dolphins Director of Pro Personnel Monte Clark (then the Lions' head coach). Also on the Lions' football staff were current Dolphin assistant coaches Larry Seiple and Mel Phillips.

A native of Pittsburgh, Bushofsky's NFL experience dates back to 1970 when he began working for the Pittsburgh Steelers on a part-time basis doing film evaluation. He worked with the BLESTO scouting combine from 1973 to '75 before joining the Lions.

Bushofsky was an All-ACC guard as a senior at North Carolina State and was named to the state of North Carolina's college all-star football team in 1961 and '62.

Following graduation, Bushofsky returned to the Pittsburgh area where he was a successful high school coach for 11 years. As head coach of his alma mater, North Catholic High School, he compiled an undefeated record in 1970 and won the Catholic championship of western Pennsylvania.

Bushofsky and his wife, Rose, have four children, Ted, Tracy, Tricia and Terry, and they reside in Troy, Mich.

MIKE CARTWRIGHT

College Scout

College: Wyoming

NFL: 13th Season

Dolphins: Ninth Season

Born: February 12, 1946

The responsibilities of scouting the western states fall on the shoulders of the capable Mike Cartwright. In his ninth Dolphin season, Cartwright came to the Miami organization from the BLESTO scouting combine. He worked for BLESTO from 1979-82, first as an area scout before being promoted to regional scout.

Cartwright's initial scouting position was with the San Francisco 49ers working for Pro-Line. Prior to that, he was head coach and athletic director at St. Mary's School in Cheyenne, Wyo., for three years before serving the same tenure as head football coach at Cheyenne East High. Also a former teacher, Cartwright earned a B.S. in physical education and biological science from the University of Wyoming in 1970.

Mike and his wife, Mary (married 9/25/74), live in Cheyenne with their son Jeremy (4/25/77) and Mike's two sons by a previous marriage, Chad (12/12/64) and Brad (12/30/68).

RON LABADIE

College Scout

College: Adrian

NFL: Second Season

Dolphins: Second Season

Born: April 7, 1949

Beginning his second year with the Dolphins as a college scout, Ron Labadie concentrates his duties on college athletics in the mid-eastern states.

Labadie, 42, joined the Dolphins after serving as head football coach and athletic director at Adrian College. A 1971 graduate of Adrian, Labadie returned to the school as head football coach in 1982. Through his eight seasons as head coach of the Bulldogs, he posted a 53-20 (.730) collegiate record. He guided the Bulldogs to MIAA Championships in 1983, 1988 and '89 as well as leading his team to NCAA Division III playoff berths in 1983 and 1988. He was given the additional responsibilities of Director of Athletics for Men in May, 1985.

Before returning to Adrian, Labadie served as head football coach at Marshall High School (1974-81), compiling a 42-30 overall record, including a 39-15 mark over his last six years. Under Labadie, Marshall captured Twin Valley Conference Championships in 1976 and '77.

A native of Paw Paw, Michigan, Labadie earned the school's most valuable player award three times (1968-70) and was named captain of the 1969 and '70 teams. He earned first team All-MIAA honors and led the conference with 10 touchdowns in five MIAA games as a senior. He was inducted into the school's Athletic Hall of Fame in 1981.

Labadie and his wife, Marilyn, have three children, Lisa (16), Brad (13) and Ben (9).

JERE STRIPLING

College Scout

College: Murray State

NFL: Fourth Season

Dolphins: Second Season

Born: August 24, 1935

Entering his fourth season as an NFL college scout, Jere Stripling begins his second season with the Dolphins. Stripling's responsibilities with Miami include the scouting of the mid-western states.

Stripling, 56, joined the Dolphins after serving the last two years (1988-89) as an area scout for the Tampa Bay Buccaneers, with his primary concentration on the southeastern states. Prior to joining the Bucs in 1988, he served two years (1986-87) as one of four national scouts for Canadian IX (the Canadian Football League's official scouting service), with his responsibilities focusing on the southeastern colleges in the United States.

A native of Newbern, Tenn., Stripling spent eight seasons (1978-85) as offensive coordinator and assistant head coach at Northeast Louisiana University. He also served as the school's recruiting coordinator. Under Stripling, the Indians set season records for most yards passing, most yards in total offense and most points scored. In 1983, the Indians ranked sixth nationally in Division I-AA rushing offense.

A 1958 graduate of Murray State, Stripling began his coaching career right after graduation by serving as an assistant coach at Union City (Tenn.) High School. In 1960, he became head coach at Bartlett (Tenn.) High School, and in 1965 he moved to Dyersburg (Tenn.) High School. After his third and final season at Dyersburg, he and his aides were selected as the conference's "Coaching Staff of the Year."

Stripling played quarterback at the University of Tennessee for one year before transferring to Murray State for his final three years. He served as team captain and was named as the school's most valuable player and earned all-conference recognition as a senior.

Stripling and his wife, Corinne, have two children, David (31) and Susan (29).

BOB LUNDY

Head Trainer

College: Boston University

NFL: 27th Season

Dolphins: 25th Season

Born: March 28, 1936

For over two decades, the job of taking care of the Dolphin players' daily assortment of major and minor injuries has belonged to head trainer Bob Lundy. One of the most respected trainers in the NFL, Lundy is responsible for the day-to-day treatment of injured Dolphins in coordination with team physicians. In conjunction with assistant coach Junior Wade, Lundy also oversees the team's off-season conditioning program.

Lundy keeps abreast of the latest advances in training technology through his regular attendance at NATA conventions. Perhaps his highest honor came in 1974 when Dolphin players awarded Lundy the game ball following Miami's fourth consecutive AFC Eastern Division title. One of his greatest personal highlights was when former Dolphin great Larry Csonka thanked Bob in his Hall of Fame induction speech in Canton, Ohio.

Lundy joined the Dolphins for their inaugural 1966 season under then-head coach George Wilson, and has been with the club for all but one of its campaigns (he sold real estate in 1973). When Don Shula took over as head coach in 1970, Lundy was retained and he has been manning the training room ever since.

A native of Wollaston, Mass., Lundy is a 1958 graduate of Boston University. While a graduate student at Indiana University, he served as the Hoosiers' assistant trainer before becoming the head trainer at Detroit University (1960-63). Lundy's first professional job came in 1964 when he served two seasons as the Detroit Lions' assistant trainer.

In May of 1986, Lundy was honored by the National Athletic Trainers Association with a "Twenty-Five Year Award," which is the most prestigious award in the training profession.

In the off-season, Lundy serves as host in a series of talks on corporate fitness, speaking to such corporations as Storer Cable and Southeast Bank.

Bob lives in Miami and has three sons, Bob, Jr. (3/30/63), Billy (6/30/66) and David (1/30/70).

BILL DAVIS

Assistant Trainer

College: Davidson

NFL: Ninth Season

Dolphins: Ninth Season

Born: April 8, 1954

In his ninth season as the Dolphins' assistant trainer is 37-year-old Bill Davis. Davis assists head trainer Bob Lundy with injury treatment and rehabilitation of Dolphin players. He has been a full-time member of the Dolphin staff since May, 1983, after spending five preseasons (1975-79) as a summer training camp assistant to Lundy.

Davis also has served each of the last four years as a trainer at the Lipton International Tennis Championships on Key Biscayne.

Davis initially got involved in athletic training while he was a student at Davidson College. He aided current Dolphin assistant coach Junior Wade while Wade was baseball coach and assistant trainer for the Wildcats. While at Davidson, Davis and Wade worked under current NBA Charlotte Hornets' trainer Tom Couch. Davis received his B.A. degree from Davidson in 1976, and earned his NATA certification the following year.

In 1978, Davis got his master's degree in health and physical education from Tennessee Tech. The following fall, he was named athletic trainer for men at the University of Tennessee-Martin, a position he held until accepting his current post.

Bill and his wife, Linda (married 7/7/84), live in Cooper City with their five children – Kim, Bradley, Chas, Brook and Gabrielle.

BOB MONICA

Equipment Manager

College: St. Thomas

NFL: 11th Season

Dolphins: 11th Season

Born: May 6, 1957

Bob Monica begins his seventh year as Dolphin equipment manager after four seasons as assistant equipment manager. Monica, a visible and popular figure around the Dolphins' training camp, is responsible for issuing and ordering all playing equipment for the team. In addition, Monica coordinates the transport of the club's equipment to and from each road site, including such distant locations as London in 1988 and Tokyo this year.

The 34-year-old Monica earned a B.S. in sports administration from Miami's St. Thomas University. He transferred to St. Thomas from Furman University in Greenville, S.C., where he had been attending college on a football scholarship. A native of Madison, N.J., Monica captained Madison High School's 1976 football state champions. In addition, he was New Jersey state wrestling champion in the 188 lb. division (1976). In 1975, Monica traveled with the USA Junior Olympic Wrestling team to Germany and Bulgaria.

Prior to joining the Dolphins, Monica was a production manager for Electric Factory Concerts in Philadelphia. He is married to the former Donna Beets (4/23/88). The couple resides in Pembroke Pines. One of Bob's personal highlights came when he appeared as a bartender in the Jan. 10, 1986, episode of "Miami Vice."

DOLPHIN FACT

Since the 1970 AFL-NFL merger, a total of 102 Dolphin players have been selected to appear in the AFC-NFC Pro Bowl. Over the course of those 21 seasons, 68 offensive players, 30 defensive players and four special teams players have been chosen.

JOE ROBBIE STADIUM

The critics said it could never be done. But reality shows that the dream has come true.

The Miami Dolphins enter their fifth season of play in the 73,000-seat Joe Robbie Stadium in 1991. Built at a cost of $115 million, the state-of-the-art, open-air facility was the first of its kind to be constructed entirely with private funds.

JRS capped off its first two highly successful seasons by hosting the National Football League's premier game, Super Bowl XXIII, on January 22, 1989. The event marked the return of the Super Bowl to South Florida after a 10-year absence. The stadium will host its second Super Bowl on January 29, 1995, when Super Bowl XXIX is played at JRS.

Built with world-class soccer in mind, JRS undoubtedly will be one of the primary sites chosen in the next year to play host to matches when the 1994 World Cup comes to the United States. "I have been to 98 countries and seen many stadiums, but this is the best," said Colombian Soccer Federation President Leon Londono, a member of the FIFA committee which will designate sites, after touring the facility in the spring of 1988. "I have told (FIFA president) Dr. Joao Havelange about this stadium."

In the first 48 months of operation, Joe Robbie Stadium displayed its versatility by playing host to a wide variety of events other than Dolphin games. JRS hosted a concert in 1990 featuring Paul McCartney which entertained nearly 100,000 people over a two-day span while last December, the Blockbuster Bowl, the NCAA's newest post-season bowl game, began calling JRS its home. The inaugural Blockbuster Bowl was a success as 74,021 fans watched Florida State University's 24-17 win over Penn State. In 1991, the Orange Blossom Classic and the Alamo Heritage Bowl will also be played at JRS.

Major league baseball returned to the stadium for the fourth time last spring with two exhibition games featuring the Baltimore Orioles as hosts versus the New York Yankees.

Baseball has continued to receive strong support from the South Florida area as the nine games played at JRS have been attended by over 270,000 spectators, including a spring training record crowd of 67,654 fans for the first of the two Oriole-Yankee games last spring.

This past spring, JRS was renovated to accommodate baseball. Starting January 27, seats were removed from the north side of the stadium to initiate the renovation for baseball. This construction was completed in time for the two exhibition games held at the stadium in late March. The final phase of the renovation will be completed following the Dolphins' 1991 season when the steel platform on the north side will become retractable.

On March 7, 1990, H. Wayne Huizenga, Chairman of the Board and Chief Executive Officer of Blockbuster Video and Huizenga Holdings, Inc., agreed to purchase fifty percent (50%) of Robbie Stadium Corporation (the parent company of Joe Robbie Stadium) and became the point man in the drive to bring Major League Baseball to JRS. That effort was rewarded in June of 1991, when South Florida was awarded a National League expansion franchise. That team will play its home games at Joe Robbie Stadium beginning in 1993.

Located one mile south of the Dade-Broward county line, Joe Robbie Stadium sits on a 160-acre site. It is 16 miles northwest of downtown Miami and 14 miles north of the Orange Bowl, the Dolphins' former home.

The first football game in Joe Robbie Stadium featured Miami against Chicago in a preseason battle won by the Bears, 10-3, on Aug. 16, 1987 (the 22nd anniversary of the Dolphin franchise). Plans for the stadium first were announced on March 5, 1984. Clearing of the stadium site began on July 22, 1985, and groundbreaking ceremonies were held on Dec. 1, 1985 - just 20½ months prior to the first game.

Financing for the stadium was based largely upon the leasing of executive suites and club seats on 10-year leases. Executive suites, which seat 10, 12 or 16 people per box, originally ranged in price from $29,000-$65,000 per year. Each executive suite is fully furnished, including air-conditioning, carpeting, refrigerator, icemaker, lockable liquor cabinet, lounge furniture, two TV monitors and optional telephone hookup and catered food and beverage service. A suiteholder also receives two free parking spaces as well as four guest passes.

Club seats, which were originally priced from $600-$1,400 per year on a 10-year lease, are 21" wide (two inches wider than other seats in the stadium) with chairback and armrest. Club seats, whose patrons are kept cool by overhead vents which blow cold air down on them, are the only grandstand-style seating in the stadium underneath the overhang of the upper deck. Club seat holders also are guaranteed a parking space.

Only executive suite and club seat lessees have access to the air-conditioned stadium club, located behind the suites. The stadium club, which features a better food and beverage service than that found at concession stands, extends around the entire stadium. Holders of executive suites and club seats, who have the option to renew their lease over the life of the stadium, also have the right of first refusal on their seats for all other events in the stadium except the Super Bowl.

General seating in Joe Robbie Stadium is a 19" chairback seat with armrest, which compares favorably with the 17" bench seat of the Orange Bowl. Each seat offers an excellent view of the playing field as there are no obstructed seats in the stadium.

The stadium is easily accessible by the fan. Eight 25' wide ramps (two per corner) lead up to the upper deck. Also located on each corner are two escalators, one rising to the upper deck, the other to the club level. Executive suite holders also may access their seats by any one of four designated elevators.

There are a total of 14,970 parking spaces for cars and 254 for buses in the 140-acre on-site lot. There also is a helipad.

Comfort and convenience for the fan is the byword at Joe Robbie Stadium. In the general seating areas (100, 400 levels), there are 40 concession stands (each with a TV monitor so as not to miss a minute of the action). Throughout the stadium, there are a total of 80 restrooms (40 men, 40 women). For added enjoyment of the game, two giant scoreboards each equipped with a color Sony JumboTRON video screen are located on the ends of the stadium. JRS has played host to numerous soccer events.

The playing field is Prescription Athletic Turf (natural grass). Its drainage capacity is such that there would be a firm playing surface within 30 minutes of a 1" per hour rain.

Field lighting is 150-plus foot candles. The field lights also have the added feature of instant restrike capability. This means that the lights will go right back on after a power failure because they do not need a 20-30 minute warmup period as with some stadium lights.

Originally named Dolphin Stadium, the facility was renamed by the Robbie children on April 30, 1987, for the man who had been the driving force behind its construction. "We have seen our father lay everything he owns and everything he has accomplished on the line to build the stadium, putting himself in a real bind," said Tim Robbie, designated spokesman for the family. "If he had flunked the marketing test or the private financing test, the project would have been Joe Robbie's folly. So why not 'Joe Robbie Stadium?'" Stadiums have been named in other places after people who have done a lot less to deserve it."

Indeed they have.

WHAT TO LOOK FOR IN 1991

Dolphins . . .

- to lead the league in fewest sacks allowed for the tenth straight season. Miami holds NFL records for most seasons leading the league (10; 1973, 1982-90) and most consecutive seasons leading the league (9; 1982-90) in this category.

Don Shula . . .

- to reach 300 career coaching victories. He has 298 wins and would join George Halas (325 wins) as the only coaches in NFL history to achieve the 300-win mark.

Fred Banks . . .

- to record his 100th career reception. He has 72.

Mark Clayton . . .

- to break the team record for career touchdowns. He has 67 and trails only Nat Moore who had 75.
- to break the team record for most career receiving touchdowns. He has 66 and trails only Nat Moore who had 74.
- to break the team record for career receiving yards. He has 6,971 and trails Mark Duper (7,022) and Nat Moore (7,547); Duper is active in '91.
- to break the team record for most total yards from scrimmage. He has 7,079 yards and trails Tony Nathan (7,135), Larry Csonka (7,425) and Nat Moore (7,795).
- to record his 500th career reception. He has 437.
- to reach 7,000 career receiving yards. He has 6,971 yards.
- to extend his team record for most consecutive games with at least one reception. He has caught a pass in 63 straight games.
- should he lead the league in touchdown receptions, he would join only three others to have led the NFL in that category three or more seasons. He led the league in 1984 and 1988.
- should he gain over 1,000 receiving yards, he would join six other players to have registered five or more seasons with 1,000 or more receiving yards. Houston's Drew Hill and Washington's Art Monk and Gary Clark also have four seasons with 1,000-plus receiving yards. He gained over 1,000 yards in 1984, 1986, 1988-89.
- should he record 50 or more receptions, he would join 16 other players who have registered six or more seasons with 50-plus receptions. San Francisco's Jerry Rice, L.A. Raiders' Roger Craig, Houston's Drew Hill and Ernest Givins, Buffalo's Andre Reed, Indianapolis' Bill Brooks, N.Y. Jets' Al Toon, Phoenix's Roy Green and J.T. Smith and the L.A. Rams' Henry Ellard also have five seasons with 50 or more receptions. He caught 50 or more passes in 1984-86, 1988-89.

Mark Duper . . .

- to break the team record for career receiving yards. He has 7,022 and trails Nat Moore (7,547); Clayton is right behind Duper at 6,971.
- to break the team record for most total yards from scrimmage. He has 7,012 yards and trails Mark Clayton (7,079), Tony Nathan (7,135), Larry Csonka (7,425) and Nat Moore (7,795). Clayton is active in '91.
- to record his 400th career reception. He has 397.
- to record his 50th career touchdown reception. He has 47.

Ferrell Edmunds . . .

- to record his 100th career reception. He has 96.

Jim Jensen . . .

- to move as high as a tie for fifth place on the team's all-time games played list with Bob Griese (161), passing Doug Betters (146), Larry Seiple (149), Bruce Hardy (151), Larry Little (158), Vern Den Herder (159). He has played in 145 games.
- to move as high as fifth on the team's all-time career reception list. He has 208 catches and could pass Howard Twilley (212), Jim Kiick (221), Bruce Hardy (256) and Duriel Harris (269).
- to reach 2,000 career receiving yards. He has 1,988.

Marc Logan . . .

- to reach 1,000 career rushing yards. He has 732.

Dan Marino . . .

- to move as high as fifth on the NFL's all-time passing yardage list, passing John Brodie (31,548), Sonny Jurgensen (32,224), Ken Anderson (32,838), John Hadl (33,513) and Jim Hart (34,665). He has 31,416 yards.

- to move as high as third on the NFL's all-time touchdown pass list, passing John Hadl (244), Dan Fouts (254) and Sonny Jurgensen (255). He has 241 and also trails San Francisco's Joe Montana (242).
- to record his NFL-record ninth season with 20 or more touchdown passes. He has eight such seasons and is tied with Johnny Unitas.
- to become the NFL's all-time leader in games with four or more TD passes. He has 16 such games and the leader is Johnny Unitas with 17.
- should he lead the league in attempts, he would join only three others who have led the NFL in that category for four seasons. He led the league in 1984, 1986 and 1988.
- should he lead the league in completions, he would join only Sammy Baugh to have led the NFL in that category for five seasons. He led the league in 1984-86 and 1988.
- should he lead the league in passing yards, he would join only Sonny Jurgensen to have led the NFL in that category for five seasons. He led the league in 1984-86 and 1988.
- should he lead the league in touchdown passes, he would join only two other to have led the NFL in that category for four seasons. He led the league in 1984-86.
- should he throw for 3,000 or more passing yards, he would accomplish that feat for the eighth time in his career and become the NFL's all-time leader in that category. He passed for 3,000 or more yards in 1984-90. San Francisco's Joe Montana has also recorded seven seasons with 3,000 or more passing yards and could join Marino in '91.

Cliff Odom . . .

- to record his 1,000 career tackle. He has 921.

John Offerdahl . . .

- should he be selected to the Pro Bowl, he would accomplish the feat for the sixth time in his career and would tie the team record for most Pro Bowl appearances with Bob Griese, Jim Langer, Bob Kuechenberg and Dwight Stephenson. He was selected in 1986-90.
- should he be selected to the Pro Bowl, he would accomplish the feat for the sixth consecutive season and would tie the team record for most consecutive Pro Bowl appearances with Jim Langer and Dwight Stephenson. He was selected in 1986-90.

Tony Paige . . .

- to play in his 100th career game. He has played in 98.

Sammie Smith . . .

- to move as high as sixth on the team's all-time rushing list, passing Don Nottingham (1,524), Woody Bennett (1,761), Lorenzo Hampton (1,949), Benny Malone (2,129) and Andra Franklin (2,232). He has 1,490 yards.

Pete Stoyanovich . . .

- to move as high as seventh on the team's all-time scoring list. He has 195 points and trails Tony Nathan (198), Paul Warfield (198), Mercury Morris (198) and Mark Duper (282); Duper is active in '91.

Jarvis Williams . . .

- to move as high as eighth on the team's all-time interception list, passing Lyle Blackwood and Lloyd Mumford (14), Dick Westmoreland (15) and Don McNeal (18). He has 11 interceptions.

DOLPHIN FACT

Miami's 1991 off-season trade of linebacker Eric Kumerow to the Chicago Bears for cornerback Vestee Jackson was the Dolphins first player-for-player trade since August 27, 1984, when Miami sent cornerback Gerald Small to the Atlanta Falcons for tackle Ronnie Lee and a sixth-round pick in 1985.

1991 DOLPHINS

Dolphins: Fifth Season

PRO: 1990 – Wide receiver is among the fastest Dolphins (consistently timed under 4.4 in the forty) . . . Played in eight regular season games with one start . . . Finished season with 13 catches for 131 yards and added one rush for three yards . . . Opened season as starter at wide receiver at New England (9/9) in place of Mark Clayton, who was inactive for that game with a hamstring injury . . . Led team in receptions with six catches (matching his single game high, accomplished twice previously) for 53 yards . . . Caught two passes for 33 yards and recorded first career rush for three yards on a reverse vs. Buffalo (9/16) . . . Dressed but did not play at Pittsburgh (9/30) due to foot injury . . . Registered four catches for 30 yards vs. N.Y. Jets (9/23) . . . Caught one pass for 15 yards at Indianapolis (11/28) . . . Suffered fractured foot in practice on Nov. 15 . . . Placed on injured reserve on Nov. 16 . . . Missed last seven games of regular season and playoffs.

1989 – Had best season of NFL career . . . Played in 15 games with three starts . . . Set career highs with 30 catches and 520 receiving yards . . . In addition, his average of 17.3 yards per catch was the best mark on the team among receivers with ten or more receptions . . . It was the second straight season that he led the team in average gain per reception, and he is only Dolphin other than Mark Duper or Mark Clayton to lead Miami in average yards per catch (20 or more receptions) since 1982 . . . Recorded one or more receptions in 12 of his 15 games . . . Started games vs. Buffalo (9/10), at N.Y. Jets (11/12) and at Indianapolis (12/17) . . . Was on inactive list at New England (9/17) . . . Caught 43-yard touchdown reception on "Hail Mary" pass from Dan Marino that was tipped by teammate Andre Brown on last play of first half to give the Dolphins a 20-12 lead vs. N.Y. Jets (9/24) . . . Caught two passes for 85 yards (including a career-long 61-yard grab) vs. Green Bay (10/22) . . . Recorded four catches for 79 yards at N.Y. Jets (11/12) . . . Had exceptional game vs. New England (12/10) as he registered six catches for a career-high 119 yards.

1988 – Saw action in 11 games with two starts in 1988 . . . Caught 23 passes for 430 yards and two touchdowns, figures that all were career highs until they were surpassed in 1989 . . . Also had the first 100-yard receiving day of career . . . Caught two or more passes in eight of his 11 games . . . Averaged a team-high 18.7 yards per reception . . . Became the first Dolphin to lead team in average gain per reception (with 20 or more catches) other than Mark Duper or Mark Clayton since Jimmy Cefalo led club with a 30.9 average in 1982 . . . Missed first four games of regular season after suffering rib injury in preseason contest against Denver . . . Activated from IR on Oct. 1, the day before Minnesota game . . . Caught two passes for 18 yards in first action of season vs. Vikings (10/2) . . . Starred at Jets (11/27) with three receptions for 73 yards and a career single game high of two touchdowns . . . Made first Miami start against Indianapolis (12/4) and responded with a 55-yard grab . . . Had exceptional game against his former team Cleveland

1987 – Joined Dolphins as free agent after impressive showing in mini-camp . . . Won job as team's fifth wide receiver over Miami's all-time leading receiver Nat Moore . . . Played in three games in '87 with no starts . . . Active for first two games of season plus second meeting with Colts (11/15) . . . Spent much of year on five-man inactive roster . . . Was released on 12/11 then re-signed four days later . . . Only catch of '87 season was 10-yard TD grab in second Indianapolis game to give Dolphins lead at halftime.

1986 – Did not see game action in 1986 . . . Forced on to injured reserve in '86 training camp after suffering foot injury while playing basketball just prior to reporting . . . Waived off IR two weeks into '86 season (9/16).

1985 – Broke into league in '85 with Cleveland . . . Played in 10 games for Browns with five starts . . . Made five receptions for 62 yards (12.4 average) and two TDs . . . Caught 17-yard TD pass in Monday night win over Pittsburgh (9/16) . . . Also had eight-yard TD grab against Houston . . . Spent five weeks on injured reserve at mid-season with hamstringing injury . . . Eighth-round draft choice (203rd overall) of Cleveland in 1985.

COLLEGE: Two-year starter (1982, 1984) for Liberty University after stint at Chowan Junior College (1980-81) . . . Forced to redshirt in 1983 after suffering wrist injury . . . Played and started in just 10 games (the fewest in his career) and finished with 32 catches for 406 yards and three touchdowns . . . Finished fourth on the Dolphins in receptions and was third in reception yardage . . . His 32 catches and 406 yards in receptions both are the lowest totals since his rookie season of 1983 . . .

INJURIES: Overall in 1990 missed six games due to injury, including five straight while on Injured Reserve . . . Had been placed on the Injured List on November 13th with a partial tear of the medial collateral ligament of his right knee that did not require any surgery . . . The injury occurred on Nov. 11th vs. the Jets and he missed the next five games before his activation . . . Was activated from the Injured List on Dec. 22nd and he played at Buffalo the following day . . . It was the first time in his career he was on IR and had never missed more than two games in any one season due to injury prior to 1990 . . . Earlier in the season, on Sept. 9th at New England, was one of two players on inactive list because of a hamstring injury sustained during training camp . . . Before 1990 had missed only three games since becoming a regular at the start of the 1984 season . . . Was hampered most of training camp with a pulled hamstring that forced him to miss the first two preseason games and suffered a slight recurrence of that injury in the preseason finale August 31st vs. Minnesota . . .

RECEPTIONS: Finished fourth on the Dolphins with 32 catches in 1990, his lowest total since he had just six receptions as a rookie in 1983 . . . With 437 career receptions he ranks second on the Dolphins' all-time reception list, trailing only Nat Moore (510) . . . Has led the Dolphins in receiving three times during his career . . . He holds three of the top five positions and five of the top ten spots in the club's all-time single season listing of receptions:

DOLPHIN SINGLE SEASON RECEIVING LEADERS

CATCHES	PLAYER	YEAR	CATCHES	PLAYER	YEAR
1. 86	MARK CLAYTON	1988	6. 67	Mark Duper	1986
2. 73	MARK CLAYTON	1984	67	Jack Clancy	1967
3. 72	Tony Nathan	1985	8. 64	MARK CLAYTON	1989
4. 71	Mark Duper	1984	9. 61	Jim Jensen	1989
5. 70	MARK CLAYTON	1985	10. 60	MARK CLAYTON	1986

Clayton has caught 50 or more passes five seasons in his career (1984-86, 1988-89), and if he catches 50 or more passes in 1991, he will become the 17th player in NFL history to record six or more 50-plus reception seasons (Jerry Rice, Henry Ellard, Roger Craig, Drew Hill, Ernest Givins, Andre Reed, Bill Brooks, Al Toon, Roy Green, and J. T. Smith also can join that group with 50 receptions in 1991) . . . Beginning on October 12, 1986 vs. Buffalo, has a current streak of at least one catch in his last 63 straight regular season games played (65, including playoff contests), breaking Nat Moore's team record (36) for most consecutive games with at least one reception . . . He broke that record on December 12, 1988 vs. Cleveland, when he caught a pass in his 37th straight game . . . In fact has caught at least two passes in the first 40 of those games and 56 of those 63 games overall (58 of 65 including postseason games), being limited to one reception in that span only on Oct. 1, 1989 at Houston, Nov. 5, 1989 vs. Indianapolis, Nov. 19, 1989 at Dallas, Dec. 17, 1989 at Indianapolis, Oct. 7, 1990 vs. N.Y. Jets, Nov. 11, 1990 at N.Y. Jets, and Dec. 30, 1990 vs. Indianapolis . . . The last time he was held without a catch was on Oct. 5, 1986 at New England . . . His single game high in 1990 was on Dec. 23rd at Buffalo, leading the Dolphins in both catches and reception yards with seven catches for 89 yards and one touchdown . . . His seven catches was the third highest single game total by a Dolphin in 1990. . .

YARDAGE: Finished third on the Dolphins with 406 yards in 1990 . . . It was his lowest total since he had 114 reception yards as a rookie in 1983 . . . With 6,971 career reception yards, needs 29 yards in receptions to become third Dolphin to crack 7,000 yards in receptions (Nat Moore and Mark Duper were the first and second, respectively) . . . Has four 1,000-yard seasons in his career, a Dolphin record . . . Clayton holds four of the top six positions and five of the top ten spots in the club's all-time single season listing of reception yardage leaders:

DOLPHIN SINGLE SEASON RECEPTION YARDAGE LEADERS

YARDS	PLAYER	YEAR	YARDS	PLAYER	YEAR
1. 1,389	MARK CLAYTON	1984	6. 1,011	MARK CLAYTON	1989
2. 1,313	Mark Duper	1986	7. 1,003	Mark Duper	1983
3. 1,306	Mark Duper	1984	8. 996	MARK CLAYTON	1985
4. 1,150	MARK CLAYTON	1986	996	Paul Warfield	1971
5. 1,129	MARK CLAYTON	1988	10. 911	Duriel Harris	1981

Clayton is one of 15 players in NFL history to gain 1,000 or more yards in receptions four times, and should he gain 1,000 yards in receptions in 1991, he would become the seventh player in NFL history to have five or more seasons of 1,000 reception yards, joining Steve Largent (eight seasons), Lance Alworth (7), Art Powell (5), Don Maynard (5), James Lofton (5) and Jerry Rice (5) . . . Drew Hill, Gary Clark, and Art Monk also could join that group if they gain 1,000 yards in receptions . . . Has 20 career 100-yard games (all in regular season), second in team history only to Mark Duper's club record of 25 career regular season 100-yard contests (28 career 100-yard games, including playoffs) . . . On Oct. 18th vs. Patriots led Dolphins with 92 yards, his 1990 single game reception yardage high . . .

TOUCHDOWN CATCHES: His three touchdown catches in 1991 was his lowest total since he had one TD catch as a rookie in 1983 . . . Clayton has caught a touchdown pass in 54 regular season games (57, including playoffs), and in those games the Dolphins have a 32-22 record (35-22, including postseason play) . . . Clayton also has caught a touchdown pass in 18 of his last 33 regular season games (19 of 35, including playoffs), with 24 TDs total in those 33 contests (25 TDs in 35 overall games) . . . Over the course of their eight-year careers, Clayton and Dan Marino have combined for 65 touchdown passes, the highest scoring combination in NFL history, surpassing other famous quarterback-to-receiver combinations such as Baltimore's Johnny Unitas to Raymond Berry (63 touchdowns), San Francisco's Joe Montana to Jerry Rice (55 touchdowns), Seattle's Jim Zorn to Steve Largent (43 touchdowns), and Buffalo's Jim Kelly to Andre Reed (34 touchdowns) . . . Clayton has caught 65 of his 66 career regular season touchdowns from Marino; the only other quarterback to throw a touchdown pass to Clayton was Ron Jaworski with a 13-yard TD pass on December 18, 1988 . . . Should Clayton lead the NFL in touchdown receptions in 1991, he would join Don Hudson (nine times, 1935-38 and 1940-44), Jerry Rice (four times, 1986-87 and 1989-90), and Lance Alworth (three times, 1964-66) as the only receivers to have led the league in that category three or more times . . .

DOLPHIN ALL-TIME LEADERS: With 6,971 career receiving yards stands third on the Dolphin all-time list behind Moore's club record of 7,547 yards and Mark Duper's 7,022 yards and along with Moore and Duper are the only Dolphins to have gone over 6,000 receiving yards . . . With 402 career points, ranks fourth on the Dolphins' all-time list (Nat Moore is third with 450 points) . . . He is second on the career touchdown list with 67 TDs (Nat Moore is first with 75 TDs) . . . Is second in career receiving touchdowns with 66 TDs, trailing only Moore's team record of 74 receiving touchdowns . . . With 7,604 combined yards (108 rushing, 6,971 receiving, and 525 returns), he passed Mercury Morris (who had 7,486 combined yards) and moved into third place on the Dolphins' all-time combined yardage chart . . . Tony Nathan is in second place on that list with 8,752 combined yards . . . With 7,079 rushing and receiving yards, he is in fourth place on the all-time Dolphin rushing/receiving list (Duper is fifth with 7,012 total yards from scrimmage and Nathan is third with 7,135 total yards) . . .

AS A REGULAR: In his career, Clayton has caught at least one pass in 110 of 121 games (including seven of eight post-season contests), but since becoming a regular in 1984 (his second season in the league), Clayton has caught at least one pass in 105 of his 106 games played (including all seven post-season contests), with his one game without a catch in that span coming on October 5, 1986 at New England . . . In his seven years as a starter, he ranks among the NFL regular season league leaders in all three major statistical receiving categories:

NFL RECEIVING, LAST SEVEN YEARS (1984-1990)

G. Clark	415	D. Hill	6,758	R. Green	45

WITH MARK DUPER: Clayton and fellow receiver Mark Duper form duo nationally known as the "Marks Brothers" . . . The duo have had 100 or more yards receiving in the same game four times (October 23, 1988 vs. New York Jets; October 19, 1986 vs. Los Angeles Raiders; September 21, 1986 at New York Jets; September 30, 1984 at St. Louis Cardinals), with the Dolphins going

1-3 in those games . . . When either Clayton or Duper go over 100 yards receiving in a game, Miami is 26-19 (regular season) . . . The Dolphins are 10-10 when Clayton tops 100 yards and 16-9 when Duper tops 100 yards . . . Starting with 1983, Clayton's first season in the league, the duo have combined for 13,993 yard receiving, the second highest total by a pair of receivers on the same team in that span, and have a combined 834 catches, the third highest total by a duo with the same club over the past eight years:

GAME HIGHLIGHTS: In his first game back following his activation from IR, Clayton led the Dolphins in catches and reception yardage Dec. 23rd at Buffalo with seven catches for 89 yards and one touchdown . . . His seven catches was his 1990 season high and was the third highest single game total by a Dolphin last season . . . Had only one catch for 11 yards in his previous game, Nov. 11th at N.Y. Jets before leaving contest permanently in first half with knee injury . . . Had four catches for 50 yards Nov. 4th vs. Phoenix, including a seven-yard touchdown pass from Dan Marino . . . Oct. 18th vs. Patriots tied for team lead with five catches for a team-high 92 yards, his 1990 single game reception yardage high . . . Started but played only briefly Oct. 7th vs. Jets due to an ankle injury sustained Sept. 30th vs. Steelers at Pittsburgh and had one catch for 10 yards before leaving the game . . . Had three catches for 51 yards Sept. 30th at Pittsburgh, including a 35-yard touchdown reception from Dan Marino . . . Led Dolphins with five receptions Sept. 23rd at Giants for 41 yards . . . Made his 1990 season debut in a start Sept. 16th vs. Buffalo and had three catches for 41 yards . . .

PLAYOFFS: Led team in receptions in postseason with nine catches for 148 yards (second on team), an average of 16.4 yards per catch, and had one touchdown . . . Also had one punt return (along with a fair catch) for three yards . . . Tied for team lead with four receptions for 82 yards on Jan. 12th at Buffalo, including a long reception of 29 yards . . . His 82 yards in receptions was the third highest single game total of his playoff career . . . Had five receptions for 66 yards and one touchdown in playoff game on January 5th vs. Kansas City . . . His five receptions were tied for the team lead and his 66 yards in receptions led the Dolphins . . . His touchdown catch, a 12-yard reception from Dan Marino with 3:28 left in the game, gave the Dolphins their winning (and final) points in their 17-16 win over the Chiefs.

1989 - Finished the season with 64 catches for 1,011 yards (an average of 15.8 yards per reception) and nine touchdowns . . . Led the Dolphins in receptions, reception yardage, touchdowns, and touchdown catches . . . Also had three rushing attempts for nine yards (an average of 3.0 yards per carry), with a long gain of 11 yards . . . Played and started in 15 of the team's 16 games in 1989, missing only the first game of the season in a contract dispute . . . Reported to camp on September 12th after holding out through all of training camp and the first regular season game . . . Was placed on the active roster on September 16th and started the following day against New England, the Dolphins' second game of the season . . . Until his activation he had been on Miami's Reserve/Did not report list, where he was placed on July 28th . . . Finished ninth in the AFC and 21st in the NFL in receptions (64), eighth in the AFC and 20th in the NFL in reception yardage (1,011), tied for fifth in the AFC and tied for 15th in the NFL in touchdowns (9), and tied for second in the AFC (behind Anthony Miller of San Diego, with ten TD catches) and tied for sixth in the NFL in touchdown receptions (9) . . . His 64 receptions was the fourth highest single season total of his career and it was the third time he has led the Dolphins in receptions . . . II also was the eighth best single season reception total in Dolphin history . . . His first reception on December 3, 1989 at Kansas City gave him 384 career receptions as a Dolphin to move him past Tony Nathan into sole possession of second place on Miami's all-time reception list . . . Had nine catches on Dec. 3rd at Kansas City, the most receptions by a Dolphin in a game in 1989 and it matched the tenth highest single game reception total in Dolphin history, accomplished six other times (the last time in 1987) . . . It also tied Clayton's second best single game reception total of his career (he also had nine catches on December 2, 1984 vs. the L.A. Raiders and on December 9, 1984 at Indianapolis), surpassed only by his ten catches vs. N.Y. Jets on October 23, 1988 . . . His 1,011 yards in receptions in 1989 was the fourth 1,000-yard season of his career, setting a new Dolphin record (he had been tied with Mark Duper for the club record of three 1,000 yard reception seasons) . . . It also was only the seventh time in Dolphin history a receiver reached the 1,000 yard mark and it was the sixth best single season reception yardage total in Dolphin history . . . Clayton had five 100-yard games in 1989 (including three of the four Dolphin games in December) . . . Clayton's 78-yard TD reception Nov. 12th at N.Y. Jets was the longest play from scrimmage by the Dolphins in 1989, the longest reception in Clayton's career, and the eighth longest completion in Dolphin history . . . When Clayton was held without a touchdown reception on Oct. 1st at Houston, that put an end to his streak of six consecutive games with a touchdown catch (his first two games in 1989 and each of his final four games of the 1988 season) and left him tied with Paul Warfield for the Dolphin club record for most consecutive games with a receiving touchdown (6) . . . Warfield set the record in six consecutive games (his 4th through 9th games) in 1971 . . . Clayton also caught one touchdown pass in each of four straight games (Oct. 22nd vs. Green Bay, Oct. 29th at Buffalo, Nov. 5th vs. Indianapolis, and Nov. 12th at N.Y. Jets), matching Andre Brown for the Dolphins' longest consecutive game streak with a TD catch in 1989 . . . Clayton caught a TD pass in nine of his 15 games in 1989 . . . Received the Dolphins' Outstanding Receiver Award in 1989 for the third consecutive year and the fifth time overall . . . That award has gone to either Clayton or Duper each of the last eight years, with Clayton also winning it in 1984, 1985, 1987, and 1988, while Duper won in 1983, 1986, and 1990 . . . Has been named to four Pro Bowl teams (1984-86, 1989).

1988 - Set Miami team record in 1988 with 86 receptions, eclipsing the previous club record of 73 catches which he set in 1984 . . . Finished with 1,129 receiving yards (an average of 13.1 yards per catch) and 14 touchdowns . . . Had three 100-yard receiving games . . . Caught a touchdown pass in nine games . . . Picked up four yards in his one rushing attempt of the season, on November 20th vs. New England . . . Started all 16 games . . . Was named to his fourth Pro Bowl . . . Was named United Press International All-AFC (second team) . . . Received the Dolphins' Outstanding Receiver Award for the second consecutive year and the fourth time overall . . . His 86 catches ranked tied for second in the NFL (along with the Rams' Henry Ellard) behind the Jets' Al Toon's 93 receptions . . . His 1,129 reception yards was third in the AFC behind Cincinnati's Eddie Brown (1,273 yards) and Houston's Drew Hill (1,141 yards) and ranked seventh in the NFL . . . Coupled with his one rushing attempt for four yards, his 1,133 total yards from scrimmage ranked 14th in the AFC. His 14 touchdowns for 84 points ranked tied for fourth in scoring (along with Cincinnati's James Brooks and Buffalo's Rob Riddick) among non-kickers in the NFL (behind Indianapolis' Eric Dickerson and Cincinnati's Ickey Woods, who had 90 points apiece, and Greg Bell of the Rams, who had 108 points), and was tied for third in the AFC . . . His 14 receiving touchdowns led the NFL (Rickey Sanders of Washington was second with 12) . . . His 1,129 receiving yards was the fifth best single season total in club history . . . His 14 receiving touchdowns is the second highest total in Miami history, behind his then-NFL record of 18 reception TDs in 1984, and his 14 overall touchdowns also is the second highest total in club history behind his club record of 18 TDs overall in 1984 . . . Tied a then-Dolphins team record with ten receptions (for 153 yards, the third highest single game yardage total of his career, and two touchdowns) on October 23rd vs. New York Jets (record was later broken by Jim Jensen, who had 12 catches on November 6th at New England) . . . The ten catches remains Clayton's single game best, and is tied for the second highest Dolphin single game reception total, along with Tony Nathan (three times), Duriel Harris and Ron Davenport, behind Jensen's record of 12 catches . . . His longest reception of the season was on a 45-yard touchdown pass on October 23rd vs. the Jets . . . On October 30th at Tampa Bay made his 300th career reception and became third Dolphin to go over 5,000 career receiving yards.

1987 – Started all 12 non-strike games and finished second on the team in receptions (behind Troy Stradford) with 46 for 776 yards (16.9 average) and seven TDs . . . Was first in receiving yards on club . . . In AFC was eighth in receiving yards, 17th in receptions and ninth in scoring (non-kickers) with 42 points . . . Made at least two catches in every game he played . . . Had only 100-yard game December 13th at Philadelphia with seven catches for 104 yards and two TDs . . . Reception and yardage totals against Eagles both were season highs . . . Had six receptions in first Buffalo contest (81 yards, one TD) and second meeting with Jets (96 yards) . . . Caught eventual winning touchdown pass (of 30 yards) at Cincinnati, a reception which also kept Dan Marino's streak of consecutive games with at least one TD toss alive at 28.

1986 – Finished with 60 receptions for 1,150 yards and 10 TDs, his second 1,000-yard season . . . Was third on team in receptions and second in receiving yards . . . Ranked fifth in conference in reception yardage and was seventh in NFL . . . Named as an alternate to 1986 Pro Bowl, played when Duper was unable to participate . . . Played in 15 games with 14 starts, missing Atlanta game after suffering first-degree separation of right shoulder in game against Jets on November 24th . . . Came back two weeks later at New Orleans to catch four passes for 47 yards, including 200th career reception . . . Turned in best effort of season on September 21st at Jets with eight catches for 174 yards and one touchdown . . . His 177 yards on nine catches (two TDs) versus Raiders on December 2nd is sixth best single-game performance in Dolphin history.

1985 – Started all 16 regular season games plus two playoff contests . . . Finished second on team in receptions (70), only two behind leader Tony Nathan, for 996 yards and four TDs . . . Had four receptions for 56 yards in playoff action . . . Was first on team in pass reception yardage . . . Was eighth in AFC in receptions, seventh in receiving yardage . . . Football News first-team All-AFC selection . . . UPI second-team All-AFC honoree . . . Top game came at home versus Colts on September 15th when he caught eight passes for 106 yards and one TD.

1984 – Had truly sensational year, leaping into national prominence with record-setting campaign in just his second NFL season . . . Caught 73 passes for 1,389 yards and 18 touchdowns . . . His 73 receptions set a Dolphins' single season record that stood until he broke it in 1988 with 86 receptions . . . His 1,389 yards receiving set a club record for receiving yards that still stands . . . His 18 touchdowns set Dolphin records for overall touchdowns and touchdown catches that still stand . . . It also set an NFL record for receiving touchdowns that stood until Jerry Rice of the 49ers caught 22 scoring passes in 1987 . . . Along with Duper (1,306) became first teammates to ever each amass over 1,300 receiving yards . . . Ranked third in league in reception yards and was fifth in AFC in catches . . . Enjoyed six 100-yard receiving days, then a team record . . . Caught at least one touchdown pass in 16 of Miami's 19 total games . . . Caught a then-career high nine passes two successive weeks (December 2nd vs. Raiders and December 9th vs. Colts) . . . In 1984 AFC Playoff Game vs. Seattle (Dec. 29, 1984), made acrobatic catch of tipped ball in end zone for 33-yard touchdown catch in Miami's 31-10 win . . . In the 1984 AFC Championship Game (Jan. 6, 1985) in Miami, caught four passes for 95 yards, including a 40-yard TD pass from Dan Marino in Miami's 45-28 win over Pittsburgh . . . In Super Bowl XIX (January 20, 1985 at Stanford), caught six passes for 92 yards in Miami's 38-16 loss to San Francisco . . . Appeared on cover of Sports Illustrated (September 10th) following clutch scoring catch in season-opening win at Washington . . . Postseason honors included AP second team All-Pro, AFC Pro Bowl and USA Today first-team All-Pro.

1983 – Appeared in 14 games in rookie year and set club record for punt return yardage in a season with 392 on 41 returns . . . Had become Miami's punt returner following opening-game knee injury to Tom Vigorito . . . Scored first ever NFL TD against Bills on 14-yard catch in 38-35 OT loss on October 9th while also throwing a 48-yard touchdown pass to Duper on a double reverse option (Marino to Nathan to Clayton) . . . Received first game ball following 37-0 shutout of Colts on November 20th thanks to a 60-yard punt return for a score . . . Suffered broken ribs versus Cincinnati (November 28th) and missed next two games . . . Eighth-round draft choice (223rd overall) of Miami in 1983.

COLLEGE: Had school record-setting tenure at Louisville (1979-82) . . . Set Cardinal career records for most receiving yards (2,004) and highest average per-catch (20.9 yards) . . . Enjoyed spectacular senior season with 53 catches for school record 1,112 yards, 20.9-yard average and six touchdowns to rank 13th in nation in receiving . . . Also set school standard with three TD receptions versus Richmond on 10/16/82 . . . Was named All-South Independent and team MVP in '82 . . . As junior, had 27 catches for 596 yards (22.1 average) and three TDs . . . Contributed 15 receptions for 288 yards and one TD as sophomore . . . Majored in telecommunications.

PERSONAL: Single, splits residence between Pembroke Pines, Fla., Indianapolis, and Atlanta . . . Was leading scorer on Dolphins' basketball team in past four years . . . Founder of Clayton's Kids, an organization which provides a chance to attend Dolphin games to Miami-area underprivileged children who normally would not have opportunity to do so . . . Sponsored golf tournament to raise money for The Starting Place (drug and alcohol rehabilitation center) in off-season for fourth year in a row . . . Also has worked with "Say No to Drugs" campaign and cystic fibrosis . . . Hobbies include bowling (participates in weekly bowling league), playing guitar and going to arcades . . . Is active in martial arts and is studying Choi-Kwon-Do . . . Acquired: D2, 1982

NFL: Tenth Season

Dolphins: Tenth Season

PRO: 1990 – Finished 1990 as the Dolphin leader in both receptions and reception yardage with 52 catches for 810 yards (an average of 15.6 yards per catch) and had five touchdowns . . . Played in all 16 games (the fourth time in his career he played in every game), making 15 starts . . . His one appearance off the bench came on Sept. 23rd at the N.Y. Giants . . . His 52 catches was the third best total of his career and his 810 yards was the fourth best single season figure of his career . . . Duper ranked tied for 18th in the AFC in receptions and 14th in the AFC in reception yardage . . . His five touchdown receptions were more than double his total of TD catches in 1988 and 1989 combined (2) . . . In the five contests Mark Clayton missed due to injury (Nov. 19 - Dec. 16) Duper recorded 19 catches for 306 yards and two touchdowns . . . Has career totals of 397 receptions for 7,022 yards (17.7 yards per catch) and 47 touchdowns . . .

RECEPTIONS: With 52 receptions, it was the second time in his career Duper led the Dolphins in receiving . . . Caught at least one pass in each of his 16 games in 1990 (including 14 games of two or more receptions) . . . Has caught at least one pass in 109 of 122 career games (89.3%), including seven of eight playoff games . . . In 1989 became the fourth Miami receiver to record 300 career catches . . . Now has 397 career receptions . . . Needs three more receptions to become the third player in Dolphin history (after Nat Moore and Mark Clayton) to record 400 career receptions . . . Had a season high eight receptions on Dec. 9th vs. Philadelphia . . . His eight catches tied for the most catches by a Dolphin in 1990 (Tony Paige also had eight receptions, on Oct. 28th at Indianapolis) and Duper's eight catches was tied for the third highest single game reception total of his career . . . Duper's third catch in that Eagle contest moved him into third place on the Dolphin all-time receiving list, passing Tony Nathan, who had 383 career receptions . . .

YARDAGE: His 810 yards in receptions marked the third time in his career he led the Dolphins in reception yardage . . . On Oct. 7th vs. N.Y. Jets, Duper had five catches for 125 yards and two touchdowns . . . It was the only 100-yard regular season game by a Dolphin receiver in 1990 and it was Duper's first 100-yard game since Oct. 15, 1989 at Cincinnati . . . His 69-yard touchdown reception from Dan Marino in that Jets' game was the Dolphins' longest pass completion of the season . . . Duper also had three receptions for 113 yards and one touchdown in playoff game at Buffalo on Jan. 12th, including a 64-yard TD catch from Dan Marino, his longest reception in a post-season game . . . Now has 25 games of 100 or more yards in receptions (28 including playoffs), extending his Dolphin record . . . Went over 7,000 yards in receptions on Dec. 30th vs. Indianapolis, becoming the second Dolphin (after Nat Moore) to reach 7,000 career yards . . . Now has 7,022 career yards in receptions . . . Duper's average of 17.7 yards per catch is the second highest career yards per catch average in team history, behind only the 21.5 average of Paul Warfield, and he ranks among the career league leaders among active players in average yards per catch:

TOUCHDOWN: On Oct. 7th vs. Jets caught five passes for 125 yards and two touchdowns . . . His first touchdown catch in that game was a 69-yard TD reception from Dan Marino, the Dolphins' longest play from scrimmage in 1990 . . . It also was his first TD reception since October 8, 1989, against the Cleveland Browns, going 16 games in between those contests without a touchdown catch . . . His other TD catch was a 13-yard grab from Marino with 1:03 left in the game to give the Dolphins a 20-16 comeback win . . . It was the first time he caught two or more TD passes in a game since December 20, 1987, when he caught three scores in a 23-21 win over the Washington Redskins at Joe Robbie Stadium . . . In addition, his two TD catches matched his output over his previous 32 games, covering all of his games in 1988 (13 games) and 1989 (15 games) and his first four games of 1990, when he had a total of two TD catches (one each in 1988 and 1989) . . . His five touchdown catches in 1990 more than doubled his total (2) from the previous two seasons (1989 and 1988) combined . . . Has a total of seven TD receptions in his last three years, but had a total of 40 TD catches in his previous five seasons (1983-1987), the first five seasons he was a starter . . . With 47 touchdowns, needs three TD receptions to total 50 TDs for his career . . .

AMONG DOLPHIN LEADERS: With 397 catches, he ranks third on the Dolphin all-time reception list, behind Nat Moore (510) and Mark Clayton (437) . . . He moved past Tony Nathan (383) into third place with his third reception on Dec. 9th vs. Philadelphia . . . His 7,022 reception yards ranks second on the team's all-time receiving yardage list, behind Nat Moore's club record of 7,547 yards (Mark Clayton is third with 6,971 yards) . . . Duper's average of 17.7 yards per catch is the second highest career yards per catch average in team history, behind only the 21.5 average of Paul Warfield . . . His 47 receiving touchdowns is third on the club's receiving TD list, behind Moore (74) and Clayton (66) . . . His 47 touchdowns also ranks fourth on the Dolphins' overall touchdown list, behind Moore (75), Clayton (67), and Larry Csonka (57) . . . Among all scorers, his 282 career points ranks seventh on the club's all-time points list (Fuad Reveiz is sixth with 320 points) . . . Has 25 100-yard games for his career (28 including playoffs), extending his own team record (Clayton is second with 20 100-yard games) . . . With 7,012 total yards (rushing and receiving) from scrimmage, ranks fourth in total yards from scrimmage (Tony Nathan is third with 7,135 total yards) . . . Has teamed with Dan Marino for three of Dolphins' six longest pass plays: 85 yards vs. Baltimore on November 20, 1983; 85 yards vs. Houston on November 2, 1986; and 80 yards vs. Indianapolis on September 23, 1984 . . . Only longer pass play in club history is 86-yard Bob Griese-Warfield connection in 1971 . . . Holds fourth (71 in 1984) and sixth (67 in 1986) single-season reception totals in team history . . . Has three of top seven seasons in terms of receiving yards: 1,313 in 1986 (second), 1,306 in 1984 (third), and 1,003 in 1983 (seventh) . . . Also has three of top five single-game receiving yardage totals, including club record of 217 yards set in 1985 vs. Jets . . .

WITH MARK CLAYTON: Duper and fellow receiver Mark Clayton form duo nationally known as the "Marks Brothers" . . . Starting with 1983, Clayton's first season in the league, the duo have combined for 13,993 yards on 834 catches . . . The pair have had 100 or more yards receiving in the same game four times (October 23, 1988 vs. New York Jets; October 19, 1986 vs. Los Angeles Raiders; September 21, 1986 at New York Jets; September 30, 1984 at St. Louis Cardinals), with the Dolphins going 1-3 in those games . . . When either Clayton or Duper go over 100 yards receiving in a game, Miami is 26-19 (regular season) . . . The Dolphins are 16-9 when Duper tops 100 yards and 10-10 when Clayton tops 100 yards . . . See Clayton's biography for additional Duper/Clayton information . . .

GAME HIGHLIGHTS: Had his best game of the season Oct. 7th vs. Jets . . . Caught five passes for 125 yards and two touchdowns . . . His first touchdown catch was a 69-yard TD reception from Dan Marino, the Dolphins' longest play from scrimmage in 1990 . . . His longest reception of the season was a 56-yard catch on October 23rd vs. the Jets, the second longest Dolphin reception of the season (surpassed only by Ferrell Edmunds' 80-yard reception on November 27th at the Jets) . . . Also had a 51-yard catch vs. San Diego on October 16th, the club's fourth longest pass reception of the season.

1987 - Started 11 non-strike games . . . Sat out second Colts game after suffering rib injury week before at Cincinnati (November 8th) . . . His 33 receptions were his lowest since his rookie season in 1982 . . . Finished third on team with 33 catches for 597 yards (18.1 average) and a team-high eight TDs . . . Was sixth in AFC in scoring (non-kickers) with 48 points . . . Ranked 20th in conference in receiving yards . . . Made career-high nine receptions (for 123 yards, two TDs) in '87 opener vs. New England (September 13th) . . . Tied career high with three touchdowns versus Washington (December 20th), making six receptions for a season-high 170 yards, including game-winning six-yard TD pass with 1:07 remaining to give Dolphins 23-21 win . . . Was named AFC Offensive Player of the Week for his efforts in that game . . . Had third 100-yard receiving game of year in 35-24 victory over Pittsburgh (November 1st), making five catches for 100 yards, including 50-yard TD pass.

1986 - Started all 16 games . . . For first time in career led team in receiving with 67 catches for 1,313 yards and 11 TDs . . . Finished ninth in AFC in receiving and third in league in receiving yardage . . . Went over 1,000 yards in receiving for third time in career . . . His 1,313 reception yards is the second highest total in club history . . . Set Dolphin single season mark with eight 100-yard performances . . . His 11 receiving TDs is tied for the fourth highest total in club history . . . Caught 20-yard TD pass from Marino in overtime win at Rams (December 14th), one of career-high three touchdowns in game . . . Had season-high seven catches against Jets (September 21st), 49ers (September 28th), and Bills (November 16th) . . . Named honorable mention All-NFL by AP . . . Also named to Pro Bowl but did not play because of arthroscopic left knee surgery on January 5, 1987 (was replaced by Clayton) . . . Tabbed by South Florida media as Miami's Outstanding Receiver.

1985 – Early-season thigh injury sidelined him for eight weeks (games 2-9) . . . In first game back, against Jets on November 10th, he set Dolphin record with 217 yards on eight receptions . . . In his first half back in that game, he caught 60-yard TD toss from Marino . . . With :49 left to play he hauled in one-handed, 50-yard TD pass to lead Dolphins to 21-17 victory over Jets . . . Including Jets game, Duper compiled 555 yards on 31 receptions over last six games as Dolphins closed regular season without a loss in that span . . . Started eight of nine contests (came off bench vs. Jets) . . . Suffered his injury against Houston in season's first game, but left lineup next week versus Indianapolis . . . Finished as team's fifth leading receiver with 35 catches for 650 yards and three touchdowns.

1984 – Started all 16 games and had 71 catches for 1,306 yards and eight touchdowns . . . Both receptions and yards would have eclipsed prior Dolphin records if not for even better figures compiled by Clayton . . . His 1,306 yards remains the third highest single season total in Dolphin history and his 71 receptions is the fourth best total in club history . . . In 1984 AFC Championship Game (Jan. 6, 1985) at Miami, caught five passes for 148 yards and two touchdowns from Dan Marino in Miami's 45-28 win over Pittsburgh . . . His 148 yards receiving is a Dolphin single game playoff record, and coupled with Tony Nathan's 114 yards in receptions, it was only the second time in Dolphin playoff history that two receivers each had over 100 yards in reception yardage . . . In Super Bowl XIX (Jan. 20, 1985 at Stanford), he had one reception for 11 yards in San Francisco's 38-16 victory over Miami . . . Was voted by peers to start for AFC in Pro Bowl and was also first team All-AFC choice by UPI . . . Along with Clayton became first teammates in league history to each go over 1,300-yard reception mark in a single season.

1983 – Became first Miami receiver ever to go over 1,000 yard mark with 1,003 yards on 51 receptions (Warfield's 996 yards in 1971 had been the club's previous high) . . . Caught 10 touchdown passes and 19.7 per-catch average was tops in AFC . . . Was second-team All-AFC selection by UPI and was member of AFC's Pro Bowl team . . . In 1983 AFC Playoff Game (Dec. 31, 1983) in Miami, caught nine passes for 117 yards, including a 32-yard TD pass from Dan Marino, in Seattle's 27-20 win . . . His nine catches remains tied for his single game career high . . . In first NFL start in 38-35 OT loss to Buffalo (October 9th), had then-second best receiving day in Dolphin history with 202 yards on seven catches and two touchdowns.

1982 – Saw action in only two games in rookie campaign and did not catch a pass . . . Was slowed by ankle and hamstringing injuries . . . Dolphins had surprised many by drafting him so high, but Duper impressed coach Don Shula at BLESTO workout in Detroit with acrobatic, over-the-shoulder catch . . . Second-round draft choice (52nd overall) of Miami in 1982.

COLLEGE: Played only two years of college football at Northwestern State in Natchitoches, La . . . As a senior, caught 24 passes for 592 yards (24.7 average) and seven touchdowns, including three TDs versus Northeast Louisiana . . . Attended college on track scholarship . . . At NW State, had 4.28 clocking in 40-yard dash . . . Ran anchor leg on Demons' star-studded NCAA championship 400-meter relay team that also included the late Joe Delaney (Kansas City) . . . Also qualified for NCAA meet in 100-meter dash . . . Broke Delaney's school record in 100 meters with time of 10.21 . . . Majored in law enforcement.

PERSONAL: Married to Cynthia . . . Lives in Coral Springs, Fla . . . Has son, Mark II, and three daughters, Alexandria Christina, Tracey and Stacey . . . Hobbies include boating, fishing, horseback riding, raising cows and playing golf . . . Enjoys listening to Stevie Wonder . . . Attended Moreauville (La.) High School, lettering in track and basketball . . . Moreauville did not field a football team . . . Full name is Mark Super Duper, born Jan. 25, 1959, in Pineville, La.

FERRELL EDMUNDS

Tight End
Born: 4/16/65
College: Maryland '88
Acquired: D3, 1988
NFL: Fourth Season
Dolphins: Fourth Season

#80

PRO: 1990 – Started all 16 regular season games and two playoff contests . . . Among the fastest tight ends in the NFL, has been timed at 4.6 in the 40-yard dash . . . Finished season with 31 catches for 446 yards and one touchdown . . . Also rushed once for a loss of seven yards . . . Earned second straight selection to AFC Pro Bowl team as backup . . . Finished fifth on the Dolphins in receptions and third in receiving yardage . . . Caught two or more passes in nine of 16 regular season games and three or more passes in five games . . . His total of 31 catches is the ninth highest single season total by a Dolphin tight end in club history . . . Edmunds has three of the top nine single season Dolphin tight end reception totals:

SINGLE SEASON MIAMI TIGHT END RECEPTION LEADERS

PLAYER	CATCHES	YEAR	PLAYER	CATCHES	YEAR
1. Bruce Hardy	54	1986	6. FERRELL EDMUNDS	33	1988
2. Larry Seiple	41	1969	Jim Mandich	33	1974
3. Bruce Hardy	39	1985	8. FERRELL EDMUNDS	32	1989
4. Dan Johnson	34	1984	9. FERRELL EDMUNDS	31	1990
Doug Moreau	34	1967	10. Bruce Hardy	30	1979

AMONG LEAGUE LEADERS: Edmunds' 31 catches and 446 receiving yards were among the best numbers put up by NFL tight ends in 1990 . . . His 31 catches ranked sixth in the AFC among tight ends and tied for 12th in the NFL . . . His 446 receiving yards ranked third in the AFC among tight ends and ninth in the NFL . . . Since Edmunds entered the league in 1988, his total of 1,403 receiving yards over the last three years ranks sixth among NFL tight ends (third in the AFC) during that span:

5. Jay Novacek, Dall.	1,451	10. Mickey Shuler, Phil.	1,317

GAME HIGHLIGHTS: Opened season with three catches for 31 yards at New England (9/9) . . . Registered 31-yard catch from Jim Jensen on a fake punt at Pittsburgh (9/30) . . . Had three receptions for 24 yards vs. New England (10/18) . . . Caught two passes for 58 yards, including season-long 35-yard catch, vs. Phoenix (11/4) . . . Recorded best game of season vs. Seattle (12/6) by leading Miami with five receptions for 76 yards and a touchdown . . . His reception and yardage figures both represented his '90 single game highs . . . In addition, his five catches tied his single-game career high (accomplished three times previously), and his 76 yards in receptions was the third highest single-game figure of his career . . . Closed regular season with three catches for 26 yards vs. Indianapolis (12/30).

PLAYOFFS: Started both of Miami's playoff contests . . . Caught five passes for 70 yards . . . Recorded two receptions for 49 yards, including a long catch of 37 yards, in playoff opener vs. Kansas City (1/5) . . . Caught three passes for 21 yards in playoff contest at Buffalo (1/12).

PRO BOWL: Selected to AFC Pro Bowl team as the backup tight end for second consecutive season . . . Out of the 102 Dolphin selections to the Pro Bowl since the merger of the two leagues in 1970, Edmunds' two selections represent the only times a Dolphin tight end ever was named to the Pro Bowl team . . . Caught one pass for 32 yards in Pro Bowl contest.

1989 - Started all 16 games in 1989 . . . Caught 32 passes for 382 yards (an average of 11.9 yards per catch) and three touchdowns . . . Finished fourth on the Dolphins in receptions and touchdown catches, and sixth in reception yardage . . . His total of 32 catches was one less than his reception total as a rookie in 1988 . . . His three TD receptions in 1989 matched his rookie year total . . . Caught at least one pass in 15 of his 16 games in 1989, and had two or more receptions in eight of those contests . . . Edmunds started 1989 strongly, catching 13 passes for 175 yards (an average of 13.5 yards per catch) and two touchdowns in his first three games . . . Matched his single game career high of five receptions twice, vs. Buffalo on September 10th, and vs. the New York Jets on Sept. 24th . . . In that Jets game, his five receptions were for 60 yards and two touchdowns . . . His 60 yards in receptions was his 1989 single game high and his two touchdown catches was his single game career best . . . His second TD reception in that game was a 19-yard TD pass from Jim Jensen on an option play . . . His other touchdown reception of the season came on Dec. 24th vs. Kansas City . . . Nov. 12th at Jets was forced from game permanently due to an elbow injury . . . On Oct. 29th at Buffalo had one catch for 30 yards, his longest reception of the season . . . On Sept. 14th at New England had three catches for 57 yards (19.0 yards per catch) . . .

PRO BOWL: Was named to the Pro Bowl as the backup tight end for the AFC team . . . It was his first Pro Bowl selection . . . Edmunds was the first Dolphin tight end ever named to the team . . . Caught a five-yard touchdown pass from Dave Krieg, becoming the first Dolphin to score a touchdown in the Pro Bowl since Paul Warfield caught a 32-yard TD pass from Bob Griese in 1975 Pro Bowl.

1988 - Had an outstanding rookie season with the Dolphins . . . Caught 33 passes for 575 yards (an average of 17.4 yards per catch) and three touchdowns . . . Finished fifth on the Dolphins in receptions and fourth in yardage, while his average yards per catch was second on the team among receivers with ten or more receptions, behind Fred Banks' 18.7 yards per catch average . . . Finished the season strongly, making 11 receptions for 271 yards and one touchdown in his last four games . . . Caught at least one pass in 15 of his 16 games, being shut out only in his debut in the season opener on September 4th at Chicago . . . Started at tight end in 14 of 16 games . . . After coming off the bench his first two games, Edmunds made his first NFL start on September 18th vs. Green Bay in place of Bruce Hardy (who tore ligaments in his ankle the previous week in Buffalo) and remained as the starter at tight end the rest of the season . . .

ROOKIE AND TE RECORDS: Edmunds' 33 receptions set a club record for most receptions by a rookie tight end (the previous record was 13 catches by Joe Rose in 1980) while his 575 yards was only two yards shy of Larry Seiple's team record for most receiving yards (577) in a season by a Dolphin tight end, set in 1969 . . . In addition, Edmunds' 575 yards was the third-highest single season total by any rookie in team history, surpassed only by Nat Moore's 605 yards in 1974 and Jack Clancy's club record of 868 yards in 1967 . . . Edmunds also tied a then-Dolphin record for most receiving touchdowns by a rookie with three, which had been set previously by Jack Harper in 1967 and Jimmy Cefalo in 1978 (that record was broken in 1989 when Andre Brown caught five TD passes as a rookie) . . .

RECORD SETTING PERFORMANCE VS. JETS: On November 27, 1988 vs. the Jets in New York, in the third quarter Edmunds broke an 80-yard touchdown pass from Dan Marino, the longest scoring play in Miami's history involving a tight end . . . It was the Dolphins' longest pass completion of 1988 and was tied for the fourth longest pass completion in Dolphin history . . . It also was the longest pass play in the NFL involving a tight end since September 16, 1984, when M.L. Harris of Cincinnati caught an 80-yarder from Ken Anderson, also at the Jets . . . Edmunds' 117 yards receiving against the Jets in that game (on two receptions) set a new single game Dolphin record for a tight end (breaking Larry Seiple's record of 106 yards set on November 16, 1969, at Buffalo) and also was the third-highest single game receiving total by any rookie in Miami's history, behind the 121 yards by Mel Baker (December 15, 1974 vs. New England) and 126 yards by Jack Clancy (December 3, 1967 at Houston) . . . It remains his only career game of 100 or more yards . . .

GAME HIGHLIGHTS: Had a personal best of five catches (for 98 yards) on December 4th vs. Indianapolis . . . Made his first NFL catch on September 11th at Buffalo . . . Had four catches for 34 yards and one touchdown in his first NFL start on Sept. 18th vs. Green Bay . . . Also had 80-yard touchdown reception at the Jets on November 27th and a TD catch on November 6th at New England . . . Made an initial impression in preseason game vs. Washington on August 13th, taking a short pass over the middle from Ron Jaworski in the second quarter and outrunning Redskin defenders for a 71-yard scoring play . . . His one rushing attempt of the year came on October 16th vs. San Diego when he lost four yards on his only carry . . . Third-round draft choice (73rd overall) of Miami in 1988.

COLLEGE: Four-year starter at Maryland (1984-87) . . . Rated as one of nation's top tight ends coming out of college . . . First-team All-Atlantic Coast Conference pick in 1987 by AP and ACC Sportswriters Association . . . Also was third-team All-America selection of AP as senior . . . Played in East-West Shrine Game and Senior Bowl . . . Finished career second on Maryland's all-time receiving chart with 101 catches and third on school's all-time receiving yards list with 1,641 . . . Played in '84 Sun Bowl and '85 Cherry Bowl . . . Averaged 17.2 yards per catch in '87 . . . Made career-high 35 catches for 603 yards and two TDs as senior . . . Accounted for 97 yards on four receptions versus North Carolina, setting record with longest non-scoring pass and run play in school history as he grabbed a 10-yard pass and ran 63 yards for 73-yard play . . . Honorable mention on All-America squad of UPI in '86 . . . Ranked second on team in receptions with 28 for 490 yards and three scores . . . Caught six passes for 100 yards versus Penn State . . . Finished third on team in receptions with 21 and was honorable mention All-America pick during sophomore year of 1985 . . . Took over starting job in fourth game of '84 . . . Caught three passes as Terps made greatest comeback in college football history, rallying from 31-0 deficit to defeat Miami (Fla.) 42-40 . . . Honorable mention All-America selection of Football News . . . Caught at least one pass in last nine games of freshman year, including three in Sun Bowl against Tennessee . . . Majored in general studies.

PERSONAL: Single, resides in Danville, Va. . . . Was fourth tight end taken in 1988 draft . . . Aspires to play like former TE Kellen Winslow of San Diego . . . Has six sisters and two brothers . . . HARRY GALBREATH

Guard

#62

Born: 1/1/65

College: Tennessee '88

Acquired: D8a, 1988

NFL: Fourth Season

Dolphins: Fourth Season

PRO: Young guard continues to improve as starter . . . Started all 16 regular season games and two playoff contests in 1990 . . . Integral part of offensive line which allowed an NFL-low 16 sacks . . . Miami has allowed only 24 sacks in his 42 career regular season starts at right guard (Galbreath also has started one game at left guard) . . . In fact, Dolphins did not allow a sack in his first 19 career starts (last 12 games of 1988 and first seven contests in 1989) at right guard . . . Streak began with his initial start at right guard on 10/2/88 vs. Minnesota . . . Miami's 19 game streak set NFL record for consecutive games without allowing a sack (previous record was five, accomplished many times) . . . Started 14 games for Miami in 1989 at right guard . . . Missed games at Dallas (11/19) and vs. Pittsburgh (11/26) due to ankle sprain . . . Integral part of offensive line that allowed NFL-low 10 sacks in '89 . . . Enjoyed sensational rookie season for Miami in 1988. . . Saw action in all 16 games (with 13 starts) in '88 . . . Started last 12 games of season at right guard, and one previous game at left guard . . . Dolphin quarterbacks were sacked only once in his 13 starts . . . The lone sack came in his first start . . . Miami did not allow a sack in his 12 starts as rookie right guard . . . Made first NFL appearance in season opener at Chicago (9/4) . . . Saw relief action in first two games of '88 season . . . Made first NFL start against Green Bay (9/18) at LG in place of injured Roy Foster . . . Returned to bench for next contest at Indianapolis as Miami allowed season-high four sacks . . . Replaced injured starter Tom Toth in starting line-up following week against Minnesota (10/2) . . . Remained as starter for final 12 games of season . . . Eighth-round draft choice (212th overall) of Miami in 1988.

COLLEGE: Three-year starter and four-year letterman for Tennessee at left guard (1984-87) . . . Redshirted in 1983 . . . Two-time All-Southeastern Conference selection (first team in '87, second team in '86) . . . 1987 All-America pick (first team by Sporting News, second team by UPI, Football News and NEA) . . . Played in every UT game during his four years . . . Was main reason Vols' running game averaged 221.0 yards per game in '87 . . . Considered by SEC coaches as one of finest offensive linemen ever produced by conference . . . Called "the best run-blocker" he had ever coached by Vols coach Johnny Majors . . . Also extremely adept at protecting the passer and helped limit opposition to only 10 QB sacks . . . Was UT's most powerful athlete with bench press of 420 pounds and squat of 615 pounds . . . Led fierce blocking effort by offensive line as UT gained 474 yards in total offense in '88 Peach Bowl win over Indiana . . . Was second-team All-SEC pick and honorable mention AP All-America choice in 1986 . . . Football News named him to second-team of its All-America squad . . . Became starter in '85, taking over top spot after fine spring performance . . . Held All-American Jerome Brown to five tackles in Tennessee's 35-7 romp over Miami (Fla.) in '86 Sugar Bowl . . . Played in every game in '84, mostly as backup . . . Majored in human services.

PERSONAL: Single, resides in Clarksville, Tenn . . . Subject of poster, "Movin' the Markers," produced by sports information office at Tennessee in 1987 to promote him for post-season honors . . . PRO: 1990 – Perhaps the most versatile player in the NFL, has played every skill position on offense, plus special teams, during career . . . Served as back-up at wide receiver, quarterback, running back, fullback, tight end, holder and punt center . . . Valuable as "12th man" on offense, he also served on all of the special teams units . . . Picked up nickname of "Crash" for his style of play on special teams . . . Played in 15 regular season games (including two starts) and saw action in both playoff contests . . . Finished season with 44 catches for 365 yards and one touchdown . . . Added four rushes for six yards . . . Ranked second on Dolphins in receptions and was fifth in reception yardage . . . Also tied for second on team (with Liffort Hobley) with ten special teams tackles . . . Recorded just nine receptions for 64 yards in first five games of season but rebounded to catch 35 passes for 301 yards in last ten contests . . . Completed only pass attempt of season with 31-yarder to Ferrell Edmunds on a fourth-down fake punt at Pittsburgh (9/30) . . .

RECEPTIONS: His 44 receptions was his third highest single season career total (behind 61 catches in 1989 and 58 in 1988) . . . It was the second highest total on the Dolphins, behind only Mark Duper's 52 catches . . . Jensen finished 29th in the AFC and had the highest reception total of any non-starter in the NFL . . . Had a reception in 14 of his 15 games (with at least two receptions in 12 of those contests) and now has had at least one catch in 43 of his last 47 games over the last three years . . . Had one game of seven receptions (Nov. 19 vs. Raiders) and one game with six catches (Dec. 23 at Pittsburgh) . . . Seven catches against Raiders tied with three other games for second on his single game high reception games for his career . . .

YARDAGE: His 365 receiving yards was his third best single season career total and was the fifth highest total on the Dolphins . . . Had three games of 40 or more yards in receptions, including a season high 79 receiving yards on Nov. 19 vs. the L.A. Raiders . . .

PASSING: Completed his only pass attempt of the season with a 31-yard hook-up on a fake punt to Ferrell Edmunds at Pittsburgh (9/30) . . . Completion led to seven-yard touchdown run by Sammie Smith to give Dolphins a 14-0 lead in game . . .

VERSATILITY: Showed amazing versatility in Miami's 28-6 win at Pittsburgh (9/30) . . . In contest, Jensen registered two catches for 22 yards, one rush for one yard, threw a 31-yard completion to Ferrell Edmunds on a fourth-down fake punt and added a team-leading two special teams tackles . . . It was his first pass (and completion) in a game since he threw a 19-yard touchdown pass to Edmunds on Sept. 24, 1989 vs. the Jets . . . Jensen became the first Dolphin to complete a pass, run the ball from scrimmage, and catch a pass all in the same game since Troy Stradford accomplished the feat on Nov. 15, 1987 vs. Indianapolis . . .

FIRST DOWNS: In 1990, of his 44 receptions, 23 went for first downs (52%) . . . Over the course of his career, Jensen has caught 208 passes, 121 going for first downs, and has 26 rushing attempts, with 15 going for first downs:

GAME HIGHLIGHTS: Missed entire preseason and first regular season game as an unsigned veteran . . . Signed two-year contract on Sept. 12 and was granted two-week roster exemption by NFL . . . Activated by Dolphins on Sept. 15 . . . Made 1990 season debut vs. Buffalo (9/16) and recorded two catches for nine yards and added one carry for two yards . . . Had four catches for 20 yards and a touchdown at Indianapolis (10/28) . . . Recorded four catches for 25 yards vs. Phoenix (11/4) . . . Led team in both receptions and reception yardage with seven catches for 79 yards vs. L.A. Raiders (11/19) . . . His catches and yardage in that contest were his season highs . . . Finished tied for team lead in receptions with four catches for 37 yards at Cleveland (11/25) . . . Had four catches for 45 yards (his second highest reception yardage total of the season) vs. Philadelphia (12/9) . . . Registered six catches for 42 yards at Buffalo (12/23) . . .

PLAYOFFS: Played in both Dolphin playoff contests . . . Caught five passes for 49 yards in post-season . . . Had one catch for 11 yards in playoff opener vs. Kansas City (1/5) . . . After playing in 11 previous playoff contests, it was his first career post-season catch . . . Tied for team lead with four receptions for 38 yards at Buffalo (1/12).

1989 – Played in all 16 games (including one start) in '89 . . . Finished season with 61 receptions and for 557 yards (9.1 yards per catch) and six touchdowns . . . Reception and touchdown totals were career highs . . . Added eight carries for 50 yards and threw a 19-yard touchdown pass in his only pass attempt of season . . . Led Dolphins with 18 special teams tackles and had one blocked punt . . . Finished second on Dolphins in receptions (behind only Mark Clayton's 64 catches) and third in receiving yards . . . Ranked 12th in the AFC and 26th in the NFL in receptions and had highest reception total for any non-starter in the league . . . Finished second on team in TD receptions, behind Mark Clayton's nine TD catches . . . Had at least one reception in 14 of his 16 games (with two or more catches in each of those 14 contests) . . . Led the team in receiving twice and was tied for the team lead in three other contests . . .

SCORING VERSATILITY: Was part of touchdowns three different ways in 1989 as he caught six touchdown receptions, threw one touchdown pass and blocking a punt that was recovered by teammate Marc Logan in endzone for TD . . . Opened season against Buffalo (9/10) by blocking the Bills' John Kidd's punt with Logan recovering in end zone to give Dolphins a score for a 17-10 lead in contest . . . It was Miami's first return of a blocked punt for a TD since November 11, 1973, when Miami scored on a pair of blocked punt returns by safety Tim Foley . . . Threw his only touchdown pass of season with a 19-yard scoring pass to Ferrell Edmunds, the second TD pass of his career, vs. N.Y. Jets (9/24) . . .

GAME HIGHLIGHTS: Caught three passes for 34 yards and a pair of scores (including Dan Marino's 200th career TD pass) at New England (9/17) . . . Recorded seven catches for season-high 66 yards and threw a 19-yard touchdown pass to Ferrell Edmunds, the second TD pass of his career, vs. N.Y. Jets (9/24) . . . Led Dolphins in receiving at Houston (10/1) with four receptions for 40 yards and also added one rush for 11 yards . . . Had four catches, including a TD reception, for 30 yards vs. Green Bay (10/22) . . . Rushed three times for 13 yards, including a five-yard gain from his own 12-yard line on third-and-five with 1:25 left in the game to give Miami a critical first down and the ability to run out the clock to protect a 19-13 lead, vs. Indianapolis (11/5) . . . Recorded 20 catches in final three games of season . . . Tied for team lead with six receptions for 45 yards and added one rush for three yards vs. New England (12/10) . . . Recorded back-to-back games with seven catches in final two games of season, at Indianapolis (seven for 62 yards) and vs. Kansas City (seven for 65 yards and a score).

1988 – Finished the season with 58 receptions for 652 yards (11.2 yards per catch) with five touchdowns, and gained 68 yards on ten carries (6.8 yards per carry) . . . Was second on the Dolphins in receiving (behind Mark Clayton's 86 catches) . . . His 58 catches was tied for tenth in the AFC and was tied for 26th overall in the NFL . . . That total was more than double his 1987 figure of 26 catches and was 13 more than his career total of 45 catches entering the 1988 campaign . . . His five touchdown catches ranked second on the Dolphins (behind Clayton's 14 TD catches) and equalled his career total coming into the 1988 season . . . Had at least one reception in 15 of his 16 games, going without a catch only in November 27th game at the Jets . . . Tied Bob Brudzinski, Brian Kinchen, and Reyna Thompson for team lead in special team tackles with nine . . . Forced one fumble . . . Played in all 16 games with four starts – two at fullback (October 16th vs. San Diego and November 14th vs. Buffalo) and two at tight end (November 6th at New England and November 20th vs. New England) . . . Played in his 100th game on September 11th at Buffalo . . .

NEW DOLPHIN RECORD: Set a single-game Dolphin record for receptions with 12 (for a career-high 110 yards, his only career 100-yard game) at New England on November 6th, breaking the team record of ten catches, formerly held by Tony Nathan (five times), Duriel Harris, Ron Davenport, and Mark Clayton . . . His 12 receptions that game also tied the Jets' Mickey Shuler (October 2nd vs. Kansas City) for the third highest single game reception total in the NFL in 1988, behind the Jets' Al Toon's 14 receptions vs. the Dolphins on November 27th and Toon's 13 catches November 6th at Indianapolis . . .

GAME HIGHLIGHTS: On October 23rd vs. the Jets he had six receptions for 96 yards and one touchdown, and his 31-yard reception in that game is the longest reception of his career . . . Also had six catches for 76 yards and one touchdown December 12th vs. Cleveland . . . Caught his 100th career pass at Pittsburgh on December 18th . . . Went over the 1,000 yard mark in career reception yardage on December 12th vs. Cleveland . . . His 23-yard run in his only carry in season opener at Chicago on September 4th was more than his career rushing total (18 yards) up to that point . . . His 23 yards vs. Bears also was his single game career rushing best.

1987 – Took on a new role as team's third down running back, in addition to duties as backup wide receiver and quarterback . . . Played in all 12 non-strike games with no starts . . . Made 26 receptions, seven more than he had in career entering year (13 in '84, 1 in '85, 5 in '86) . . . His 26 receptions (221 yards, 1 TD) was seventh on team . . . Had at least one reception in every non-strike game except second meetings with Colts and Jets . . . Set then-career high six catches (for 34 yards) at Buffalo on November 29th . . . Had four receptions in season opener at New England . . . Caught three passes in first meeting vs. Colts and Bills . . . Only receiving TD came at Indianapolis on September 20th . . . Had first four NFL carries of career, with three going for first downs . . . First carry was against Pittsburgh on November 1st.

1986 – Saw action in all 16 regular season games . . . Caught five passes for 50 yards and one TD as backup receiver . . . Saw additional time vs. Atlanta on November 30th when Mark Clayton was out with an injury and responded with best game of year, two catches for 32 yards and 20-yard TD . . . Beat out 10th round draft pick Jeff Wickersham for No. 3 QB spot.

1985 – Had only one reception, a four-yard TD grab against Tampa Bay on October 20th.

1984 – Achieved national publicity by playing quarterback, wide receiver, tight end, punt snapper and on special teams at various times . . . During early part of season was subject of feature stories in Sports Illustrated, Sporting News, and graced cover of PRO! . . . Despite being listed officially as wide receiver, beat out fifth-round draft pick Dean May for third-string QB job . . . As a receiver, finished eighth on team with 13 receptions for 139 yards and two touchdowns . . . Best overall game came in Miami's 35-17 season-opening win at Washington . . . Started that game (first NFL start) and caught five passes for 40 yards and a pair of touchdowns . . . Those TDs were first of NFL career . . . Was moved from quarterback to wide receiver early in the season due to good hands plus QB trio of Dan Marino, David Woodley, and Don Strock that promised to limit playing time . . . Threw 35-yard touchdown pass to Mark Duper vs. New England on September 9th.

1983 – Made first appearance as receiver versus Jets on October 16th.

1982 – Threw one pass, an incomplete attempt, against the Colts in Baltimore on January 2 (1983).

1981 – Notched 14 special team tackles in rookie campaign . . . Beat out Brad Wright, team's fourth-round draft choice in 1981, for third QB spot on roster . . . Eleventh-round draft choice (293rd overall) of Miami in '81.

COLLEGE: Had outstanding career at Boston University . . . Helped lead Terriers to two-year mark of 17-3-1 (1979-80), which was best in school's history . . . Career totals show 217 completions on 433 attempts (50.1%) for 2,740 yards and 17 touchdowns . . . Also rushed for 569 yards on 258 carries with 13 TDs . . . As senior, broke 30-year-old school record with 119 completions on 215 passes (55.3%) for 1,544 yards and 11 TDs, plus 254 yards rushing (five TDs) for total offense figure of 1,798 yards . . . Led BU to Yankee Conference title that season and was named conference's Offensive Player of the Year . . . An All-New England choice, was selected to play in Senior Bowl . . . Also played volleyball for Terriers . . . Holds B.S. in special education.

DAN MARINO

Quarterback

#13

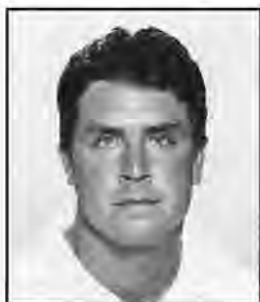

Born: 9/15/61

College: Pittsburgh '83

Acquired: D1, 1983

NFL: Ninth Season

Dolphins: Ninth Season

PRO: 1990 - Entering his ninth season, Marino already ranks among the NFL's all-time top ranked passers . . . In 1990 was 306-531 (57.6%) for 3,563 yards, 21 touchdowns, 11 interceptions, 15 sacks and a final rating of 82.6 . . . His 21 touchdown passes is the second fewest of his career (behind only his 20 TD passes as a rookie in 1983), but his 11 interceptions also is the second fewest of his career (behind his six INTs as a rookie in 1983) . . . His 6.71 average yards per gain is the second lowest among the top 20 quarterbacks in the NFL (by rating) and had only five completions of 40 or more yards this season . . . In his final ten games, Marino was 195-340 (57.4%) for 2,334 yards, 15 touchdowns, and four interceptions, a rating of 88.3 . . . In his eight year career, he has played 119 games (117 starts) and is 2480-4181 for 31,416 yards, 241 touchdowns, and 136 interceptions for a passing efficiency rating of 88.5, which ranks second among the all-time passing leaders, behind Joe Montana's rating . . . Reached NFL minimum (1,500 career attempts) mark to qualify for ratings during the 1986 campaign . . . Holds 27 Dolphin team records (tied for three others) and 18 NFL records (tied for six others) . . . This was only fourth off-season that was surgery-free; others were after the 1989, 1988 and 1986 seasons . . . Underwent left knee surgery after each of his four other NFL seasons: 1/6/84 after 1983, 4/3/85 after 1984, 2/7/86 after 1985, and 3/8/88 after 1987 season ('88 operation performed by Olympic ski team physician Dr. Richard Steadman in Lake Tahoe) . . .

In his career, with 4,181 attempts, Marino ranks 13th among the NFL's all-time leaders in pass attempts (Sonny Jurgensen is 12th with 4,262 passes attempted) . . . With 2,480 pass completions, Marino is in seventh place, trailing Jim Hart, who is in sixth place with 2,593 completions . . . With 31,416 yards passing, Marino is in 10th place in the league's all-time list of total yards passing (John Brodie is in ninth place with 31,548 yards passing) . . . With 241 career touchdown passes, Marino ranks seventh on the all-time NFL list in that category (Joe Montana is sixth with 242 TD passes) . . .

COMPLETIONS: Has suffered just 14 sub-50 percent completion percentage games in his 119 regular season games (113 starts), including one game (Sept. 23rd at N.Y. Giants) in 1990 . . . In the playoffs, Marino had a string of 11 straight pass completions over a two-game stretch . . . Completed his last ten pass attempts against Kansas City Chiefs on Jan. 5th, going 10-10 for 130 yards and two touchdowns (including 8-8 for 101 yards and two TDs in final quarter), and in next game, on Jan. 12th at Buffalo, hit on his first pass attempt before throwing an incompleteness . . . Marino's 11 consecutive pass completions is the third-longest streak in team history:

YARDAGE: Marino's 13-yard completion to Jim Jensen in the second quarter on Nov. 25, 1990, at Cleveland gave Marino over 30,000 career yards passing, becoming the 11th quarterback in NFL history to throw for 30,000 yards . . . Marino reached the 30,000 yard mark in 114 career regular season games, reaching that milestone faster than any QB in league history . . . The previous record for fastest to reach 30,000 yards was 131 games by former San Diego Charger QB Dan Fouts . . . Marino joined San Francisco's Joe Montana as the only active quarterbacks with 30,000-plus passing yards . . . Listed below are the NFL's 30,000 yard passers and the amount of games it took to accomplish the feat . . . Also below is a list of the receivers who have caught Marino's passes and their reception yards:

Marino is the only quarterback in NFL history to have four 4,000-yard seasons, coming in 1984 (5,084 yards), 1985 (4,137), 1986 (4,746), and 1988 (4,434) . . . Dan Fouts (three, 1979-81) is the only other QB to have multiple 4,000-yard seasons . . . Along with Fouts, he is the only other QB to pass for 4,000 yards in three straight seasons (1984-86) . . . His 4,000-yard seasons account for four of the 12 leading single season passing yardage totals in NFL history:

Marino passed for 3,563 yards in 1990 and now has passed for 3,000 or more yards on seven occasions (1984-90) in his eight-year career . . . It tied him with Joe Montana (1981, 1983-85, 1987, 1989-90) for the NFL record of seven 3,000-yard seasons, but Marino is the only quarterback to throw for 3,000 or more yards in seven consecutive seasons:

John Elway, Den.	6	1985-90	8	24,721

Marino did not throw for 400 or more yards in 1990 . . . He has ten career 400-yard games, one of his many NFL records, and the Dolphins are 6-4 in those ten games . . . Marino threw for 300 or more yards twice in 1990: on Dec. 9th vs. Philadelphia (365 yards), and in the AFC Divisional Playoff Game on Jan. 12th at Buffalo (323 yards) . . . Marino now has 38 career regular season 300-yard games (41, including playoffs), trailing only Dan Fouts' career total of 51 300-yard games, and the Dolphins are 25-13 in those 38 career 300-yard games (26-15 overall, including playoffs) . . . Owns nine of top ten and 35 of top 40 passing yardage games in Dolphin history . . .

TOUCHDOWN PASSES: Marino cracked the NFL's all-time Top Twenty for career TD passes in 1988 and with 241 touchdowns passes is in seventh place on the all-time TD list . . . He needs one more TD pass to tie Joe Montana (242) for sixth place on the all-time list and three more TD passes to tie John Hadl for fifth place:

Through his first eight seasons, Marino has averaged 30.13 touchdown passes per season and 2.03 TD passes per game . . . If he should reach his season average in 1991, Marino would move into third place among the all-time career touchdown passing leaders . . . At his current pace, Marino would become the NFL's all-time TD pass leader with 343 TD passes in the sixth game of the 1994 season, just ahead of all-time leader Fran Tarkenton (342) . . . Of all the QBs in the Top 20, Marino has played the fewest number of years . . . Over the course of Marino's career, he has combined with Mark Clayton for 65 touchdown passes, the highest scoring combination in NFL history, surpassing other famous quarterback-to-receiver combinations in NFL history such as Baltimore's Johnny Unitas to Raymond Berry (63 touchdowns), San Francisco's Joe Montana to Jerry Rice (55 touchdowns), Seattle's Jim Zorn to Steve Largent (43 touchdowns), and Buffalo's Jim Kelly to Andre Reed (34 touchdowns) . . .

NOTE: Dan Marino has thrown at least one regular season touchdown pass in every current NFL stadium which he has visited...Marino has not played a regular-season game at Fulton County Stadium, the Metrodome, Sun Devil Stadium, or the Kingdome . . . In addition, in post-season play, he has 12 TD passes in the Orange Bowl, three at Rich Stadium, two at Joe Robbie Stadium, and one TD pass at Stanford Stadium.

Marino threw at least one touchdown pass in 14 of his 16 regular season games (16 of 18, including playoffs) in 1990 and now has thrown at least one TD in 105 of his 119 regular-season games (113 of 127 overall) and 73 of his last 83 regular season games as well as in each of his eight playoff games:

The Dolphins won only three of the 14 regular season games in which Marino failed to throw a touchdown pass, with one victory coming in 1990 (Oct. 18th vs. Patriots) and the other two coming in 1989 (Oct. 15th at Cincinnati and December 10th vs. Patriots) . . . Marino did not pass for four touchdowns in any game in 1990, but his 16 career four-TD games is only one shy of Johnny Unitas' NFL record of 17 four-touchdown pass games, and Miami is 12-4 in those 16 contests . . . He holds the NFL record for most consecutive games with four or more touchdown passes (four in 1984) . . . Marino did not throw for three or more touchdowns in any regular season game in 1990, but did throw three TD passes in AFC Divisional Playoff Game on Jan. 12th in Buffalo . . . In his career Marino has thrown three or more touchdown passes in 42 regular season games (45, including playoffs) and he is 28-14 in those contests (30-15 including post-season games) . . . With 21 touchdown passes in 1990, he now has thrown 20 or more touchdowns in each of his eight professional seasons . . . He is the only player in NFL history to throw 20 or more touchdown passes in his first eight NFL seasons . . . He also joins Johnny Unitas as the only NFL quarterbacks ever to throw 20 or more touchdowns in eight different seasons; Marino accomplished his record-tying feat in his first eight seasons in the league, while Unitas played 18 seasons in the NFL . . . Trailing Marino and Unitas in that category are Fran Tarkenton (18 seasons), Sonny Jurgensen (17 seasons) and John Hadl (16 seasons), all with seven seasons of 20 or more TD passes apiece:

Sonny Jurgensen	7	1961-62, 64, 66-67, 69-70	17	255

Marino is the only quarterback to pass for 30-plus touchdowns in three different seasons, and he did it in three straight years (1984-86) . . . He is the only QB to throw 40 or more TDs in two different seasons (1984, 1986) . . .

INTERCEPTIONS: Threw only 11 interceptions in 1990, the second lowest single season figure of his career . . . Had a span of 99 straight pass attempts without throwing an interception, from the first quarter on Oct. 18th vs. New England to the second quarter on Nov. 11th at the N.Y. Jets . . . After throwing an interception in that Jets contest, then went another 91 pass attempts until his next interception, in the first quarter on Dec. 2nd at Washington . . . Overall during that entire span, starting on Oct. 18th and ending on Dec. 2nd (covering five full games and parts of two others), he had 190 pass attempts and threw just one interception . . . Had eight games in 1990 without throwing an interception, and the Dolphins went 7-1 in those contests . . . For his career, he has not thrown an interception in 40 games, and the Dolphins are 31-9 in those 40 games in which he was not intercepted . . .

SACKS: Marino was sacked an NFL-low 15 times in 1990 for 90 yards in losses (by Shane Conlan, Mike Lodish, and Jeff Wright of Buffalo on Dec. 23rd, Cortez Kennedy of the Seahawks on Dec. 16th, Reggie White and Clyde Simmons of the Eagles on Dec. 9th, Fred Stokes of the Redskins on Dec. 2nd, Scott Davis and Greg Townsend of the Raiders on Nov. 19th, Duane Bickett and Jon Hand of the Colts on Oct. 28th, Tim Goad and Garin Veris of the Patriots on Oct. 18th, Keith Willis of the Steelers on Sept. 30th and a half-sack each by Lawrence Taylor and Leonard Marshall of the Giants on Sept. 23rd) . . . He was sacked three times by Buffalo on Dec. 23, 1990, the most since he was sacked four times on Sept. 25, 1988 at Indianapolis . . . Overall Dolphin quarterbacks were sacked 16 times in 1990, the ninth year in a row that the Dolphins allowed the fewest sacks in the league, including all of Marino's eight years with the club . . .

DURABILITY: Beginning with the start of the 1984 season (he missed the last two games of the 1983 campaign, his rookie year), Marino has started 108 of the Dolphins' last 111 regular season games (only three games he missed were the replacement games of 1987) . . . If those replacement games are not counted, he has started each of the last 108 Dolphin contests and is one of only six NFL quarterbacks who have started 100 or more straight games since the 1970 merger:

CONSECUTIVE GAMES STARTED, NFL QUARTERBACKS

			Steve Bartkowski	Atl.	100	1977-84

* Does not count replacement games of 1987

The last time Marino left a game because of an injury was on November 26, 1989 vs. Pittsburgh, when he suffered a contusion of his right AC joint (located in the shoulder), forcing him to leave the game for good with seven minutes left in the fourth quarter . . . It was the first time he had to leave a game due to an injury since he suffered a left knee sprain in the fourth quarter at Houston on December 4, 1983 . . .

RUSHING: Marino had one carry for 14 yards to lead the Dolphins in rushing on Nov. 19th vs. the L.A. Raiders . . . It was the first time in his career that he has led the Dolphins in rushing in a single game . . . It was the second of three games in 1990 that a Dolphin QB led the team in rushing, with Scott Secules having led the team in rushing on Dec. 2nd at Washington with 17 yards and on Sept. 23rd at the N.Y. Giants with 12 yards rushing . . . The Dolphins lost all three of those contests . . . Marino scored one touchdown rushing, coming on a two-yard run in the Divisional Playoff game at Buffalo on January 12th . . . In the regular season, Marino has rushed for a touchdown five times in his career (the last coming on Dec. 10, 1989 vs. New England), and the Dolphins are 5-0 in those games . . .

NFL RECORDS: In addition to above records for yardage and touchdowns, Marino holds NFL single season records for attempts (623 in 1986), completions (378 in 1986), yards (5,084 in 1984), and touchdowns (48 in 1984) . . . Having led the NFL in attempts in 1984, 1986, and 1988, should he lead the league in attempts in 1991, he would join only three others (Sammy Baugh, Johnny Unitas, George Blanda) who have led the NFL in that category four times . . . Having led the NFL in completions from 1984-86 and 1988, if he did so again he would join Sammy Baugh as the only players to have led the NFL in that category in five seasons . . . Marino and Blanda (1963-65) are the only QBs to lead the NFL in completions three consecutive years . . . Having led the NFL in passing yards from 1984-86 and 1988, should he lead the league in that category, he would join Sonny Jurgensen as the only players to have led the NFL in passing yards in five seasons, and only Dan Fouts (1979-82) has led the league longer consecutively in yardage (four seasons) . . . Having led the NFL in touchdown passes from 1984-86, if he does so again, he would join only two others (Johnny Unitas, Len Dawson) who have led the league in that category in four seasons, and only Unitas (1957-60) has led the NFL in TDs longer consecutively (four seasons) . . .

DOLPHIN RECORDS: Marino broke all of Bob Griese's team records in passing yardage, attempts, completions and TD passes, yet remains 36 interceptions shy of Griese's team record in that category:

MARINO'S MIAMI DOLPHINS CAREER RECORDS

TD PASSES	YARDS	ATTEMPTS	COMPLETIONS	INTERCEPTIONS
241 Marino	31,416 Marino	4,181 Marino	2,480 Marino	172 Griese
192 Griese	25,092 Griese	3,429 Griese	1,926 Griese	136 Marino

Griese played 14 NFL seasons (1967-80), while Marino completed his eighth year in the league (1983-90) . . . Marino also holds team career records for highest passer rating, highest completion percentage, and most 300-yard and 400-yard games . . .

COMEBACKS: In the 1990 regular season, Marino led the Dolphins back in the final period at New England (from 20-24 to 27-24), vs. the N.Y. Jets (from 13-16 to 20-16) and vs. the Philadelphia Eagles (10-20 to 23-20 in overtime) . . . In Miami's 17-16 playoff win over the Kansas City Chiefs on January 15, 1991, Marino led the Dolphins back from a 16-3 fourth quarter deficit by completing all eight of his pass attempts for 101 yards and a pair of scores . . . Marino's rally from the 13-point deficit against the Chiefs was the largest fourth-quarter comeback of his career; prior to the Chiefs game, Marino's largest comeback was 11 points (17-28 to 31-38) against the San Diego Chargers on October 16, 1988 . . . In that contest, Marino led Miami to a pair of fourth quarter scoring runs by Lorenzo Hampton (one yard) and Troy Stradford (three yards) . . . Over the course of Marino's eight-year career with the Miami Dolphins, he has brought the team back from a fourth quarter deficit a total of 16 times, with ten fourth quarter triumphs at home and six on the road . . . Included in that total are two playoff games in which Marino has led Miami back in the fourth quarter . . . In Marino's 16 career fourth quarter comebacks, he has completed 102 of 160 passes for 1,418 yards (65.0%) with 14 touchdowns and four INTs . . . Below is a chart of Miami's fourth quarter turnarounds with Marino at quarterback:

HONORS: Marino was named AFC Offensive Player of the Week for December 9-10 after going 27-54 for 365 yards, two touchdowns, and no interceptions in 23-20 overtime win over the Eagles . . . Also was named NFL Player of the Week for the first round playoff games (January 5-6) after going 19-30 for 221 yards, two touchdowns, and no interceptions in Miami's 17-16 win over the Chiefs . . . It was the ninth and tenth times he earned that honor since it was instituted in 1985 . . . Marino won the Dolphins' Most Valuable Player Award in 1990 in balloting of South Florida media for the eighth straight year . . . Marino passed Bob Griese, who won that award six times (1967-68, 1970-71, 1974, 1977), and no Dolphin besides Marino has ever won more than two consecutive MVP awards . . . Marino also was voted the Dolphins' Outstanding Offensive Back by the media for the eighth consecutive year, surpassing the team high set by Larry Csonka (1970-74, 1979), who had won that award six times . . . Did not make the Pro Bowl for the third straight year after having been named to the Pro Bowl in each of his first five seasons in the league (four as a starter), but playing in only one (after 1984 season) . . . Remains tied with five others (Csonka, Warfield, Scott, Baumhower, Offerdahl) for second-most Pro Bowl years (five) by a Dolphin; record is six by Griese, Langer, Kuechenberg, and Stephenson . . . Also remains tied with Stephenson and Offerdahl for second-most Pro Bowl starts (four) by a Dolphin; Langer is first with five . . .

PLAYOFFS: In his two playoff games in 1990, Marino was 42-79 (53.2%) for 544 yards, five touchdowns and two interceptions, a rating of 85.6 . . . He extended his Dolphin career playoff records for most attempts, completions, yards passing, and touchdown passes, yet remains tied with Bob Griese for most interceptions . . . Marino played in eight playoff games while Griese, runner-up in all four categories, played in 12 post-season contests . . .

Marino has thrown one or more touchdown passes in each of his eight career playoff games . . . His streak of eight consecutive playoff games with at least one TD pass is tied for the third longest string in NFL history with Pittsburgh's Terry Bradshaw (1977-82) and San Francisco's Joe Montana (1981-84 and 1988-91) . . . Marino and Montana share the league's longest active streak, and Marino trails only Oakland's Ken Stabler (10 games) and Denver's John Elway (nine):

GAME HIGHLIGHTS – AT BUFFALO (JAN. 12): In AFC Divisional Playoff game at Buffalo on Jan, 12th, Marino was 23-49 (46.9%) for 323 yards, three touchdowns, and two interceptions . . . Also scored a touchdown on a two-yard run, his only rushing TD of the season . . . His 23 completions is the fourth highest total in Dolphin playoff history, his 49 attempts is the second highest total, his 323 yards passing is the third highest total in Dolphin playoff history (and the second best in Marino's postseason career, surpassed only by his playoff team-record 421 yards passing on Jan. 6, 1985 vs. Pittsburgh), and his three touchdown passes is tied for the third best mark in Dolphin postseason history . . . One of those three touchdown passes was a 64-yard completion to Mark Duper, the longest completion in Marino's postseason career . . . Completed his first pass in that contest before throwing an incomplection, and coupled with his streak of ten straight completions to conclude in his previous game, a playoff contest on Jan. 5th vs. Kansas City, his 11 straight completions was the third best total in Dolphin history . . .

VS. CHIEFS (JAN. 5): In AFC first round playoff game, on Jan. 5th vs. Kansas City, was 19-30 for 221 yards, two touchdowns, two sacks, no interceptions, and one fumble lost . . . Brought the Dolphins back from 16-3 deficit with two touchdown passes in fourth quarter, including a 12-yard TD pass to Mark Clayton with 3:28 left in game to give Dolphins winning (and final) points in 17-16 victory . . . He closed the game by completing the last 10 of his passes (for 130 yards and two touchdowns), including going 8-8 for 101 yards and two touchdowns in the fourth quarter alone . . . It was the second time in Marino's career that he brought the Dolphins back from a fourth-quarter deficit in the playoffs, with the other game on January 4, 1986 vs. Cleveland, and it was the 16th time overall in Marino's career that he has rallied Miami to a win in the fourth quarter . . . For his efforts in that game, Marino was named the NFL Offensive Player of the Week for the first round of the playoffs . . .

VS. COLTS (DEC. 30): Was 14-26 for 192 yards, one touchdown (a 53-yard TD pass to Sammie Smith, Smith's first TD reception of his career), and no interceptions on Dec. 30th vs. Colts . . . It was his 40th career game without throwing an interception, and the Dolphins are 31-9 in those 40 contests . . . The win left Marino with a 12-4 record against the Colts, including a 6-2 mark on the road, and in his career against the Colts Marino has thrown 28 TDs against only six interceptions . . .

AT BUFFALO (DEC. 23): Was 24-43 for 287 yards, two touchdowns, one interception, and three sacks on Dec. 23rd at Buffalo . . . His attempts, completions, and yards all were his second highest single game totals in 1990 . . . His two touchdown passes gave him 20 TD passes for the season, the eighth time in his eight seasons in the NFL he threw for 20 or more touchdowns . . . In addition, he equaled Johnny Unitas' NFL record of eight seasons with 20 or more touchdown passes . . . He also threw for his 240th career TD and passed Len Dawson to move into seventh place on the all-time NFL career touchdown pass list . . . His three sacks were the most since he was sacked four times on Sept. 25, 1988 at Indianapolis . . .

VS. SEATTLE (DEC. 16): Was 17-29 for 250 yards, two touchdowns, one interception, and one sack on Dec. 16th vs. Seattle . . . In that contest, he went over 3,000 passing yards for the season.

joining Joe Montana as the only quarterbacks to pass for 3,000 or more yards in season seven times in their careers . . . Also passed Norm Snead and moved into tenth place on the NFL's all-time passing yardage list with 30,937 yards . . .

VS. PHILADELPHIA (DEC. 9): Had his best game of 1990 Dec. 9th vs. Philadelphia . . . Was 27-54 for 365 yards, two touchdowns, and no interceptions in Miami's 23-20 overtime win . . . His attempts, completions, and yardage all were his 1990 season highs . . . His 54 passes were tied for the fourth highest of his career and were the most ever attempted against Philadelphia . . . His 365 yards passing represented his first 300 yard game of the season and his most yards passing since he threw for 427 yards on Sept. 24, 1989 vs. the N.Y. Jets . . . It was the 39th time in his career he did not throw an interception . . . His second TD pass in that contest gave him 236 touchdown passes in his career to tie him with George Blanda for eighth place on the NFL's all-time TD list . . . For his efforts in that game, he was named as the AFC's Offensive Player of the Week, the eighth time he has earned that honor since it was instituted in 1985 . . .

AT WASHINGTON (DEC. 2): Was 17-33 for 223 yards, one touchdown, and one interception December 2nd at Washington . . . His interception in the first quarter of that contest ended a span of 190 pass attempts in which he threw only one interception . . . He also had one rush for 13 yards . . .

AT CLEVELAND (NOV. 25): Was 16-29 for 245 yards, two touchdowns, no interceptions and no sacks Nov. 25th at Cleveland . . . It was the 38th game of his career without an INT . . . His 13-yard completion to Jim Jensen in the second quarter put him over 30,000 career yards passing, becoming the 11th quarterback in NFL history to reach 30,000 career passing yards . . . Marino reached that figure in 114 games, faster than any other QB in league history . . .

VS. L.A. RAIDERS (NOV. 19): Was 20-36 for 214 yards, one touchdown, no interceptions, and two sacks for 15 yards in losses . . . It was only the ninth defeat suffered by the Dolphins in his 37 career games without throwing an interception to that point . . . Also had one rush for 14 yards to lead the Dolphins in rushing . . . It was the first time in his career he has led the Dolphins in rushing in a game and the second of three games in 1990 that a Dolphin QB led the team in rushing (Scott Secules led the Dolphins with 17 yards rushing December 2nd at Washington and with 12 rushing yards Sept. 23rd at the N.Y. Giants) . . .

AT N.Y. JETS (NOV. 11): Was 21-36 for 192 yards, one touchdown, one interception, and no sacks Nov. 11th at N.Y. Jets . . . His interception in the second quarter of that game ended a streak of 99 straight pass attempts without an interception, dating back to the first quarter on Oct. 18th vs. New England . . . It was only the fifth time in his 14 career games against the Jets that he did not throw at least three touchdown passes . . .

VS. PHOENIX (NOV. 4): Was 18-25 for 205 yards, two touchdowns, no interceptions, and no sacks Nov. 4th vs. Phoenix . . . It was the 36th game of his career without throwing an interception . . .

AT INDIANAPOLIS (OCT. 28): Was 21-29 for 161 yards, one touchdown, and no interceptions Oct. 28th at Indianapolis . . . Was sacked twice for 11 yards in losses . . . His completion percentage of 72.4% was his best in 1990 . . .

VS. NEW ENGLAND (OCT. 18): Was 20-34 for 245 yards, no touchdowns, one interception, and two sacks Oct. 18th vs. Patriots . . . It was Marino's 14th career game without a touchdown pass, and it was only the third time in those 14 games the Dolphins won the contest . . .

VS. NEW YORK JETS (OCT. 7): Was 20-38 for 262 yards, two touchdowns, and no interceptions or sacks Oct. 7th vs. Jets . . . His first TD pass, a 69-yard toss to Mark Duper, was the longest play from scrimmage for the Dolphins in 1990 . . . His second TD pass, a 13-yard pass to Duper with 1:03 left in the game, gave the Dolphins a comeback 20-16 win . . .

AT PITTSBURGH (SEPT. 30): Was 17-28 for 175 yards, one touchdown, and one interception Sept. 30th at Pittsburgh . . . Also added a nine-yard rush and was sacked once, a four-yard sack by Keith Willis, the only time in seven career games against the Steelers he has has been sacked . . .

AT NEW YORK GIANTS (SEPT. 23): Was 14-30 for 115 yards, no touchdowns, two interceptions, and one sack for a loss of seven yards (his first sack of the season) Sept. 23rd at Giants . . . His 115 yards passing was the fourth fewest yards passing of his career, and the third lowest single game total in games he started . . . It was the 13th time in his career that he did not throw a touchdown pass . . . It was the 14th time in his career he suffered a sub-50 percent completion percentage . . .

VS. BUFFALO (SEPT. 16): Was 18-26 for 177 yards, one touchdown, and no interceptions Sept. 16th vs. Buffalo . . . It was the 33rd game of his career without an interception . . .

AT NEW ENGLAND (SEPT. 9): Was 22-34 (64.7%) for 255 yards, two touchdowns, and three interceptions Sept. 9th at New England . . . His seven-yard touchdown pass to Tony Paige with 1:46 remaining in the game gave the Dolphins their final points in a comeback 27-24 victory . . . However, it was the 14th time in his career he threw three or more interceptions . . .

PRESEASON: Played in three of the four preseason games, sitting out the August 18th game at Philadelphia, the first preseason game he missed since he did not play in a preseason contest on August 13, 1988 vs. Washington.

1989 - In 1989 was 308-550 for 3,997 yards with 24 touchdowns and 22 interceptions . . . Had a quarterback rating of 76.9, finishing fifth in the AFC and 11th in the NFL in passing . . . Reached the 100-games played plateau on Dec. 3rd at Kansas City . . . Was named AFC Offensive Player of the Week for the week ending September 18th after going 17-28 for 226 yards, three touchdowns (including his 200th career TD pass) and three INTs on September 17th in New England to lead Miami to a 24-10 win over the Patriots . . . Marino finished first in the AFC and third in the NFL (behind Don Majkowski's 4,318 yards and Jim Everett's 4,310 yards) in passing yardage (3,997), first in the AFC and second in the NFL (behind Majkowski's 599) in attempts (550), first in the AFC and second in the NFL (behind Majkowski's 353) in completions (308), third in the AFC and sixth in the NFL in touchdown passes (24), and first in the AFC and tied for first in the NFL (with Vinny Testaverde) in interceptions (22) . . . Marino's 11-yard completion to Mark Duper in the second quarter vs. Cleveland on Oct. 8th put him over 25,000 career yards passing, becoming the 25th player in NFL history to reach the 25,000 yards passing milestone . . . With 3,997 yards passing in 1989, Marino missed his fifth 4,000-yard season by three yards . . . Marino went over the 3,000 yards passing mark on Dec. 3rd at Kansas City, his sixth straight 3,000-yard season . . . Threw for 400 yards once in 1989, accumulating 427 yards passing against the Jets Sept. 24th, the most yards passing by an AFC quarterback in 1989 . . . It remains the last time Marino has thrown for 400 yards . . . Marino threw for 300 or more yards five times in 1989: Dec. 24th vs. Kansas City (339 yards), Dec. 10th vs. New England (300 yards), Nov. 12th at N.Y. Jets (359 yards), Oct. 22nd vs. Green Bay (333 yards), and on Sept. 24th vs. the Jets (427 yards) . . . Marino's five 300-yard games tied him for second with Washington's Mark Rypien for the most 300-yard games in the NFL in 1989, surpassed only by Green Bay's Don Majkowski, who had six 300-yard games . . . His 10-yard touchdown pass to Jim Jensen with 7:15 elapsed in the second quarter on September 17th at New England was the 200th career TD pass of his career, and he became the 13th player in NFL history to throw 200 TD passes . . . He reached that plateau faster than any quarterback in NFL history; Johnny Unitas, the former record-holder, threw for his 200th touchdown in the 121st game of his career, while Marino threw his 200th career TD pass in but his 89th career game (covering 3,152 pass attempts):

Threw 22 interceptions in 1989, and his +2 touchdown to interception differential (24 TD passes, 22 interceptions) was the lowest of his career . . . Marino was sacked an NFL-low ten times in 1989 for a total of 86 yards in losses . . . When the Bills' NT Jeff Wright tackled Marino for an 11-yard loss on Oct. 29th, it stopped the Dolphins' NFL record of 19 consecutive games (the last 12 games in 1988 and the first seven in 1989) without allowing a quarterback sack, covering 775 total passes, including 759 attempts by Marino (as well as 11 by Ron Jaworski, three by Scott Secules, and one by Troy Stradford and Jim Jensen) . . . The last time Marino had been sacked prior to the Bills game was on September 25, 1988 at Indianapolis, when he was sacked by Duane Bickett of the Colts in the third quarter of that game . . . Had two rushing touchdowns in 1989, on Oct. 15th vs. Cincinnati and on Dec. 10th vs. New England . . . They were the fourth and fifth rushing TDs of his career . . . His TD against the Bengals came on a one-yard bootleg with 6:42 elapsed in the third quarter . . . It was his first rushing touchdown since December 7, 1987 vs. the Jets in Miami . . . In 1989, Marino (who already held the Dolphin team record for touchdown passes entering the season) broke Bob Griese's club career records in attempts, completions, and yards . . . On Sept. 24th against the Jets, Marino broke Griese's team record of 1,926 completions and on Oct. 8th vs. Browns his 20-yard pass to Fred Banks in overtime broke Griese's team record of 25,092 career passing yards . . . Griese played 14 NFL seasons (1967-80), while Marino was finishing his seventh year in the league . . . Was 8-16 for 128 yards, one touchdown and no interceptions Nov. 26th vs. Pittsburgh . . . His eight completions and his 16 pass attempts both are the lowest single game figures of his career . . . Suffered a contusion of his right AC joint (located in the shoulder) in the second quarter on a hit by Carnell Lake, forcing him to leave the game for good with seven minutes left in the third quarter . . . It was the first time Marino was forced to leave a game due to an injury since he suffered a left knee sprain in the fourth quarter at Houston on December 4, 1983.

1988 – Was 354-606 for 4,434 yards with 28 touchdowns and 23 interceptions . . . Was sacked six times for 31 yards lost . . . Had a passing efficiency rating of 80.8, finishing fifth in the AFC and tenth in the NFL in passing . . . Led the NFL in attempts (606), completions (354), and yards (4,434), and finished tied for second in the NFL (and tied for first in the AFC with Cincinnati's Boomer Esiason) in touchdown passes (28), behind the Rams' Jim Everett (31) . . . Also finished second in the NFL (and first in the AFC) in interceptions (23), behind Tampa Bay's Vinny Testaverde (35) . . . Threw for over 400 yards twice (521 yards vs. Jets on October 23rd and 404 yards vs. Cleveland on Monday, December 12th), and his 521 yards passing vs. Jets on October 23rd was the high yardage figure by a QB in 1988 and not only was a new Dolphin single game record, but it also is the third highest single game passing yardage total by a QB in NFL history:

TOP FIVE PASSING YARDAGE GAMES IN NFL HISTORY

PLAYER	ATT-COM	YARDS	TDs	RESULT/OPPONENT	DATE
Norm Van Brocklin, Rams	41-27	554	5 TDs	Won vs. N.Y. Yanks	9/28/51
Warren Moon, Houston	45-27	527	3 TDs	Won vs. K.C.	12/16/90
DAN MARINO, MIAMI	60-35	521	3 TDs	Lost vs. N.Y. Jets	10/23/88
Phil Simms, Giants	62-40	513	1 TD	Lost vs. Cin.	10/13/85
Vince Ferragamo, Rams	46-30	509	3 TDs	Lost vs. Chi.	12/26/82

In that October 23rd game vs. the Jets, Marino also set a team record with 60 attempts (completing 35) and tied a team record with five interceptions . . . It was his first-ever game of five interceptions; his previous high had been four interceptions, twice (vs. San Francisco on November 28, 1986, and vs. Atlanta on November 30, 1986) . . . Had two games of four or more touchdown passes: November 27th at Jets (five TD passes) and December 12th vs. Cleveland (four TDs) . . . His five-TD game at the Jets was the fifth five-plus TD game of his career and his first since December 14, 1986 . . . Marino's first TD pass on December 12th vs. Cleveland was his 193rd career TD pass, breaking Bob Griese's Dolphin team record of 192 career touchdown passes . . . Had a ratio of one sack every 101 pass attempts (606 attempts/six sacks) . . . Was not sacked in his last 12 games, with his last sack coming on September 25th at Indianapolis . . . Carried ball 20 times for -17 yards . . . Made the first opposition fumble recovery of his career on December 12th vs. Cleveland . . . Had three sub-50 percent completion percentage games (September 4th at Chicago, October 9th at the Raiders, and November 27th at the Jets) . . . Became the 45th quarterback in NFL history to go over 20,000 career yards passing, reaching that milestone September 18th vs. Green Bay . . . With his 4,434 yards passing, Marino went over 4,000 yards in a season for the fourth time . . . Enjoyed the finest game percentage wise (81.3) of his career on December 4th vs. Indianapolis, hitting on 26 of 32 passes for 304 yards and three TDs with only one interception . . . Threw an 80-yard touchdown pass to tight end Ferrell Edmunds at the Jets on November 27th, the longest pass play of the season and tied for the fourth longest pass play in Dolphin history . . . On September 25th at Indianapolis, Marino was sacked four times for only the third time in his career . . . Against Bears at Chicago on September 4th, had career low nine completions, while his 113 yards passing was the third lowest figure of his career.

1987 – Led AFC in attempts (444) and completions (263) . . . Was second in NFL in attempts behind Neil Lomax (463) and third in completions behind Lomax and Montana (266) . . . Finished second in AFC in passing with 89.2 rating behind Bernie Kosar (95.4) . . . Placed fourth in league passing rating . . . Was behind Boomer Esiason (3,321) in AFC passing yards with 3,245 yards . . . Led AFC in touchdowns with 26 (Montana topped league with 31) . . . Did not play in three replacement games, breaking his string of 50 straight starts . . . Had a streak of 30 consecutive games with at least one TD pass stopped at Buffalo on November 29th, marking the end of the second-longest string in NFL history behind Johnny Unitas' 47 straight games with a TD pass.

1986 – Led AFC in passing (92.5); second in league to Tommy Kramer (92.6) . . . Only QB in league to throw TD pass in every game in '86 . . . Threw for 4,746 yards, third-highest total in NFL history . . . Threw 44 TDs in '86, second-highest total ever behind his own 48 . . . At one point, had 103 straight pass attempts without interception . . . Was named AFC offensive player of the week following week 15 (OT win over Rams in Anaheim) when he hit on 29 of 46 for 403 yards and five TDs, including 20-yard toss to Mark Duper in OT for the win . . . Tabbed AFC's player of the month for November when in five games he completed 122 of 198 (61.6%) for 1,510 yards (302 per-game average) and 16 TDs . . . Had longest pass completion in league (85 yards for TD to Duper vs. Houston, 11/2/86) . . . Tied team record, set personal high with six TD passes versus Jets (9/21/86) . . . With his second touchdown pass on September 7th at San Diego, he set an NFL record for 100 career

TD passes in the fewest amount of games to start a career, reaching that milestone in his 44th contest, breaking the previous mark (53 games) held by Johnny Unitas . . . Went over 15,000 yards passing in career versus Atlanta (11/30/86) . . . For first time in career, threw four INTs in a game; did it twice, vs. 49ers (9/28) and Atlanta (11/30).

1985 – Finished fourth in AFC in passing; fifth in league . . . Led league in yards (4,137), completions (336) and touchdowns (30) . . . Was second in AFC in attempts behind John Elway (605) . . . Threw for over 300 yards six times; Dolphins won all six games . . . Was 45 of 93 for 486 yards, three TDs and three INTs in two playoff games.

1984 – Had sensational season in '84; named in nationwide poll by CBS and The New York Times as most popular pro football player in America despite second-year status . . . Led NFL in attempts (564), completions (362), yards (5,084), average gain per pass attempt (9.0), percentage of TDs per attempt (8.5), TDs (48) and rating (108.9) . . . His yards, TDs and completions were new NFL records . . . Threw four TDs versus Patriots (10/21/84), breaking Bob Griese's single-season team record for TD passes in just eight games . . . In game number nine, broke Griese's seasonal team mark for passing yards that was set in '68 . . . Set AFC Championship Game records by throwing for 421 yards and four TDs in 45-28 win over Pittsburgh on 1/6/85 . . . In Super Bowl XIX, completed 29 of 50 for 318 yards and one TD.

1983 – Enjoyed unparalleled success for first-year QB in '83 . . . Named Rookie of the Year and was first rookie QB named to start in Pro Bowl . . . Amazingly, accumulated all stats and honors despite playing only the equivalent of 10 games . . . Miniscule interception rate of 2.0 shattered Griese's '71 team record of 3.4 . . . Led AFC in passing with 96.0 rating; first rookie QB since 1970 league merger to lead a conference in passing (fifth in NFL history) . . . Third in league behind Steve Bartkowski (97.6) and Joe Theismann (97.0) . . . Tied for fourth in AFC in TDs with 20 . . . In relief appearance against Raiders (9/18/83), engineered TD drives on first two possessions as an NFL quarterback . . . Made first start in overtime loss to Buffalo (10/9/83) and was 19 of 29 for 322 yards and three TDs . . . At one point, threw 95 passes without an INT and tossed just three in 242 attempts . . . First play as an NFL QB was a sideline pass completion thrown to Duper for nine yards versus the Raiders (9/18/83) . . . Marino's first NFL TD came at the end of his first drive in the league: a six-yarder to TE Joe Rose . . . Marino's first NFL INT came a week later (10/2/83) in New Orleans as Reggie Lewis returned it 27 yards for a TD . . . Suffered left knee sprain in fourth quarter at Houston (12/4/83) and missed last two regular-season games (Strock quarterbacked Dolphins to wins in both) . . . With knee brace, returned to complete 15 of 25 in playoff loss to Seattle . . . First-round draft choice (27th overall and sixth QB, behind John Elway, Todd Blackledge, Jim Kelly, Tony Eason, and Ken O'Brien) of Miami in 1983.

COLLEGE: Had record-setting career at University of Pittsburgh from 1979-82 . . . In four seasons at Pitt, completed 693 of 1,204 passes (57.5) for 8,597 yards, 79 touchdowns and 69 interceptions . . . Graduated as Panthers' record-holder in passing yards for season (2,876 in 1981) and career (8,597); in passes attempted and completed for season (226 of 380 in 1981) and career (693 of 1,204), and in touchdown passes for season (37 in 1981) and career (79) . . . Is also school's all-time total offense leader with 8,290 yards compared to 6,526 of runner-up Tony Dorsett . . . Along with Dorsett, Hugh Green (Dolphins) and Bill Fralic (Atlanta) is one of only four players to have Pitt jersey retired . . . Finished college career ranked on NCAA all-time lists as fifth in passing yardage, fourth in completions and fourth in TD passes . . . During tenure at hometown school, Panthers posted records of 11-1, 11-1, 11-1 and 9-3, including four bowl appearances (Fiesta, Gator, Sugar and Cotton) . . . In senior season, stats show 221 completions in 378 attempts (58.4) for 2,432 yards, 17 TDs and 23 interceptions, including Pitt's 7-3 Cotton Bowl loss to SMU . . . Earned All-America honors as a junior and finished fourth in Heisman Trophy balloting . . . Connected on 226 of 380 attempts (59.5) for 2,876 yards, 37 touchdowns and 23 interceptions . . . Was MVP at Sugar Bowl that year for second-ranked Panthers, completing 26 passes for 261 yards and three TDs in 24-20 edging of Georgia . . . Led Pitt to Gator Bowl in 1980, completing 116 of 224 throws (51.8) for 1,609 yards, 15 TDs and 14 interceptions . . . Became starter midway through freshman season of '79 hitting on 130 of 222 passes (58.6) for 1,680 yards, 10 scores and nine pick-offs . . . Suffered knee injury versus West Virginia that season, missing three games and later requiring off-season surgery . . . Has B.A. in communications.

and Pro Football Newsweekly, Football Digest, Football News and the Pro Football Writers . . . Made his NFL debut with Miami as starting left guard in season opener at New England on Sept. 9 . . . Sims started alongside first round pick left tackle Richmond Webb and became the first Dolphin rookie draft choices ever to start in the season opener on the offensive line . . . Also, they were just the third and fourth rookie draft choices to start on opening day on offense in the history of the Dolphins; the only other rookie draft choices to start for Miami on offense on opening day were WR Otto Stowe (1971) and FB Larry Csonka (1968) . . . In addition, rookie NT Alfred Oglesby (third round pick) also started at New England, marking the first time in Dolphin history that each of the team's top three draft choices all started on opening day . . . Started first four regular season games . . . Had his first ever NFL kickoff return at Giants (9/23), returning a kickoff nine yards . . . Suffered knee injury at Pittsburgh on Sept. 30 . . . Underwent successful arthroscopic surgery on left knee on Oct. 2 to repair cartilage damage . . . Surgery was performed by Dr. Dan Kanell . . . Sims was not placed on injured reserve and was one of two inactive players the next two games (vs. N.Y. Jets and vs. Patriots) . . . Made return from injury at Indianapolis (10/28) by coming off bench to play most of game at left guard after starter Roy Foster left game early in first quarter with elbow injury . . . Had been out of action for three weeks (missing two games plus bye weekend) . . . Started last nine games of season and both playoff games . . . Second-round draft choice (39th overall) of Miami in 1990.

COLLEGE: Four-year starter at Iowa State (1985-86, 1988-89) . . . Redshirted in 1987 . . . Named first team All-Big Eight and honorable mention All-America as senior . . . Posted eight knockdown blocks, including two on touchdown runs, vs. Minnesota . . . Came up with key blocks on a pair of touchdown runs in Iowa contest . . . Dominated line of scrimmage as offense rolled up 626 yards vs. Oklahoma, the most yardage given up by a Sooner defense in the '80s . . . Registered ten knockdown blocks while offense exploded for 530 yards in 24-20 win over Kansas . . . Earned honorable mention All-Big Eight and All-America honors as junior . . . Named team's Most Valuable Offensive Lineman . . . Registered 12 knockdown blocks to lead the way for five touchdowns (four rushing) in 42-14 win over Kansas . . . Had ten knockdowns to lead the way for ground game which accounted for 224 yards in 16-7 triumph over Kansas State . . . Received medical redshirt in 1987 after suffering toe injury in fall drills . . . Moved to guard after season . . . Started every game at left tackle as sophomore . . . Averaged ten knockdown blocks per game . . . Recorded 14 knockdown blocks and did not allow a tackle as offense accounted for season-high 507 yards in 48-19 win over Kansas State . . . Moved into starting lineup for last six games of freshman year . . . In fist collegiate start, offense accounted for three rushing touchdowns over his territory in 22-21 victory over Kansas . . . Holds B.S. in industrial technology.

SAMMIE SMITH

Running Back
Born: 5/16/67
College: Florida State '89
Acquired: D1, 1989
NFL: Third Season
Dolphins: Third Season

PRO: 1990 – Played and started in all 16 games in 1990 . . . Finished seventh in the AFC and 13th in the NFL in rushing and led the Dolphins in that category with 831 yards on 226 carries, an average of 3.7 yards per rush, with eight touchdowns . . . His rushing total is his single season career best, surpassing his total of 659 yards he gained as a rookie in 1989 . . . His 831 yards also is the most yards rushing in a season by a Dolphin runner since Larry Csonka gained 837 yards in 1979 . . . Added 11 receptions for 134 yards (an average of 12.2 yards per catch) and one touchdown . . . With his nine overall TDs (eight rushing, one receiving), Smith finished second on the Dolphins in scoring with 54 points and ranked tied for sixth in the AFC and tied for 13th in the NFL in touchdowns . . . His eight rushing touchdowns was tied for the 11th best single season total in Dolphin history . . . Smith's 226 rushing attempts in 1990 was the second highest single season total in Dolphin history, surpassed only by Delvin Williams' 272 rushing attempts in 1978 . . . Led Dolphins in rushing in ten of 16 regular season games (12 of 18 games, including playoffs) . . . In the 12 Dolphin regular season wins, Smith rushed for 786 yards and eight touchdowns on 199 carries, an average of 3.9 yards per carry and 65.5 yards per game, while in the four Dolphin losses he rushed for 45 yards without a touchdown on 27 carries, an average of 1.7 yards per carry and 11.3 yards per game . . . Fumbled eight times in 1990 (one shy of the Dolphin individual single season club record of nine, held by Bob Griese [1971], Tony Nathan [1980], and Dan Marino [1985, 1986]), losing four of those fumbles . . .

FIRST TWO YEARS: Smith's 831 yards rushing in 1990 is the highest single season rushing total by a second-year player in Dolphin history, surpassing Lorenzo Hampton's former Miami sophomore record of 830 yards set in 1986:

DOLPHIN ALL-TIME SINGLE SEASON SOPHOMORE RUSHING LEADERS

PLAYER	SOPHOMORE YEAR	YARDS	ROOKIE YEAR	YARDS
SAMMIE SMITH	1990	831	1989	659
Lorenzo Hampton	1986	830	1985	369
Andra Franklin	1982	701	1981	711
Jim Kiick	1969	575	1968	621
Larry Csonka	1969	566	1968	540

In addition to setting a Dolphin single season rushing record for a second-year player, Smith has totaled 1,490 yards and 14 touchdowns on 426 attempts in his two-year NFL career, the best two-year rushing total for a Dolphin runner in his first two professional seasons . . . Smith's 426 attempts and 1,490 yards outdistanced the numbers put up by second-place FB Andra Franklin (378 for 1,412), while his 14 rushing touchdowns ties Franklin's two-year total . . . Smith's numbers also put him ahead of Dolphins Hall of Fame fullback Larry Csonka, who recorded 269 attempts for 1,106 yards and eight TDs in his first two pro seasons:

LEADING DOLPHIN RUNNERS AFTER TWO SEASONS

YARDS	ATTEMPTS	RUSHING TDs
1490 S. SMITH (89-90)	426 S. SMITH (89-90)	14 S. SMITH (89-90)
1412 A. Franklin (81-82)	378 A. Franklin (81-82)	14 A. Franklin (81-82)
1199 L. Hampton (85-86)	345 J. Klick (68-69)	13 J. Klick (68-69)

		8 T. Stradford (87-88)

Since Smith entered the league in 1989, his total of 1,490 yards rushing over the last two years ranks ninth among all AFC running backs during that span:

LEADING AFC RUSHERS, LAST TWO SEASONS (1989-1990)

PLAYER	YARDS	PLAYER	YARDS
1. Thurman Thomas, Buf.	2,541	6. Marion Butts, S.D	1,908

5. Eric Dickerson, Ind.	1,988	10. Merrill Hoge, Pit.	1,393

RECORD BREAKING OPENER: Smith had the best game of his career and one of the best ever by a Dolphin running back Sept. 9th at New England, the first game of the 1990 season . . . Rushed for 159 yards on 23 carries (6.9 yards per carry) with one touchdown and a long gain of 27 yards . . . It was the best single game rushing total of his career (surpassing his previous best, on Nov. 5, 1989 vs. Indianapolis when he gained 123 yards), and his second career 100-yard game . . . It also was the fourth highest single game rushing total in Dolphin history:

TOP FIVE DOLPHIN INDIVIDUAL RUSHING GAMES

NAME	DATE	OPPONENT	ATT.	YARDS	TD	LONG
Mercury Morris	Sept. 30, 1973	NEW ENGLAND	15	197	3	70t
Gary Davis	Dec. 17, 1977	BUFFALO	26	172	1	60t
Troy Stradford	Nov. 22, 1987	at Dallas	17	169	1	51
SAMMIE SMITH	Sept. 9, 1990	at New England	23	159	1	27
Abner Hayes	Sept. 17, 1967	DENVER	12	151	2	65t

Smith's total also was the most yards rushing by a Dolphin on opening day . . . The old record for rushing yards in a season opener was 151 yards by Abner Hayes in a 35-21 win over the Denver Broncos on Sept. 17, 1967 . . . Smith's 159 yards rushing also was the best performance in the NFL on opening day in 1990, and as the NFL's leading rusher after the first week of the season, he became the first Dolphin to top the NFL in rushing yardage at any point in a season since Delvin Williams amassed a league-high total of 1,057 rushing yards in Week 11 of the 1978 season, leading Chicago's Walter Payton by 38 yards (1,057 to 1,019) in the NFL rushing race . . . In addition to leading the NFL in rushing, Smith's 159 yards also topped the NFL in total yards from scrimmage . . . Smith gained 105 of his 159 yards against the Patriots in the first half, becoming the first Dolphin to gain 100 yards in the first half of a game since Delvin Williams rushed for 104 yards in the first half on Nov. 12, 1978 vs. Buffalo . . . Smith's 27-yard run in that contest also was the longest run of his career (since broken) . . . Smith also led the Dolphin rushing attack that gained 177 yards in the Patriots contest, the most yards rushing by the Dolphins since they gained 184 yards on the ground on November 22, 1987 at Dallas . . . For his efforts against the Patriots, he was named AFC Offensive Player of the Week, the first time in his career he was so honored . . .

100-YARD RUSHING GAMES: In addition to his 159 yards rushing on Sept. 9th at New England, had one other 100 yard rushing game in 1990, gaining a team-leading 108 yards on 29 carries Dec. 30th vs. Indianapolis, including one rushing touchdown, and had one reception, a 53-yard touchdown catch from Dan Marino, Smith's longest reception of his career and his first career TD catch . . . Smith's 108 yards was his second game in 1990 and the third of his career of 100 or more yards rushing, and the Dolphins are 3-0 in his three 100-yard career games . . . His 29 carries is his career high and is tied for the fourth highest single game total in Dolphin history with Larry Csonka's 29 carries on Dec. 23, 1974 vs. Oakland . . .

PLAYOFFS: Led Dolphins in rushing in the playoffs with 181 yards on 41 carries in the two postseason games, an average of 4.4 yards per carry and 90.5 yards per game, and added three catches for 31 yards . . . In Divisional Playoff game at Buffalo on Jan. 12th, led Dolphins in rushing with 99 yards on 21 carries (4.7 yards per rush), and added one reception for nine yards . . . Despite playing with bruised ribs that hampered him throughout the game, in First Round playoff contest on Jan. 5th vs. Kansas City, led Dolphins with 82 yards on 20 carries (4.1 yards per carry) and had two catches for 22 yards . . .

GAME HIGHLIGHTS: Led Dolphins in rushing with 51 yards on 17 carries, had two receptions for 24 yards, and lost one fumble Dec. 16th vs. Seattle . . . It was the first time in 1990 and the second time in his career he caught two passes in a game (he had two receptions Dec. 17, 1989 at Indianapolis) . . . Gained 39 yards on nine carries Dec. 9th vs. Philadelphia . . . Led the Dolphins in rushing with 94 yards Nov. 25th at Cleveland (his third highest single game total of 1990), including a four-yard touchdown run . . . In that contest had a run of 33 yards, the longest carry of his career and the longest by a Dolphin since Lorenzo Hampton had a 34-yard run at Philadelphia on December 13, 1987 . . . Lost a total of three yards in his six carries on Nov. 19th vs. Raiders, the lowest single game rushing total of his career, and had one reception for a one-yard loss, giving him minus four yards in total offense in that contest . . . Led Dolphins in rushing on Nov. 11th at N.Y. Jets, gaining 70 yards . . . Saw limited action in that contest in the second half after being poked in the eye . . . Gained 55 yards on 14 carries Nov. 4th vs. Phoenix and added one catch for eight yards . . . Gained 58 yards on 14 carries Oct. 28th at Indianapolis as Dolphins gained 206 yards rushing against Colts in that contest, the most yardage Miami gained rushing since they gained 236 yards on the ground on Oct. 21, 1984 at New England . . . Accounted for Dolphins' only offensive touchdown Oct. 18th vs. New England with a two-yard TD run in third quarter, his sixth rushing TD of the season . . . Gained 30 yards on six carries and added one reception for nine yards on Oct. 7th vs. Jets when his playing time was limited by a leg injury . . . Gained 48 yards rushing on 20 carries Sept. 30th at Pittsburgh . . . Playing time in second half of that game was limited due to sore leg . . . Rushed for 56 yards on 18 carries on Sept. 16th vs. Buffalo . . . Had two rushing touchdowns in that contest, his second career game with two or more rushing TDs (his other two-plus TD games was a three-touchdown effort vs. New England on December 10, 1989).

1989 – Played in 13 games in 1989, making 12 starts . . . Finished first on the Dolphins, 11th in the AFC, and 21st in the NFL in rushing with a total of 659 yards on 200 carries, an average of 3.3 yards per carry, and had six touchdowns, all rushing . . . Also added seven receptions for 81 yards and no touchdowns, an average of 11.6 yards per catch . . . His 36 points (on six touchdowns) was tied with Jim Jensen for third place among the Dolphins' leading scorers . . . Had six fumbles for the season, losing five of them . . . After rushing for 167 yards and no touchdowns on 59 carries (2.8 yards per carry) in his first five contests, he rushed for 492 yards and six TDs on 141 carries (3.5 yards per carry) in his final eight games . . . Led the team in rushing 11 times, including each of the final nine games . . . Missed all of training camp and the first regular season game as an unsigned draft choice, then signed a contract on September 11th and reported to camp the next day (Sept. 12th) . . . With 659 yards rushing in 1989, Smith finished fifth in rushing yardage in the NFL among rookie running backs:

NFL TOP ROOKIE RUNNERS IN 1989

NAME	TEAM	ATT.	YARDS	AVG.	LG	TD
Barry Sanders	Detroit	280	1,470	5.3	34	14
Bobby Humphrey	Denver	294	1,151	3.9	40	7
Tim Worley	Pittsburgh	195	770	3.9	38	5
Marion Butts	San Diego	170	683	4.0	50	9
SAMMIE SMITH	MIAMI	200	659	3.3	25	6
Eric Metcalf	Cleveland	187	633	3.4	43	6

Smith's 659 yards rushing placed him second among the Dolphins' all-time single season rookie rushing leaders, trailing only Andra Franklin's team record of 711 yards rushing, which Franklin set in his rookie season of 1981:

DOLPHINS' ALL-TIME SINGLE SEASON ROOKIE RUSHING LEADERS

PLAYER	YEAR	YARDS	CARRIES	AVERAGE
Andra Franklin	1981	711	201	3.5
SAMMIE SMITH	1989	659	200	3.3
Jim Kiick	1968	621	165	3.8
Troy Stradford	1987	619	145	4.3
Larry Csonka	1968	540	138	3.9

With six touchdowns rushing, Smith finished tied for third among the Dolphins all-time rookie rushing touchdown leaders with Larry Csonka (1968) and Troy Stradford (1987), behind Andra Franklin's seven rushing TDs in 1981 and Ron Davenport's 11 rushing touchdowns in 1985 . . . His three rushing touchdowns vs. New England on Dec. 10th tied the Dolphin team record for most rushing touchdowns in a game . . . With 200 carries Smith finished second on the Dolphin's all-time list of rookie single season rushing attempts leaders, behind only Andra Franklin's rookie record of 201 carries, set in 1981 . . . His best game as a rookie came on Nov. 5th vs. Indianapolis, rushing for 123 yards on 25 carries, an average of 4.9 yards per carry . . . His 123 yards rushing was the third best single game rushing total ever by a Dolphin rookie, surpassed only by Troy Stradford's 169 yards rushing at Dallas on November 22, 1987 and Leroy Harris' 140 yards rushing vs. Baltimore on December 5, 1977 . . . With his 123 yards rushing, Smith became the first Miami rusher to go over 100 yards in a game since Stradford gained 120 yards on December 7, 1987 vs. the New York Jets, with the Dolphins going 27 games in that interval without a 100-yard rusher . . . It also was the only time a Dolphin rushed for 100 or more yards in 1989 . . . Smith accounted for most of the Dolphins' total of 159 yards rushing, and with the Dolphins passing for 149 yards in that contest, it was the first time the Dolphins had more rushing yards than passing yards in a game since Oct. 11, 1987 vs. Kansas City in a replacement game (202 yards rushing, 142 yards passing); the last time that occurred in a non-replacement game was on December 22, 1985 vs. Buffalo (179 yards rushing, 145 yards passing) . . . His 25 carries were the most by a Dolphin running back since Stradford had 30 rushing attempts against the Jets on December 7, 1987 . . . Smith's 25 carries also is the second highest single game total ever by a Dolphin rookie, surpassed only by Stradford's 30 carries against the Jets . . . He also fumbled twice in that game as the Dolphins had five fumbles during the contest to tie the team single game record (later broken) . . . On Dec. 10th vs. New England Smith scored three rushing touchdowns while gaining 62 yards on 21 carries to tie the Dolphin team record for most rushing touchdowns in a game . . . It was the 12th time a Dolphin rushed for three TDs, and the third time it has been done by a rookie . . . The last Dolphin (and Miami rookie) to score three TDs on the ground had been Troy Stradford on December 7, 1987 vs. the New York Jets . . . In addition, Smith's three TDs rushing, coupled with Dan Marino's one-yard TD run, gave the Dolphins four TDs rushing to tie the club single game record, accomplished seven previous times . . . With under a week's practice time after signing his contract on September 11th, he made his Dolphin debut Sept. 17th at New England in an unannounced surprise starting role at running back, and in the team's first play, he gained 21 yards the first time he touched the ball as a pro . . . Picked up three yards in his next carry, and three plays later had a 13-yard run, giving him 37 yards rushing on his first three professional carries . . . Overall, he gained 40 yards on seven carries to lead the Dolphins in rushing before leaving the game for good early in the second quarter with a slight sprain of his left ankle . . . First round draft choice (ninth overall) by the Dolphins in 1989 out of Florida State . . . Along with Louis Oliver was one of two Florida natives taken by Miami in first round.

COLLEGE: Two-year starter and three-year letterman for Florida State (1985-88) . . . Was medical redshirt in 1985 . . . Finished his career at Florida State ranked third on their all-time rushing list with 2,539 yards . . . His 15 career rushing touchdowns was fourth in FSU's record book . . . Played in Sugar, Fiesta, and All-American Bowls . . . Suffered through injury plagued 1988 season, missing two games and seeing limited action in three others . . . Ran for team-leading 577 yards (5.3 average) and four TDs . . . Best game was 212-yard rushing performance on 24 carries in 44-7 win over Virginia Tech . . . Starred in 13-7 Sugar Bowl victory over Auburn with 115 yards on 24 carries . . . In 1987 was offensive leader for 11-1 and second-ranked Seminoles . . . Rushed for single season school record 1,230 yards with seven touchdowns, surpassing the previous school mark of 1,134 yards held by Greg Allen (1983) . . . Averaged 123.0 rushing yards per game, ninth-best among NCAA running backs . . . Set FSU single season records with four consecutive and seven total 100-yard games . . . Rushed for career high 224 yards in 44-3 victory over East Carolina . . . In 1986 earned Football News Freshman All-American honors as a second-year freshman . . . Started four games and finished second on the team with 611 rushing yards on 103 carries, a 5.9 average, along with four touchdowns . . . Ended season by being named as Most Valuable Player in the All-American Bowl with 205 rushing yards and two TDs in 27-13 victory over Indiana . . . In 1985 was granted a medical redshirt as a true freshman . . . Played in first three games of season before suffering season-ending stress fracture in leg . . . Majored in general studies.

PERSONAL: Married to Angela (5/7/87), couple splits residence between Miami and Orlando, Fla., with daughter, Jenée Chantel (3/23/87) . . . Consensus All-American at Apopka (Zellwood, Fla.) High School . . . Was recognized as one of the top 100 recruits in the nation by the Football News . . . Rushed for 1,210 yards and 16 touchdowns in only seven-and-a-half games as a senior . . . Earned MVP honors in the Florida-Georgia High School Football All-Star Game . . . Is working on his degree in the off-season . . . Enjoys bowling and fishing in spare time . . . Full name is Sammie Lee Smith, born May 16, 1967, in Orlando.

ACCURACY: In 1990, Stoyanovich hit on 21 of 25 field goal attempts for an 84.0% accuracy mark . . . It was the best single season accuracy mark in Dolphins history and the fourth best in the AFC in '90 behind Kansas City's Nick Lowery (34 of 37 for 91.9%), San Diego's John Carney (19 of 21 for 90.5%), and the N.Y. Jets' Pat Leahy (23 of 26 for 88.5%) . . . In addition, Stoyanovich has booted 40 of 51 field goal attempts in his career for a percentage of 78.4%, the best career accuracy mark in Dolphin history:

G. Yepremian	70-78	165	242	68.2
U. von Schamann	79-84	101	149	67.8

Stoyanovich made his first 13 attempts in 1990 before a miss and was the last kicker in the NFL to miss a field goal in 1990 . . . Dating back to his last kick in 1989, he connected on 14 consecutive field goals before missing a 53-yard FG on Nov. 11th at N.Y. Jets . . . His 14 straight field goals set a new personal best for most consecutive field goals, breaking his former best of eight consecutive FGs, which he accomplished earlier in 1989 . . . His last miss before the Nov. 11th Jet game was a 56-yard attempt on Dec. 24, 1989 vs. Kansas City, his second-to-last FG attempt that season (he then hit a 22-yard FG vs. the Chiefs in that game to begin 14 straight field goal streak) . . . His 14 consecutive field goals fell two short of the Dolphin club record of 16 consecutive field goals made, set by Garo Yepremian in the eighth through 16th game in 1978 . . . Dating back to 1989, Stoyanovich also converted 27 of his last 31 field goal attempts of under 50 yards . . . Converted 18 straight field goal attempts under 40 yards before missing a 28-yard FG attempt Dec. 23rd at Buffalo . . . That miss also was his first career miss of a field goal attempt under 30 yards . . .

DISTANCE: Kicked a 58-yard field goal in AFC First Round playoff game vs. Kansas City on Jan. 5, 1991 . . . It was the longest field goal ever kicked in NFL post-season history, breaking the previous record of 54 yards set by Detroit's Eddie Murray on December 31, 1983, against San Francisco:

LONGEST FIELD GOALS, NFL PLAYOFFS

LENGTH	KICKER	OPPONENT	DATE
58	PETE STOYANOVICH, MIA.	vs. Kansas City	Jan. 5, 1991
54	Eddie Murray, Det.	at San Francisco	Dec. 31, 1983
52	Lou Groza, Clev.	at L.A. Rams	Dec. 23, 1951
52	Curt Knight, Wash.	at Minnesota	Dec. 22, 1973
52	Matt Bahr, Clev.	at L.A. Raiders	Jan. 8, 1983
51	Fuad Reveiz, Mia.	vs. Cleveland	Jan. 4, 1986

It also broke the Dolphin playoff record for the longest field goal, which was 51 yards by Fuad Reveiz on January 4, 1986 against Cleveland . . . Stoyanovich's 58-yard kick against the Chiefs also was tied for the fifth longest field goal overall in NFL history and the second longest field goal in Dolphin history, surpassed only by his 59-yard field goal against the New York Jets in Giants Stadium on Nov. 12, 1989 . . . That field goal set an NFL record for the longest field goal by a rookie and broke Garo Yepremian's team record for the longest field goal in Dolphin history . . . Yepremian had booted a 54-yard field goal on Oct. 22, 1972 vs. Buffalo . . . That 59-yard field goal was tied for the third longest field goal in NFL history, and coupled with his 58-yard FG against the Chiefs in the 1990 playoffs, Stoyanovich has kicked two of the five longest field goals in NFL history:

LONGEST FIELD GOALS, NFL HISTORY

58	Nick Lowery, K.C.	vs. Washington	Sept. 18, 1983
58	Dan Miller, Baltimore	vs. San Diego	Dec. 26, 1982

PLAYOFFS: Finished as the Dolphins' leading scorer in the postseason with 15 points, going 3-4 (75%) in field goal attempts and 6-6 in point after touchdown kicks . . . Hit on field goals of 58, 49, and 22 yards while missing from 57 yards out . . . Was 1-2 in field goal attempts in playoff game on Jan. 5th vs. Kansas City, hitting his record 58-yard field goal and missing on a 57-yard attempt . . . In playoff game at Buffalo on Jan. 12th was 2-2 in field goal attempts, connecting from 49 and 22 yards out . . .

GAME HIGHLIGHTS: Was 3-3 in field goals Dec. 9th vs. Philadelphia, including two clutch kicks . . . His 34-yard field goal with :03 seconds left in the fourth quarter gave the Dolphins a 20-20 tie with the Eagles, sending the game into overtime, and his 39-yard FG with 2:28 left in OT provided the game-winner in the Dolphins' 23-20 comeback victory . . . It was the second time in his career he has won a game with a field goal in overtime (the other was Oct. 10, 1989 in a 13-10 Dolphin victory in Miami over the Cleveland Browns) . . . On Oct. 28th at Indianapolis he kicked a 53-yard field goal, the third longest of his career, tied for the fourth longest in Dolphin history, and the longest FG ever kicked against the Colts . . . Connected on his only field goal attempt on Sept. 23rd vs. the Giants in Giants Stadium, hitting a 51-yard field goal, the fourth longest FG of his career . . . It was the only points the Dolphins scored in their 20-3 loss to the Giants.

1989 – Had an impressive rookie season . . . Finished initial NFL campaign hitting on 19 of 26 field goal attempts and 38 of 39 extra points for 95 total points . . . Connected on 14 of 15 FG attempts inside the 40-yard line . . . Scoring point total placed him sixth in the AFC and 14th in the NFL in scoring among kickers . . . His 95 points was the third highest total by a Dolphin rookie in club history, surpassed only by Fuad Reveiz' 116 points in 1985 and Uwe von Schamann's 99 points in 1979 . . . His 19 field goals were the third most in team history by a rookie, trailing only Reveiz's 22 FGs in 1985 and von Schamann's 21 FGs in 1979 . . . Finished eighth in the AFC and 17th in the NFL with 19 field goals made . . . Hit 59-yard field goal Nov. 12th at N.Y. Jets . . . It was tied for the third longest field goal in NFL history and it set an NFL record for the longest field goal by a rookie . . . It also broke Garo Yepremian's team record for the longest field goal in Dolphins history . . . Yepremian had booted a 54-yard field goal on Oct. 22, 1972 vs. Buffalo . . . Went from goat to hero with overtime field goal vs. Cleveland on Oct. 8th . . . Missed potential game-winning 45-yard field goal with eight seconds left in regulation and score tied 10-10 . . . Rebounded in overtime with game-winning 35-yard FG to give Miami a 13-10 victory . . . Recorded season-high three field goals, including 33-yard boot with six seconds left in contest to break a 20-20 tie and give Miami a 23-20 victory over Green Bay on Oct. 22nd . . . Made professional debut vs. Bills (Sept. 10) and converted a 29-yard field goal and all three of his PATs . . . Eighth-round draft choice (203rd overall) of Miami in 1989.

COLLEGE: Four-year letterman for Indiana (1985-88) . . . Played on both football and soccer teams through junior season . . . Concentrated on football during senior campaign . . . Selected as second team All-American by The Sporting News and first team All-Big Ten as senior . . . Owns virtually every Hoosier (kicker) scoring record . . . DOLPHIN FACT

The Dolphins have never lost to an NFC East team at home. Miami is a perfect 10-0 in home games with NFC East foes since the merger of the National and American Football Leagues in 1970. The Dolphins are 4-0 vs. Philadelphia, 2-0 vs. Dallas, 3-0 vs. Phoenix and 1-0 vs. Washington. Miami has never faced the N.Y. Giants at home. The two teams were scheduled to play at Joe Robbie Stadium in 1987, but the game was cancelled due to the players' strike.

DOLPHIN FACT

The Dolphins hold NFL records for most seasons leading the league in fewest sacks allowed (10 – 1973, 1982-90) and most consecutive seasons leading the league in the same (1982-90). In addition, during the 1988 and '89 seasons the Dolphins also set an NFL record by not allowing a quarterback sack in 19 straight games. The streak far outdistanced the previous NFL mark of five straight games which was accomplished on many occasions. In 1988, Miami also set an NFL sack record by allowing only seven sacks in the 16-game season.

GAME 1

DOLPHINS 27, NEW ENGLAND 24
September 9, 1990

Foxboro Stadium
Foxboro, MA

Miami Dolphins running back Sammie Smith rushed for a career-high 159 yards and a touchdown as the Dolphins broke a five-year losing streak on opening day with a 27-24 triumph over the New England Patriots before a crowd of 45,305 at Foxboro Stadium. Miami's last win in a season opener was a 35-17 triumph at Washington on September 2, 1984. With the win over the Patriots, Miami raised its record on opening day to 11-13-1 (.460) and 9-9-1 in road season openers. The Dolphins, who earned a 24-10 win at the Patriots last season, have now won back-to-back games in New England for the first time since the 1972 (37-21) and 1973 (30-14) seasons. Smith's 159 rushing yards was the fourth best in Dolphin history and only his second career 100-yard game. In addition, Smith rushed for 105 yards in the first half and became the first Dolphin runner to run for 100 or more yards by halftime since November 12, 1978, when Delvin Williams amassed 104 yards and two scores on 12 carries at the half of a 25-24 win over the Buffalo Bills. In the contest, the Dolphins opened the scoring on their first drive as kicker Pete Stoyanovich booted a 31-yard field goal. The Patriots rebounded and took a 7-3 lead on a 22-yard hook-up between quarterback Steve Grogan and Irving Fryar. The touchdown was set up by a 73-yard interception return by Pats cornerback Ronnie Lippett to Miami's 22-yard line. Following a 37-yard field goal by Stoyanovich, the Patriots stormed out to a 21-6 lead on a one-yard run by John Stephens and 35-yard touchdown pass from Grogan to Sammie Martin. Miami closed the score to 24-13 at the half when first-year receiver Tony Martin scored his first career NFL touchdown on a 35-yard reception from Dan Marino with just :23 seconds left in the half. Miami narrowed its deficit to 21-20 in the third quarter as Smith scored on a three-yard run, before Patriots kicker Jason Staurvosky put the Pats up by four points with a 42-yard field goal. The Dolphins scored the game-winning touchdown on a seven-yard hook-up between Marino and fullback Tony Paige. The Patriots had a chance to tie the game with just :27 seconds left in the game but Jason Staurvosky's 57-yard field goal attempt was short.

GAME 2

DOLPHINS 30, BUFFALO 7
September 16, 1990

Joe Robbie Stadium
Miami, FL

The Miami Dolphins moved into undisputed first place in the AFC East for the first time since 1985 and snapped a six-game losing streak to the Buffalo Bills with a 30-7 home opening win before 68,142 fans – at the time the second-largest crowd to ever witness a Dolphins game at Joe Robbie Stadium. In the contest, the Dolphin defense held the Bills to only 205 yards in total offense – the fewest total yards allowed by a non-replacement Dolphin team since Miami held the Baltimore Colts to only 159 yards in a 37-0 win on November 20, 1983 – and held Buffalo's 12 offensive drives to end in five punts, two fumbles, one interception, halftime, a touchdown and twice on downs. The win lifted Miami into undisputed first place in the AFC East for the first time since the 16th week of the 1985 season. Miami owned a 12-4 record that week which placed the Dolphins one game ahead of both the New York Jets and New England Patriots (both 11-5). It also snapped a Buffalo's streak of 33 straight weeks atop the AFC East. Dolphins Head Coach Don Shula won his 200th regular season game as Miami's head coach. Since joining the Dolphins in 1970, Shula has posted a 200-96-2 regular season record to join Hall of Fame coaches Curley Lambeau (Green Bay), George Halas (Chicago) and Tom Landry (Dallas) as the only NFL coaches to earn 200 or more wins with one NFL club. The win was Miami's first-ever triumph over the Bills in Joe Robbie Stadium as Buffalo entered the game with a perfect 3-0 mark in JRS. It was also Miami's first win against the Bills since a 34-24 triumph on November 16, 1986, in Buffalo's Rich Stadium. Following a scoreless first quarter, the Dolphins took a 7-0 lead by marching 71 yards on 15 plays in 9:11 and capped the drive as Sammie Smith rushed in from two yards out. The Dolphins increased their lead to 16-0 at halftime as Pete Stoyanovich connected on field goals from 23, 29 and 48 yards. It was the first time the Dolphins have held an opponent scoreless at the half since September 17, 1989, when Miami led the New England Patriots 24-0 at intermission. The Dolphins increased their lead to 23-0 midway through the third quarter as Smith scored from one-yard out – his second touchdown of the game. It was Smith's second career game of two or more touchdowns with his only other such performance coming on a three-touchdown effort vs. New England on December 10, 1989. The teams exchanged touchdowns in the fourth quarter as Miami scored on a 17-yard touchdown connection from Dan Marino to Tony Paige and Buffalo countered with game's final points on Larry Kinnebrew's one-yard run.

GAME 3

N.Y. GIANTS 20, DOLPHINS 3
September 23, 1990

Giants Stadium
East Rutherford, NJ

New York Giants running back Ottis Anderson scored two touchdowns to lead the Giants past the Miami Dolphins, 20-3, before a crowd of 76,483 at Giants Stadium. Miami's point total was the team's lowest since the Dolphins dropped a 6-3 decision vs. the New England Patriots on November 20, 1988. The Giants led Miami in time of possession 40:18-19:42, first downs 17-7, total net yards 310-158, total plays 71-45, rushing yards 131-39 and net passing yards 179-119. Miami's total of seven first downs in the contest tied the team record for fewest first downs in a game. Miami's only other game with seven first downs occurred on October 3, 1970, as Miami earned a 20-10 win over the Oakland Raiders. The Giants limited Miami to just 12 offensive drives which resulted in six punts, two interceptions, a fumble, a field goal and the end of both the first half and the game. The Dolphins entered the game with the NFL's second-ranked rushing attack (152.5 average yards gained on the ground), but were held to only 39 yards on 11 carries in the contest. Reserve quarterback Scott Secules replaced starting QB Dan Marino in the fourth quarter and led the Dolphins in rushing by scrambling once for 16 yards. He is the first non-replacement Dolphin quarterback to lead Miami in rushing since David Woodley rushed for a team-leading 52 yards on 15 carries in a 16-6 win over the Buffalo Bills on December 19, 1981, in the Orange Bowl. In addition, the Giants held Marino to one of his worst passing days since becoming a starter in 1983. In the contest, Marino hit on 14 of 34 attempts for 115 yards and two interceptions. Marino's total of 115 yards through the air was the fourth-worst of his career and second-lowest as a starter behind only a 103-yard effort at Houston (10/1/89) and a 113-yard game at Chicago (9/4/88). The game marked just the second-ever contest played between the two teams and also ended the second-longest interrupted series in NFL history. The only other encounter between the Dolphins and Giants occurred 17 years, nine months and 13 days ago as the Dolphins earned a 23-13 win at Yankee Stadium on December 10, 1972. The only NFL series interrupted longer than the Dolphins and Giants are the Kansas City Chiefs and Philadelphia Eagles. The Chiefs and Eagles met only once, on October 22, 1972, in Kansas City with the Eagles claiming a 21-20 win. The Giants opened the scoring in the first quarter on a 22-yard field goal by Raul Allegre and extended their lead to 10-0 at the half on a one-yard run by Ottis Anderson in the second period. Miami scored the only points of the third period on a 51-yard field goal by Pete Stoyanovich. Stoyanovich's field goal was the second-longest of his career behind a 59-yarder at Giants Stadium against the Jets on November 12, 1989. The Giants scored the final points of the game in the fourth quarter on a one-yard run by Anderson and a 45-yard field goal by Allegre.

DOLPHINS 28, PITTSBURGH 6
September 30, 1990

Three Rivers Stadium
Pittsburgh, PA

The Miami Dolphins turned in one of the best defensive performances in team history with a 28-6 win over the Pittsburgh Steelers before a crowd of 54,691 at Three Rivers Stadium. The win raised Miami's record to 3-1 which is the best four-game season opening streak by the Dolphins since Miami started the 1985 campaign with a 3-1 mark. Miami held Pittsburgh to 160 total yards which is the fewest total yards allowed by a non-replacement Dolphin team since November 20, 1983, when Miami held the Baltimore Colts to 159 yards in a 37-0 win and the Steelers' six points were the fewest points allowed by Miami since the team dropped a 6-3 decision to the New England Patriots on November 20, 1988. In addition, the Dolphins held the Steelers' 11 offensive drives to end in five punts, three interceptions, two field goals and once on downs. The Dolphins also held the Steelers to eight first downs (the fewest allowed since the Dolphins also allowed eight first downs on September 25, 1983, in a 14-6 win over Kansas City in the Orange Bowl), six passing first downs (the fewest allowed since Miami held Pittsburgh to three first downs through the air on November 26, 1989, in a 34-14 loss in Joe Robbie Stadium). The Dolphin defense was led by cornerback Tim McKyer (two interceptions) and defensive end Jeff Cross (three sacks). McKyer became the first Dolphin cornerback to record two or more interceptions in a single game since William Judson registered three INTs on October 16, 1983, in a 32-14 win over the New York Jets in Shea Stadium. Cross registered three sacks in a contest for the second time in his career with the other effort coming on September 17, 1989, in a 27-10 win at the New England Patriots. Dolphins' running back Sammie Smith led the Dolphins in the first half by scoring two touchdowns to pace Miami to a 21-3 halftime lead. Miami scored touchdowns on its first three possessions as the Dolphins opened the scoring in the first quarter on a 17-play, 73-yard drive which took 9:37 off the game clock and ended when Sammie Smith leaped over the top from one-yard out. In the second quarter, the Dolphins increased their lead to 14-0 as Smith rushed seven yards for the score. The big play in the drive came on a fourth-and-12 from Miami's 48-yard line when Jim Jensen threw a 31-yard pass to Ferrell Edmunds on a fake punt. Miami completed its first half scoring when Dan Marino hit Mark Clayton for a 35-yard touchdown pass. The Steelers scored the final points of the half on a 46-yard field goal by Gary Anderson. Following a 35-yard field goal in the third quarter by Anderson to close the score to 21-6, Miami closed out the scoring in the fourth quarter as fullback Tony Paige rushed in from one-yard out. Linebacker Eric Kumerow's interception at the ten-yard line and return to the five-yard marker set up the score.

GAME 5

DOLPHINS 20, NEW YORK JETS 16
October 7, 1990

Joe Robbie Stadium
Miami, FL

Miami Dolphins wide receiver Mark Duper scored his second touchdown of the game with just 1:03 left to lead the Dolphins back to a 20-16 win over the New York Jets before a Joe Robbie Stadium record crowd of 69,678. With the win, the Dolphins improved to 4-1 which is the team's best record for a five-game start in a season since 1985 when Miami also opened up with a 4-1 mark. The triumph improved Miami to 3-0 against AFC East foes in 1990. Since losing ten straight games to AFC East opponents from December 28, 1987, to September 10, 1989, the Dolphins have rebounded to post a 7-3 record in intra-divisional play. Duper, who caught five passes for 125 yards and a pair of scores, had his first multiple-touchdown game since he caught three touchdown passes in a 23-21 win over the Washington Redskins on December 20, 1987, at Joe Robbie Stadium. The Jets jumped out to a 13-0 halftime lead as Pat Leahy booted a pair of field goals from 25 and 19 yards and Ken O'Brien hit Rob Moore with a nine-yard scoring strike. Miami had a chance to close the score at the half when the Dolphins drove from their own 20-yard line but Sammie Smith was held out of the endzone on a first-and-goal from the one with just :03 seconds left in the half. The Dolphins tied the score at 13-13 in third quarter by scoring on their first two possessions. First, Miami narrowed the score to 13-6 when fullback Marc Logan scored the first offensive touchdown of his Dolphin career on an 11-yard run. Miami did not score on the extra point as holder Scott Secules bobbled the snap and his pass attempt to fullback Tony Paige was broken up by the Jets. The Dolphins tied the score later in the period when Dan Marino hit Duper on the run for a 69-yard score. It was Duper's first touchdown since October 8, 1989, when Marino and Duper combined for a 35-yard touchdown in a 13-10 overtime win over Cleveland in Joe Robbie Stadium. Leahy hit on his third field goal of the game – from 30 yards out – and the Jets took a 16-13 lead in the fourth quarter. However following the Jets' field goal, the Dolphins came right back in dramatic fashion by driving 80 yards in 14 plays – including converting four third downs – and took a 20-16 lead when Marino and Duper combined from 13 yards out for their second score of the game.

GAME 6

DOLPHINS 17, NEW ENGLAND 10
October 18, 1990

Joe Robbie Stadium
Miami, FL

The Miami Dolphins survived five turnovers (four lost fumbles and an interception) to defeat the New England Patriots 17-10 before a crowd of 62,630 at Joe Robbie Stadium. The win lifted Miami's record to 5-1 which is the team's best start since the 1984 season when the Dolphins opened with a 6-0 mark. Both team's offenses struggled in the contest as Miami (50 yards) and New England (49 yards) combined for a total of 99 yards on the ground, which is the fewest combined rushing yards in Dolphins history. The old record was 103 combined rushing yards between the Dolphins (50 yards) and New York Jets (53 yards) in the Jets' 27-9 win on December 14, 1969, in the Orange Bowl. In addition, the teams combined for nine fumbles (five by Miami and four by New England), four lost fumbles (all by Miami), an interception (by Miami) and allowed seven sacks (two by Miami and five by New England). Following a scoreless first quarter, New England took a 3-0 lead on a 41-yard field goal by Jason Staurovsky. The Dolphins rebounded to take a 10-3 halftime lead on the strength of their special teams. First, Miami tied the score on Pete Stoyanovich's 47-yard kick. The Dolphins increased their lead to 10-3 when running back Mark Higgs blocked Brian Hansen's punt and returned the ball 19 yards for a touchdown. It was Miami's first touchdown off a blocked punt since September 10, 1989, when Marc Logan recovered a blocked punt in the endzone against the Buffalo Bills. Miami increased its lead to 17-3 in the third quarter on a two-yard run by Sammie Smith. In the drive, Dan Marino completed three of four passes for 62 yards to lead the Dolphins 64 yards in seven plays for the score. The Patriots closed out the scoring in the final period on a four-yard pass from Marc Wilson to George Adams. Miami stopped a late Patriots drive when DE T.J. Turner and LB David Griggs combined to stop Wilson for no gain on a fourth-and-one quarterback sneak at the Dolphins' 35-yard line.

GAME 7

DOLPHINS 27, INDIANAPOLIS 7
October 28, 1990

Hoosier Dome
Indianapolis, IN

The Miami Dolphins used a powerful running game and a stingy defense and broke a two-year losing streak in the Hoosier Dome with a 27-7 triumph over the Indianapolis Colts before a crowd of 59,213. In the contest, the Dolphins' defense recorded four takeaways (three interceptions and a fumble recovery) and sacked Indianapolis quarterbacks a total of three times. The Dolphins dominated the Colts in every phase of the game, leading in total first downs 23-7, total plays 68-41, total net yards 356-132, rushing yards 206-31, net passing yards 150-101 and time of possession 41:05-18:55. The Colts' seven first downs and 132 total yards were the fewest allowed by Miami since September 2, 1979, when the Dolphins held the Buffalo Bills to five first downs and 121 total yards in a 9-7 win. In addition, Miami held the Colts to 31 yards on the ground which is the lowest total against Miami since November 16, 1980, when the Dolphins held the San Francisco 49ers to 29 rushing yards in a 17-13 win in the Orange Bowl. The Dolphins opened the scoring in the first quarter when Miami punter Reggie Roby's punt was downed on the Colts' one-yard line by safety Liffort Hobley. Two plays later, Dolphins linebacker (and former Colts player) Cliff Odom recovered a Jack Trudeau fumble in the endzone for a 7-0 lead. It was the first time the Dolphins scored on a fumble return since October 9, 1988, when Hobley rumbled 19 yards with a fumble return for a score. Miami extended their lead to 10-0 on a 34-yard field goal by Pete Stoyanovich. Indianapolis rebounded to score their only points of the afternoon when Colts cornerback Chris Goode raced 54 yards with a Tony Paige fumble for a touchdown. Miami closed out the first half scoring - and took a 17-7 halftime lead - when Dan Marino found Jim Jensen in the endzone with a five-yard scoring pass. The Dolphins extended their lead to 20-7 in the third period when kicker Stoyanovich booted a 53-yard kick - the second longest of his career behind only a 59-yard effort on November 12, 1989, at the New York Jets. Miami closed out the scoring in the fourth period on a two-yard run by fullback Tony Paige.

GAME 8

DOLPHINS 23, PHOENIX 3
November 4, 1990

Joe Robbie Stadium
Miami, FL

The Miami Dolphins improved to 7-1 with a 23-3 win over the Phoenix

Cardinals before a crowd of 54,924 at Joe Robbie Stadium. Miami's 7-1 record is the team's best eight-game start since the 1984 season when the team opened with an 8-0 mark. The win increased Miami's record to a perfect 6-0 vs. the Cardinals. In addition, the Dolphins have never lost to an NFC East team at home. Miami is a perfect 8-0 in home games with NFC East foes since the merger of the American and National Football Leagues in 1970. The Dolphins are 3-0 vs. Philadelphia, 2-0 vs. Dallas, 2-0 vs. Phoenix and 1-0 vs. Washington. Miami has never faced the New York Giants at home. The two teams were scheduled to play at Joe Robbie Stadium in 1987, but the game was cancelled due to the players' strike. The Dolphins held the Cardinals to just a field goal and have not allowed a touchdown in their last eight quarters. The last offensive touchdown scored against Miami came in the fourth quarter against the New England Patriots on a four-yard scoring pass from Marc Wilson to George Adams on October 18. Also, the Dolphins have gone 20 consecutive quarters without allowing a rushing touchdown. The last rushing touchdown against Miami came five games ago when the Giants' O.J. Anderson scored on a two-yard run in the fourth quarter on September 23. In the game, Miami jumped out to a 13-0 lead. The Dolphins opened the scoring on a 19-yard field goal by Pete Stoyanovich in the first quarter, before increasing their lead in the second period on a 17-yard touchdown pass from Dan Marino to fullback Tony Paige and a 21-yard field goal by Stoyanovich. Phoenix closed out the first half scoring on a 44-yard field goal by Al Del Greco. The Dolphins increased their lead to 20-3 in the third quarter by driving 69 yards in 11 plays and scoring when Marino and Mark Clayton combined for a seven-yard scoring pass. Miami closed out the scoring on a 19-yard field goal by Stoyanovich.

GAME 9

DOLPHINS 17, NEW YORK JETS 3
November 11, 1990

East Rutherford, NJ

The Miami Dolphins increased their record to 8-1 and won their sixth straight game with a 17-3 triumph over the New York Jets before a crowd of 68,362 at Giants Stadium. Miami's 8-1 record is the team's best nine-game opening streak since the 1984 season when the Dolphins started with a 9-0 mark. The team's six-game win streak is the team's longest since Miami won seven straight games during Weeks 10-16 of the 1985 season. The Dolphins defense held an opponent without an offensive touchdown for the third straight game and has not allowed a rushing touchdown for a team-record 24 straight quarters. The last opponent to score a rushing touchdown against Miami was the Giants' Otis Anderson on a four-yard run on September 23. The previous record for consecutive quarters without allowing a rushing score was 21 straight periods – a span of five straight games and a quarter – from the first quarter on Sept. 25, 1983, against Kansas City to the second period on October 30, 1983, against the L.A. Rams. In addition, the last time Miami went three consecutive games without allowing an offensive touchdown was Weeks 4-6 (October 7-October 21) of the 1973 season. Miami's defense dominated the contest by recording five sacks, two interceptions and two forced fumbles. The Dolphins led the Jets in time of possession 33:26-26:34, first downs 23-12, total net yards 320-154, total plays 71-53, rushing yards 128-88 and net passing yards 192-66. The Jets' 11 drives ended in six punts, two interceptions, twice on downs and a field goal. In the contest, the score was tied 3-3 at the half on a 23-yard field goal by Miami's Pete Stoyanovich in the first quarter and a 24-yarder by the Jets' Frank Leahy in the second period. Miami scored 14 unanswered points in the second half to put the game away. The Dolphins took a 10-3 lead early in the third period as Reggie Roby's 35-yard punt glanced off the Jets' James Hasty's leg and was recovered by Greg Baty on New York's six-yard line. One play later, Dan Marino connected from four yards out with fullback Tony Paige for a score. Miami closed the scoring in the fourth quarter on fullback Marc Logan's one-yard run.

GAME 10

L.A. RAIDERS 13, DOLPHINS 10

November 19, 1990

Joe Robbie Stadium

Miami, FL

The Los Angeles Raiders used a ground attack that amassed 177 yards and a defense which limited the Dolphins to just 14 rushing yards to earn a 13-10 triumph before a Joe Robbie Stadium record crowd of 70,553 and a national television audience on Monday Night Football. Miami's 14 yards on the ground were the fewest rushing yards in team history. The previous record for lowest rushing output in a contest was 23 yards which was accomplished on September 24, 1967, against Kansas City and on November 27, 1987, at Buffalo. The loss dropped Miami's record to 24-15 on Monday Night Football and upped the Raiders' league-best mark to 28-6-1. In addition, the Dolphins dropped to 0-4 against the Raiders on MNF. Following a scoreless first quarter, the Raiders opened the scoring on a 23-yard field goal by Jeff Jaeger. Los Angeles increased its lead to 10-0 later in the quarter when Marcus Allen ran two yards up the middle to cap an 18-play, 79-yard drive. That touchdown snapped Miami's team-record of 25 straight quarters without allowing a rushing score. It was also the first TD given up by the Dolphin defense over the past 13 quarters – the longest string the Dolphins defense had gone without allowing a score since the 1973 season. Miami finally got on the scoreboard with just :31 seconds left in the half when Dan Marino connected with Scott Schwedes for a 14-yard scoring pass to close the Dolphins to 10-7.

at halftime. The Raiders and Dolphins exchanged field goals in the second half as Jaeger connected from 43 yards in the third period and Pete Stoyanovich booted a 26-yarder in the final quarter

DOLPHINS 30, CLEVELAND 13
November 25, 1990

Cleveland Stadium
Cleveland, OH

The Miami Dolphins improved to 9-2 and clinched their first winning season since 1987 with a 30-13 triumph over the Cleveland Browns before a crowd of 70,225 at Cleveland Stadium. Miami's last winning season was 1987 when the Dolphins finished the strike shortened year with an 8-7 mark. In addition, the Dolphins' nine victories are the most by the team in a season since 1985 when Miami was 12-4 and AFC East champions. It was Miami's first win over the Browns in Cleveland Stadium since October 15, 1973, when Miami earned a 17-9 triumph. In the contest, Dan Marino joined only ten other quarterbacks who have passed for over 30,000 yards in their NFL careers. In fact, Marino reached that plateau faster than any quarterback in NFL history; Dan Fouts, the former record-holder, reached the 30,000-yard mark in the 131st game of his career, while Marino went over 30,000 yards in just his 114th career game. The Dolphins dominated the first half and jumped out to a 27-3 lead at intermission. Marino got the Miami offense going as he threw a pair of touchdown strikes in the first quarter to build a 14-0 lead. First, Marino combined with Mark Duper on a five-yard scoring pass before he hit a streaking James Pruitt on the run for a 35-yard hook-up. Miami increased its lead to 20-0 in the second quarter when Sammie Smith ran four yards for a touchdown. The snap on the extra point attempt was high and no kick was attempted. The Dolphins scored again to lead 27-0 when cornerback Kerry Glenn returned a Bernie Kosar interception 31 yards for a touchdown. It was Glenn's second interception return for a touchdown in his career with the other coming on a 15-yard return on September 15, 1985, against the Buffalo Bills when Glenn played with the New York Jets. In addition, it was the first time a Dolphin defender had returned an INT for a score since William Judson returned a ball for 61 yards and a score on September 8, 1985, at the Houston Oilers. Cleveland closed out the first half scoring on a 36-yard field goal by Jerry Kauric. Miami's 27 first half points were the most scored by the team in an initial half since December 7, 1987, when the Dolphins opened with a 27-point first half enroute to a 37-28 win over the New York Jets. The Dolphins and Browns exchanged third quarter field goals as Kauric hit from 42 yards and Pete Stoyanovich booted a 40-yarder. Cleveland closed out the scoring in the final period on a two-yard run by fullback Kevin Mack.

GAME 12

WASHINGTON 42, DOLPHINS 20
December 2, 1990

RFK Stadium
Washington, D.C.

Washington running back Earnest Byner rushed 32 times for 157 yards and three touchdowns as the Redskins earned a 42-20 win over the Miami Dolphins before a crowd of 53,599 at RFK Stadium. Byner became the first runner to gain over 100 yards against the Dolphin defense in 1990. Washington dominated every facet of the game and led in total first downs 29-13, total net yards 467-252, total offensive plays 75-49, rushing yards 222-34, net passing yards 245-218 and time of possession 40:09-19:51. The Redskins controlled the first half and jumped out to a 21-3 lead at halftime. Following Washington cornerback Martin Mayhew's interception of a Dan Marino aerial on the Skins' 39-yard line, Washington opened the scoring in the first quarter on two-yard run by Byner. The Redskins increased their lead to 14-0 when QB Mark Rypien hit Art Monk in the endzone. Monk's touchdown reception ended a streak of 21 straight quarters by the Dolphins defense without allowing a touchdown pass. The last touchdown pass allowed by Miami came in the fourth quarter on October 18 against the New England Patriots when Marc Wilson combined with George Adams for a four-yard score. Washington scored again to lead 21-0 when Byner carried seven yards into the endzone for a touchdown. The Dolphins closed out the first half scoring on a 21-yard field goal by Pete Stoyanovich to make the score 21-3. The last time Miami trailed by 18 or more points at halftime came on October 29, 1989, when Buffalo led the Dolphins by a 21-3 score. Miami opened up the second half scoring on a 44-yard field goal by Stoyanovich. Washington answered the field goal with two touchdowns as Rypien connected with TE Jimmy Johnson for a three-yard score and Byner rushed from 13 yards for his third TD of the game to lead 35-6 at the end of the third period. The Dolphins closed the score to 35-20 early in the final quarter as Miami scored twice within 19 seconds. First, Marino hit James Pruitt for 24 yards and a TD. Then, on the first play of Washington's next series, Jarvis Williams intercepted a Rypien pass and raced 42 yards into the endzone for a touchdown. Washington closed out the scoring when Rypien threw seven yards for a score to Monk.

GAME 13

DOLPHINS 23, PHILADELPHIA 20 (OT)
December 9, 1990

Joe Robbie Stadium
Miami, FL

Dan Marino threw for 365 yards and two touchdowns as the Dolphins raised their record to 10-3 and clinched their first playoff berth since 1985 with a 23-20 overtime win against the Philadelphia Eagles before a crowd of 67,034 at Joe Robbie Stadium. The win raised Miami's record to 6-10-1 in overtime games, including a 3-4-1 record at home. The Dolphins' last overtime contest came on October 8, 1989, when Miami earned a 13-10 triumph over the Cleveland Brown at Joe Robbie Stadium. The Dolphins are now 10-0 in home games with NFC East foes since the 1970 merger of the American and National Football Leagues. In addition, since the 1970 merger, the Dolphins own the best inter-conference record in the NFL with a 55-13 (.810) mark. In fact, Miami owns a perfect 6-0 record against NFC opponents in games played in Joe Robbie Stadium. In JRS, the Dolphins have defeated the Redskins (23-21 on Dec. 20, 1987), Packers (24-14 on Sept. 18, 1988), Vikings (24-7 on Oct. 2, 1988), Packers (23-20 on Oct. 22, 1989), Cardinals (23-3 on Nov. 4, 1990) and Eagles (23-20 on Dec. 9, 1990). In the contest, the Dolphins jumped out to a 10-0 first quarter lead on Marino's 28-yard scoring strike to Tony Martin and Pete Stoyanovich's 24-yard field goal. However, the Eagles responded with ten points in the second quarter to tie the game at the half. Philadelphia scored its second quarter points on a three-yard pass from Randall Cunningham to Keith Byars and Roger Ruzek's 53-yard field goal with just :08 seconds left in the half. The Eagles scored the only points of the third period on Ruzek's 33-yard FG. In the fourth quarter, Philadelphia increased its lead to 20-10 on Cunningham's flea-flicker 45-yard touchdown pass to Calvin Williams. However, Marino led the Dolphins back by driving 49 yards in eight plays before connecting with Mark Duper on a six-yard touchdown pass. On their next possession, following an Eagles' punt, Miami started out on its own 12-yard line with just 1:41 left in regulation. Marino hit on four of seven passes for 49 yards - the key play being a 12-yard completion to Duper on a fourth-and-ten play with :50 seconds left in regulation on the 50-yard line - to lead the Dolphins to Philadelphia's 17-yard line before Stoyanovich sent the game into overtime with a 34-yarder. In the overtime period, the two teams traded punts until Miami drove 35 yards in six plays before Stoyanovich's 39-yard field goal won the game for Miami with 2:28 left in overtime.

GAME 14

DOLPHINS 24, SEATTLE 17
December 16, 1990

Joe Robbie Stadium
Miami, FL

The Miami Dolphins improved their record to 11-3 with a 24-17 win over the Seattle Seahawks before a crowd of 57,851 at Joe Robbie Stadium. In the contest, Dolphins quarterback Dan Marino went over the 3,000-yard passing mark for the season. Marino and San Francisco's Joe Montana, who accomplished the feat earlier this year, are the only NFL quarterbacks who have passed for over 3,000 yards in a season seven times. Marino and Montana came into this season with six seasons of 3,000 or more yards passing which was tied for the league record with former San Diego quarterback Dan Fouts. However, Marino is the only quarterback to throw for 3,000-plus yards in seven consecutive seasons. In the contest, Seattle wide receiver Tommy Kane caught ten passes for 162 yards and became the first receiver to record a 100-yard effort against Miami this season. His receiving totals were the best against the Dolphins since Jets WR Al Toon registered 14 receptions for 181 yards on November 27, 1988. The teams exchanged field goals in the first quarter as Norm Johnson gave Seattle a 3-0 lead with a 24-yard field goal, before Pete Stoyanovich tied the score with a 32-yarder. The Seahawks took a 10-3 lead early in the second period as Miami running back Troy Stradford fumbled a punt return on the two-yard line and the ball was recovered by Melvin Jenkins. On the next play, Derrick Fenner rushed two yards for the touchdown. Miami answered the score when the Seahawks' Chris Warren also fumbled a punt return and Stevon Moore recovered for Miami on the nine-yard line. Three plays later, Marino hit James Pruitt with a four-yard touchdown pass to tie the score at 10-10. Miami took a 17-10 halftime lead when Troy Stradford ran six yards for score. The key play in the drive was a 44-yard pass from Marino to Tony Martin. The Dolphins increased their lead to 24-10 late in the third quarter as Marino hit tight end Ferrell Edmunds for an 11-yard touchdown on a fourth-and-one play. Marino keyed the 13-play, 80-yard drive as he hit on five of seven pass attempts for 64 yards. Seattle closed the scoring late in the final period as Dave Krieg hit David Chadwick in the back of the endzone for a 11-yard touchdown. Following the touchdown, the Seahawks attempted an on-side kick, however the ball was recovered by Miami's Paul Lankford.

GAME 15

BUFFALO 24, DOLPHINS 14
December 23, 1990

Rich Stadium
Orchard Park, NY

Buffalo running back Thurman Thomas rushed for 154 yards and a touchdown to lead the Bills to a 24-14 win over the Miami Dolphins before a crowd of 80,235 at Rich Stadium. The loss dropped Miami's record to 11-4 and clinched the AFC East championship for the Bills (13-2). In the contest, Dan Marino threw for his 20th touchdown pass of the season which extended his NFL record to eight consecutive seasons with 20 or more TD passes. In addition, his career total of eight seasons with 20 or more touchdown passes tied Johnny Unitas' NFL record. Marino came into the contest tied for second with seven seasons of 20-plus touchdown pass seasons with Fran Tarkenton, John Hadl and Sonny Jurgensen. Also, Marino threw his 240th career touchdown pass which moved him into sole possession of seventh place on the NFL's all-time career touchdown list as he passed Len Dawson (239 TDs). In the contest, following a scoreless first quarter, the Bills scored the only points of the first half on a 13-play, 80-yard drive which was capped off with a seven-yard touchdown pass from Frank Reich to James Lofton. Miami kick returner Marc Logan opened the second half by fumbling the kickoff at the Dolphins' 32-yard line and Carleton Bailey recovered for the Bills. From the 32-yard marker, Thomas rushed five times for 22 yards and Reich threw his second TD pass of the game with an 11-yarder to Andre Reed to give Buffalo a 14-0 lead. However, the Dolphins came back on their next possession when Logan returned the kickoff 35 yards to the Bills' 35-yard line. Two plays later, Miami closed the score to 14-7 when Marino hit Mark Duper with a 30-yard touchdown pass. Buffalo closed out the third quarter scoring on a 21-yard field goal by Scott Norwood. The Bills increased their lead to 24-7 early in the final period when Thomas rushed 13 yards for a touchdown. Miami closed out the scoring with just 1:09 left in the contest when Marino hit Mark Clayton with an 11-yard scoring strike. The Dolphins' onside kick attempt was recovered by Buffalo's Steve Tasker and the Bills ran out the clock. Marino completed 24 of 43 pass attempts for 287 yards with two TDs and an interception. Clayton led the Dolphins' receivers with eight catches for 108 yards and a score, while Jim Jensen finished second with six catches for 42 yards.

GAME 16DOLPHINS 23, INDIANAPOLIS 17
December 30, 1990Joe Robbie Stadium
Miami, FL

The Miami Dolphins closed the regular season with a 12-4 record and clinched a home playoff contest with a 23-17 win over the Indianapolis Colts before a crowd of 59,547 at Joe Robbie Stadium. Running back Sammie Smith led the Dolphins' offense with 29 carries for 108 yards and a touchdown and added one reception for a 53-yard score. Smith's career-high 29 rushing attempts tied for fourth on the team's single-game rushing attempt list with Larry Csonka (12/23/73 against the Oakland Raiders). His 53-yard touchdown catch from Dan Marino was his longest career pass reception and the first receiving touchdown of his career. Dolphins safety Jarvis Williams recorded two interceptions in the contest. It was the second time this season and the fourth time in his three-year NFL career that Williams has recorded two INTs in a single contest. Ironically, three of his four career games with two INTs have come against the Colts as he also registered a pair of interceptions on October 28, 1990, at Indianapolis and on November 5, 1989, at Joe Robbie Stadium. Williams' other career two INT game came on October 9, 1988, at the Los Angeles Raiders. The Colts jumped out to a 7-0 lead on their first possession as rookie quarterback Jeff George threw a 15-yard scoring toss to running back Albert Bentley. The Dolphins answered quickly on their next possession with a four-play, 80-yard drive with the score coming on a 53-yard catch-and-run from Marino to Smith. Miami took a 14-7 lead early in the second period when, following a Jarvis Williams interception, Smith scored his second touchdown of the game on a one-yard run. However, the Colts came right back to tie the score as George connected with WR Jessie Hester for a 64-yard touchdown reception - the longest passing play against Miami in 1990. Following a Miami punt by Reggie Roby which was downed by the Dolphins' Kerry Glenn at the Colts' three-yard line, Miami took a 16-14 lead as the team scored on a safety when George was called for intentional grounding in the endzone. It was the Dolphins' first safety since November 5, 1989, when Colts center Ray Donaldson fired a snap out of the endzone at Indianapolis. Following a scoreless third quarter, the Dolphins took a 23-14 lead as Miami defensive end Jeff Cross sacked George and forced a fumble which was picked up by fellow defensive end Brian Sochia and returned 13 yards for a touchdown. It was Sochia's first career touchdown and the Dolphins' second fumble return for a score in '90 with the other also coming against the Colts on October 28, when former Colts linebacker Cliff Odom scored from one-yard out. Indianapolis scored the final points of the game on a 55-yard field goal by Dean Biasucci. The Colts had a chance to win the game as George's "Hail Mary" pass attempt into the endzone with one second left was batted down by Miami cornerback Tim McKyer.

THE ORANGE BOWL

The 1986 season marked the end of an era for the Miami Dolphins as the team played its final season in the Orange Bowl. In 21 years, the Dolphins posted a 110-38-3 (.738) regular-season record.

In the playoffs, Miami was 10-4 at the 75,206-seat Orange Bowl, giving the team a 120-43-3 (.736) mark at the OB in all games.

Miami played in the Orange Bowl from the team's initial season in 1966 through the 1986 campaign. From 1966 to 1969, the Orange Bowl had a grass playing field. The playing surface was changed to Poly-Turf in 1970, was replaced in 1972 and finally removed in March, 1976, so that Prescription Athletic Turf could be installed.

The Orange Bowl has been the site of many great sporting events, including five Super Bowls, the annual Orange Bowl Classic and championship boxing matches.

DOLPHINS 12-0 VS. 2 CLUBS

The Miami Dolphins have built a perfect 12-0 regular-season record against two clubs in the National Football League through the 1990 season.

Those teams which never have beaten Miami are Green Bay (0-6), and Phoenix (0-6). The Dolphins face the Packers during the 1991 season.

Eleven other NFL teams have beaten Miami only once in the regular season. Those teams are Atlanta (1-4), Chicago (1-4), Dallas (1-5), Detroit (1-2), L.A. Rams (1-4), Minnesota (1-4), New Orleans (1-4), New York Giants (1-1), San Francisco (1-4), Seattle (1-3), and Tampa Bay (1-3). The Dolphins are scheduled to play the Bears, Lions and Buccaneers in 1991.

Miami set an NFL record with 20 consecutive wins over Buffalo from 1970 through 1979.

DOLPHIN FACT

Ferrell Edmunds is the only Dolphin tight end to be selected to play in the NFL's annual Pro Bowl contest as he was selected following the 1989 and '90 seasons. In the '89 contest, he joined Hall of Fame wide receiver Paul Warfield as the only Dolphin players to have scored a touchdown in the all-star game. Edmunds caught a five-yard scoring toss from Dave Krieg (Seattle), while Warfield was on the receiving end of a 32-yard TD pass from Dolphin teammate Bob Griese on Jan. 20, 1975.

PRESEASON GAME 1

CHICAGO 10, DOLPHINS 6
August 11, 1990

Soldier Field
Chicago, IL

Chicago Bears running back Neal Anderson scored on a 68-yard catch and run play just before halftime to lead the Chicago Bears to a 10-6 win over the Miami Dolphins at Soldier Field before a crowd of 56,449. The Dolphins dropped their team-record sixth straight preseason game with the loss. Miami lost its last preseason game in 1988, all four of its preseason contests in 1989 and its '90 preseason opener at Chicago. The old team record for consecutive preseason defeats was five, established in 1969 when Miami lost its first five preseason games of the season before earning a 13-0 win in the preseason finale over the Boston Patriots in Birmingham, Ala. Following a scoreless opening period, Dolphins quarterback Dan Marino was intercepted by Chicago CB Maurice Douglass who returned the ball 60 yards to Miami's nine-yard line. However, the Dolphin defense held the Bears out of the endzone and Chicago had to settle for a 26-yard field goal by Kevin Butler. Miami stormed right back to take a 6-3 lead on their next possession when Marino threw a 13-yard TD strike to Mark Duper. Pete Stoyanovich's extra point attempt hit the post. The Bears responded with the final points of the game when Anderson took a short screen pass from Bears back-up quarterback Jim Harbaugh and raced 68 yards into the endzone with just :22 seconds left in the half.

PRESEASON GAME 2

PHILADELPHIA 23, DOLPHINS 14
August 18, 1990

Veterans Stadium
Philadelphia, PA

The Dolphins dropped their team-record seventh straight preseason game with a 23-14 loss to the Philadelphia Eagles before a crowd of 52,404 at Veterans Stadium. The Eagles dominated Miami in every phase of the game, leading in first downs 26-11, total net yards 363-241, total offensive plays 77-34, yards rushing 138-45, yards passing 225-196 and time of possession 41:44-18:16. The Eagles took a 7-0 lead in the first quarter as Philadelphia punter Jeff Feagles, holding on a field goal attempt, threw a 12-yard touchdown pass to Calvin Williams. Philadelphia extended its lead to 14-0 in the second quarter by marching 90 yards in 20 plays in a drive that lasted 11:56 and scored as RB Robert Drummond dove over on a fourth-and-goal from Miami's one-yard line. Later in the period, the Dolphins closed the score to 14-7 when Scott Secules, who started at QB for Miami in place of the rested Dan Marino, hit WR Mark Duper on the run for a 70-yard catch-and-run. Following a scoreless third quarter, Philadelphia extended its lead to 20-7 as reserve quarterback Jim McMahon hit Greg Werner with a five-yard TD pass. Eagles kicker Roger Ruzek missed the extra point. Miami came right back and reduced its deficit to six points (20-14) as rookie QB Scott Mitchell threw a three-yard scoring pass to former Eagles RB Mark Higgs. However, the Eagles scored the final points of the evening on a 40-yard field goal by Ruzek with just :01 remaining to bring the final score to 23-14.

PRESEASON GAME 3

DOLPHINS 17, DENVER 16
August 25, 1990

Joe Robbie Stadium
Miami, FL

The Dolphins snapped a team-record seven-game preseason losing streak by defeating the Denver Broncos, 17-16, before a crowd of 44,897 at Joe Robbie Stadium. Ironically, Miami's last preseason victory also came against Denver with a 16-13 overtime win on August 19, 1988. Following that win, Miami lost its last preseason game in 1988, all four of its preseason contests in 1989 and its first two preseason games in '90. The old team record for consecutive preseason defeats was five, established in 1969 when Miami lost its first five preseason games of the season before earning a 13-0 win in the preseason finale over the Boston Patriots in Birmingham, Ala. In the contest, the Broncos took a 6-0 lead in the first quarter on a pair of David Treadwell field goals from 20 and 24 yards out. However, Miami took a 10-6 lead in the second quarter on a three-yard run by Sammie Smith and a 43-yard field goal by Pete Stoyanovich. Denver took a 13-10 lead in the third quarter on a two-yard scoring hook-up from John Elway to Paul Green and extended their lead to 16-10 midway through the fourth period on a 44-yard field goal by Treadwell. Following Denver's field goal, Miami's reserve quarterback Scott Secules (three of six for 45 yards) led the Dolphins on a seven-play, 79-yard drive which was capped-off when Marc Logan plunged in from one-yard out with 1:54 left in the game to give Miami a 17-16 lead. The Dolphins stopped a late comeback attempt by the Broncos when cornerback Tim McKyer intercepted a fourth down pass on Miami's 31-yard line to preserve the win with just :51 seconds left in the game.

PRESEASON GAME 4

MINNESOTA 20, DOLPHINS 17
August 31, 1990

Joe Robbie Stadium
Miami, FL

The Dolphins closed out a 1-3 preseason with a 20-17 loss to the Minnesota Vikings before a crowd of 44,689 at Joe Robbie Stadium. With the loss, Miami dropped its ninth straight preseason game to an NFC opponent. The Dolphins' last preseason win against an NFC foe was a 27-21 win over San Francisco on July 31, 1988, in London's Wembley Stadium in American Bowl '88. The Dolphins opened the scoring early in the first period when, following a 55-yard interception return by Tim McKyer to the Vikings' one-yard line, Marc Logan plunged in for the score. Minnesota came back to take a 14-7 lead at the half on a pair of Wade Wilson touchdown passes to Herschel Walker (eight yards) and Leo Lewis (12 yards). Following a scoreless third quarter, Miami DE Karl Wilson sacked Vikings reserve quarterback Rich Gannon to force a fumble (recovered by T.J. Turner) and set up a 39-yard field goal by Pete Stoyanovich to close the score to 14-10. The Vikings rebounded and increased their lead to 20-10 when Cedric Smith scored on a one-yard run. Dolphins LB Eric Kumerow blocked the extra point attempt. Miami scored the game's final points when reserve quarterback Scott Mitchell (7-8-117-1-0) threw a 33-yard TD pass to Fred Banks with :58 seconds left in the game. Stoyanovich's onside kick attempt was recovered by Minnesota's Andy Schillinger and the Vikings ran out the clock.

DOLPHIN FACT

The Miami Dolphins finished the 1990 season ranked tied for third in the NFL in allowing the fewest defensive superlative games, that is, games in which a defense does not allow a 100-yard rusher, 300-yard passer or 100-yard receiver. Miami, which allowed only four defensive superlatives in '90, improved from the 1989 season which saw the club give up ten defensive superlatives and rank tied for tenth in the NFL.

DOLPHIN FACT

Since the 1970 merger of the National and American Football Leagues, Miami is the only NFL team to twice open up a season with 10 or more consecutive wins. The Dolphins did it in 1972 (14 wins) and 1984 (11 wins), while four other teams have accomplished a 10 or more game season opening winning streak on one occasion — Minnesota in 1975 (10 wins), Chicago in 1985 (13 wins), N.Y. Giants in 1990 (10 wins) and San Francisco in 1990 (10 wins).

DOLPHIN FACT

The Miami Dolphins have not lost a regular season game to an NFC opponent at home since the team moved into Joe Robbie Stadium in 1987. Over that time, the Dolphins have accumulated a 6-0 record at home against the NFC which includes wins over Washington (23-21) in 1987; Green Bay (24-14) and Minnesota (24-7) in 1988; Green Bay (23-20) in 1989; and Phoenix (23-3) and Philadelphia (23-20 in OT) in 1990. The Dolphins play two NFC teams at home in 1991: Green Bay and Tampa Bay.

DOLPHIN FACT

The Dolphins are 12-11 in games played in a domed stadium - 5-2 against Indianapolis (Hoosier Dome), 5-6 against Houston (Astrodome), 1-1 against Detroit (Silverdome), 1-1 against New Orleans (Superdome) and 0-1 against Seattle (Kingdome). Miami has never played a regular-season or playoff game at Minnesota's Metrodome. The Dolphins are scheduled to play in the Hoosier Dome and Silverdome in 1991.

HISTORICAL HIGHLIGHTS

- March 3 - Minneapolis lawyer Joseph Robbie meets AFL Commissioner Joe Foss in Washington, and Foss advises Robbie to apply for an expansion franchise in Miami.
- May 6 - Joseph Robbie meets Miami Mayor Robert King High to ascertain the availability of the Orange Bowl stadium, and the mayor agrees to invite the AFL to Miami.
- June 7 - AFL Executive Committee votes to expand in 1966 at a meeting in Monmouth Park, N.J.
- Aug. 16 - AFL awards its first expansion franchise to Joseph Robbie and television star Danny Thomas for $7.5 million.
- Nov. 27 - Miami picks Kentucky QB Rick Norton and Illinois RB Jim Grabowski in first round of AFL's college draft. Tulsa WR Howard Twilley is selected in 12th round.
- Dec. 16 - Miami Dolphins, Ltd. organizes as a Florida limited partnership. Joseph Robbie becomes Managing General Partner and Danny Thomas Sports, Inc., becomes the other general partner.

- Jan. 15 - Miami picks 31 players from eight teams in AFL expansion draft. One of the draftees, T Norm Evans of Houston, would play 10 seasons at right tackle.
- Jan. 29 - George Wilson becomes first head coach after eight years coaching the Detroit Lions (57-46-6 and NFL champions in 1957) and one year as a Washington assistant.
- June 8 - AFL merges into NFL with Pete Rozelle as commissioner. An AFL-NFL championship game is scheduled for the next January followed by a common draft.
- July 5 - Dolphins open first training camp at St. Petersburg Beach as 83 players report.
- Aug. 7 - Training camp moves to St. Andrews School in Boca Raton, Fla.
- Sept. 2 - Joe Auer returns opening kickoff 95 yards for Dolphin TD in first regular-season game, but Oakland wins, 23-14, at Orange Bowl before 26,776 spectators.
- Oct. 16 - Dolphins end string of nine losses (four in pre-season) by defeating Denver, 24-7, with a George Wilson, Jr. screen pass to Billy Joe turning into a 67-yard TD. Only 23,393 spectators were at Orange Bowl.
- Dec. 18 - QB John Stofa passes for four TDs, capped by 14-yard strike to Joe Auer with 38 seconds remaining, for 29-28 victory over Houston at Orange Bowl before 20,045 spectators.

- March 14 - Miami picks Purdue QB Bob Griese in first round of common draft. Griese is the fourth player selected.
- June 1 - Joseph Robbie and W. H. Keland purchase the interest of Danny Thomas and agree to equalize present holdings in Miami Dolphins, Ltd., whenever either acquires outside holdings.

Chuck Studley is re-assigned as Linebacker Coach, with prime responsibility of run defense. Linebacker Coach Bob Matheson resigns.
- Jan. 27 – Former Dolphin greats Larry Csonka and Jim Langer are among a group of seven named to the Pro Football Hall of Fame. They join Paul Warfield as the only members of the proud franchise to earn the honor, with induction scheduled for August 8.
- Aug. 16 – The Dolphins play host to the Chicago Bears in the first game ever played in Joe Robbie Stadium. The date marks the 22nd anniversary of the Dolphin franchise. The Bears put a damper on the festive evening with a 10-3 preseason victory before 63,451. QB Dan Marino (dislocated ring finger on right hand) and LB John Offerdahl (torn right bicep) suffer injuries. Marino is out for three weeks; Offerdahl will miss the first six regular-season games.
- Sept. 22 – NFL Players Association goes on strike; the Dolphins' home contest with New York Giants (first regular-season game in Joe Robbie Stadium) on September 27 is cancelled because of strike.
- Oct. 4 – The Dolphins' "replacement" team takes the field for the first time, traveling to Seattle to meet the Seahawks. The Dolphins lose, 24-20.

- Oct. 11 – Miami's replacement team records a 42-0 shutout victory over the Kansas City Chiefs in the first regular-season game played in Joe Robbie Stadium. Safety Liffort Hobley (two interceptions, 55-yard fumble recovery for a TD, four tackles, two passes defended) is named AFC defensive player of the week for his efforts. Don Shula and Joe Robbie are given game balls by the replacement team following the contest in honor of Miami's first win in the new stadium. The next week (October 18), the replacement team loses its last game, 37-31 in overtime, to the N.Y. Jets at the Meadowlands.
- Oct. 25 – After four missed weeks of action (one game cancellation, three replacement games), the regular Dolphin players return to action. Miami loses 34-31 in overtime at home to the Buffalo Bills. The 21-point comeback by Buffalo is the best ever by an opponent against a Dolphins team.
- Nov. 1 – Don Shula wins his 250th regular-season game as the Dolphins defeat Pittsburgh 35-24 at Joe Robbie Stadium.
- Nov. 29 – The Dolphins suffer their first shutout loss (27-0 at Buffalo) since December 12, 1982 – the famous snowplow game at New England (3-0). The game also sees the end of Dan Marino's streak of 30 straight games with at least one touchdown pass. His string is second all-time to Johnny Unitas' 47.
- Dec. 20 – Miami picks up its final win of 1987 with a 23-21 victory over Washington at Joe Robbie Stadium. The Dolphins lose the following week (December 28) in the '87 finale to New England, 24-10, at home. The Redskins, meanwhile, go on to win Super Bowl XXII, 42-10 over Denver.
- Dec. 30 – RB Troy Stradford is named NFL Offensive Rookie of the Year by the Associated Press.

- Jan. 14 – It is announced that former Dolphins QB Bob Griese is among a group of 15 finalists under consideration for the 1988 class of enshrinees in the Pro Football Hall of Fame in Canton, Ohio.
- Feb. 29 – Former Dolphin Larry Seiple is named receivers coach. Seiple, who had been out of pro coaching for a year, had been receivers coach at Detroit (1980-84) and Tampa Bay (1985-86).
- July 11 – Training camp opens for the Dolphins at St. Thomas University as Head Coach Don Shula welcomes 109 players – the largest group of players in Shula's tenure as Dolphin head coach.
- July 31 – The Dolphins make their first ever trip abroad and take on the San Francisco 49ers at Wembley Stadium in London for the third-annual American Bowl. Miami comes from behind to defeat the 49ers, 27-21, before 70,535 British fans to open the pre-season.
- Sept. 18 – Miami registers its first win of the season in a 24-17 triumph over the Green Bay Packers. It marks Miami's 18th win in 23 home openers, including 13 straight years, and a 17-2 record under Don Shula. Dan Marino goes over the 20,000-yard mark in career passing yardage and becomes only the 45th quarterback in NFL history to do so.
- Oct. 9 – The Dolphins reverse history by defeating the Raiders, 24-17, at the Los Angeles Memorial Coliseum. It marks Miami's first win ever against the Raiders in their home stadium and the Dolphins' first victory over the Raiders in 10 years. The game is played in 96 degree heat - the warmest game in Dolphins' history.
- Oct. 16 – Miami wins its third consecutive game this season as the Dolphins defeat the San Diego Chargers, 31-28. Quarterback Dan Marino throws for 329 yards and moves into sole possession of second-place on the NFL's career 300-yard passing games list with his 27th such game (behind only Dan Fouts with 51).
- Oct. 23 – Dan Marino records the second-best single-game passing yardage total in NFL history – 521 yards (Norm Van Brocklin holds the single-game record of 554 yards) and completes 35 of a team record 60 attempts, all to no avail as the N.Y. Jets defeat the Dolphins 44-30 at Joe Robbie Stadium.
- Oct. 30 – Shula Bowl III – Head Coach Don Shula and his assistant head coach and son, David Shula, are on the opposite side of the field of Mike Shula, a coaches' assistant for Tampa Bay, as the Dolphins defeat the Bucs, 17-14, in Tampa Stadium.

- Dec. 12 - Dan Marino becomes the first quarterback in NFL history to pass for over 4,000 yards four times in a career in the Dolphins' 37-31 win over Cleveland. He also throws for his 193rd career touchdown, setting a new Dolphin record and surpassing the total of former quarterback Bob Griese, who had previously held the mark. Marino tops the record that took Griese 14 seasons to accomplish in only six-plus seasons. Also, receiver Mark Clayton surpasses Nat Moore in the record books as he catches a pass in his 37th consecutive game.

- Jan. 22 - Joe Robbie Stadium hosts Super Bowl XXIII only two-and-a-half years after its initial opening. San Francisco comes back in the final minutes of the game to defeat the Cincinnati Bengals, 20-16. The game marks the first time since Super Bowl XIII (January 21, 1979) that the NFL's championship game is played in Miami.
- Jan. 23 - Dolphin Linebackers Coach Chuck Studley resigns after five seasons with Miami.
- Jan. 25 - Former Miami Hurricanes defensive coordinator Dave Wannstedt joins the Dolphins coaching staff as linebackers coach.
- Feb. 27 - David Shula, the Dolphins' assistant head coach and passing game coordinator, and Dave Wannstedt, the team's linebackers coach, resign their position to accept new posts with the Dallas Cowboys.
- March 1 - George Hill is named the new linebackers coach for the Dolphins, while John Sandusky, the Dolphins' offensive line coach, is promoted to assistant head coach.
- March 6 - Gary Stevens, formerly of the University of Miami, is named quarterbacks/pass offense coach for the Dolphins.
- May 15 - Chuck Connor, the Dolphins director of player personnel for 11 seasons, announces his resignation to join the Atlanta Falcons as director of pro scouting.
- June 12 - Tom Heckert, formerly a college scout with the Tampa Bay Buccaneers and Cleveland Browns, is named Miami's Director of College Scouting.
- Sept. 10 - Jim Kelly scores on a two-yard run on the game's last play to give the Buffalo Bills a 27-24 win over the Dolphins. The loss dropped Miami's record in season openers to 10-13-1 and in home openers to 18-5-1 and it also snapped a 13-game winning streak in home openers, which had been the NFL's longest active home opener winning streak.
- Sept. 17 - In Miami's 24-10 win at New England, Dan Marino throws his 200th career touchdown pass, becoming the 13th player in NFL history to throw for 200 TDs. It was just his 89th career game, and he reaches the 200 touchdown pass mark faster than any quarterback in NFL history.
- Oct. 8 - In Miami's 13-10 overtime win vs. Cleveland, Dan Marino goes over 25,000 yards passing in his career, becoming the 25th player in NFL history to reach the 25,000 yards passing milestone. Marino also breaks Bob Griese's Dolphin team record of 25,092 career passing yards.
- Nov. 5 - Sammie Smith rushes for 123 yards in Miami's 19-13 win over the Indianapolis Colts, the third best single game rushing total ever by a Dolphin rookie. It also breaks a 27-game streak in which the Dolphins did not have a running back gain 100 or more yards.
- Nov. 12 - Pete Stoyanovich kicks a team-record 59-yard field goal in a 31-23 victory over the New York Jets, a kick that also tied the third longest field goal in NFL history.
- Nov. 19 - Miami defeats Dallas 17-14 in Shula Bowl IV, as Don Shula extends his record to 4-0 in Shula vs. Shula contests. This time Shula was opposed by son Dave, the Assistant Head Coach of the Cowboys. The win also was the Dolphins' sixth win in their last seven games and moved them into a first-place tie with the Buffalo Bills atop the AFC East.
- Dec. 3 - Dan Marino goes over 3,000 yards passing for the year in Miami's 26-21 loss at Kansas City. It was his sixth season passing for 3,000 yards and he ties Dan Fouts' NFL record of six 3,000 yard seasons.

- Dec. 24 – The Dolphins are eliminated from playoff contention with a 27-24 loss to the Kansas City Chiefs in the season finale at Joe Robbie Stadium. The game is played in 40 degree weather, the coldest home game in the history of the Dolphins.

- Jan. 7 – Joseph Robbie, founder and owner of the Dolphins and the driving force behind the construction of Joe Robbie Stadium, dies of respiratory failure at age 73.
- Jan. 12 – The Miami Dolphins and Robbie Stadium Corporation undergo an organization realignment to ensure continued administration of both entities by the Robbie family. Tim Robbie becomes President of the Dolphins, Dan and Janet Robbie are named Executive Vice Presidents of the team, while Eddie Jones is named Executive Vice President and General Manager of the club. In addition, J. Michael Robbie is named Executive Vice President of Robbie Stadium Corporation.
- Jan. 19 – Dolphin President Tim Robbie announces that the Dolphins have signed Don Shula to a three-year contract to remain as head coach.
- Jan. 27 – Former Dolphin great Bob Griese is among a group of seven named to the Pro Football Hall of Fame. The Dolphin quarterback becomes the fourth player in Miami history to earn the honor with induction scheduled for August 4.
- Feb. 7 – Monte Clark, former San Francisco and Detroit Head Coach and Dolphin Assistant Coach, is named Miami's Director of Pro Personnel, while Charley Winner is given expanded duties and is named the club's Director of Player Personnel.
- March 7 – H. Wayne Huizenga, Chairman of the Board and Chief Executive Officer of Blockbuster Video, purchases fifty percent of the Robbie Stadium Corporation (the parent company of Joe Robbie Stadium) as well as a fifteen percent limited partnership in the Miami Dolphins.
- Sept. 9 – Sammie Smith rushes for an opening-day record 159 yards and a touchdown as the Dolphins break a five-year losing streak in season openers with a 27-24 win at the New England Patriots.
- Sept. 16 – Team founder Joe Robbie is the first enshrinee on the "Dolphin Honor Roll" at Joe Robbie Stadium. In addition, the Dolphins end a six-game losing streak to the Buffalo Bills and move into undisputed first place in the AFC East for the first time since Week 15 of the 1985 season with a 30-7 triumph. It is also Don Shula's 200th career regular season win as head coach of the Dolphins.
- Oct. 18 – In Miami's 17-10 win over the New England Patriots, Don Shula coaches in his 400th career regular season game as a head coach in the NFL.
- Nov. 19 – During halftime of Miami's 13-10 loss to the Los Angeles Raiders, the team's four Hall of Fame enshrinees, Larry Csonka, Bob Griese, Jim Langer and Paul Warfield, are inducted into the "Dolphin Honor Roll."
- Nov. 25 – Miami improves its record to 9-2 and clinches the team's first winning season since 1987 with a 30-13 win over the Cleveland Browns. Also, Dan Marino goes over 30,000 yards passing in his career, becoming the 11th player in NFL history to reach the 30,000-yard mark. It is just his 114th career game, and he reaches the 30,000-yard plateau faster than any quarterback in NFL history.
- Dec. 9 – The Dolphins earn a 23-20 overtime win over the Philadelphia Eagles and clinch the team's first playoff berth since 1985.
- Dec. 16 – In Miami's 24-17 win over the Seattle Seahawks, Dan Marino goes over 3,000 yards passing for the year. It is his seventh season passing for 3,000 yards and he ties Joe Montana's NFL record of seven 3,000-yard seasons.
- Dec. 19 – Richmond Webb becomes the first rookie offensive tackle – and second rookie offensive lineman overall – to be selected to the NFL's annual Pro Bowl contest. He joins Miami teammates Jeff Cross, Ferrell Edmunds and John Offerdahl in the all star contest.
- Dec. 23 – Dan Marino throws his 20th touchdown pass of the season in Miami's 24-14 loss at the Buffalo Bills. It is his eighth season with 20 or more touchdown passes and he ties Johnny Unitas' NFL record of eight 20-plus touchdown seasons.

- Jan. 5 - The Dolphins return to the playoffs after a four-year absence with a 17-16 win over the Kansas City Chiefs in Joe Robbie Stadium. In the contest, Pete Stoyanovich sets an NFL playoff record with a 58-yard field goal.
- Jan. 12 - Miami drops a 44-34 playoff decision at the Buffalo Bills. The two teams combine for 78 points – the highest scoring non-overtime playoff game in history. The only higher scoring playoff contest was Miami's 41-38 overtime loss to the San Diego Chargers on Jan. 2, 1982.
- Jan. 24 - Monte Clark, the Dolphins director of pro personnel, announces his resignation.
- Jan. 27 - Larry Csonka is named to the NFL's all-time Super Bowl Silver Anniversary team.
- Feb. 2 - Richmond Webb is named NFL Rookie of the Year by The Sporting News.
- March 8 - Mike Shula joins Dolphins as a Coaches' Assistant.
- March 26 - The Robbie Family and Wayne Huizenga purchase 107 acres of land adjacent to Joe Robbie Stadium for additional parking and future development.
- May 23 - At the NFL owners meetings in Minneapolis, Joe Robbie Stadium is selected as the site for Super Bowl XXIX (1995).

DOLPHIN FACT

Despite having 102 players appear in the Pro Bowl since 1970, the Dolphins have never had a cornerback play in the post-season all-star contest. Offensive guard is the position which Miami has been represented at most often (16 times, led by Bob Kuechenberg's six appearances). Surprisingly, despite the high number of appearances by the rest of the offensive line (also, 12 by centers), Dolphins offensive tackles have played in the Pro Bowl on only four occasions (Norm Evans, twice; Richmond Webb and Wayne Moore).

DOLPHIN FACT

The Dolphins have selected a player from a Florida university in 16 of the team's 26 college drafts. Overall, the Dolphins have drafted 33 players from the State of Florida. The Univ. of Miami leads the way with 13 Dolphin draftees, followed by eight from the Univ. of Florida, six from Florida State Univ., four from the Univ. of Tampa and one from both Florida A&M and Bethune Cookman.

DOLPHIN FACT

The only player for whom the Dolphins received trade value twice is QB John Stofa. Stofa, who joined Miami as a free agent in 1966, was traded on Dec. 26, 1967, to Cincinnati for first and second round draft choices in 1968. He re-joined the Dolphins as a free agent in 1969 and was traded on Nov. 23, 1971, to Denver for a seventh-round pick in 1972.

PLAYOFF HISTORY

1970 AFC PLAYOFF

OAKLAND 21, MIAMI 14
December 27, 1970

Oakland-Alameda County Coliseum
Oakland, CA

Oakland quarterback Daryle Lamonica unloaded an 82-yard touchdown pass to Rod Sherman with 9:34 left to play as Oakland spoiled the Dolphins first appearance in the playoffs, 21-14, on a field oozing with mud. The Dolphins, who had won six consecutive games to finish the season 10-4 and gain a wild-card berth, took a 7-0 lead in the second quarter when Bob Griese fired a 16-yard strike to Paul Warfield in the end zone. Lamonica matched that TD with a 22-yard toss to Fred Biletnikoff only 1:50 before halftime. Raider right cornerback Willie Brown intercepted a wet and wobbly pass by Griese and fled 50 yards along the sideline for the tie-breaking TD. It came minutes after Jake Scott recovered an Oakland fumble at the Miami 10-yard line. The heave to Sherman was insurance. Only three plays earlier, Dolphin kicker Garo Yepremian missed a 24-yard field goal attempt for the second time in the game. Oakland's George Blanda also missed a 23-yarder.

December 25, 1971

Kansas City, MO

Garo Yepremian ended 82 minutes and 40 seconds of an epic struggle by booting a 37-yard field goal with 7:40 elapsed in the second overtime, lifting the Dolphins past Kansas City, 27-24, on Christmas Day. The Dolphins battled from behind three times to tie the AFC West champions, the third time on Bob Griese's five-yard pass to tight end Marv Fleming with 96 seconds remaining in regulation. Kansas City running back Ed Podolak, who amassed 350 yards of all-purpose running, returned the ensuing kickoff 78 yards to the Dolphin 22 where Curtis Johnson missed a desperation tackle. With 35 seconds on the clock, Jan Stenerud missed a 32-yard field-goal try. Stenerud had a 42-yarder blocked by Nick Buoniconti in the fifth quarter, and Yepremian was short with a 45-yard effort. But Larry Csonka crashed 29 yards to the Chiefs 36, and that put Yepremian, the NFL's scoring leader, in position to win it. Goal posts were on the goal line; in 1974 the uprights were moved to the end line.

1971 AFC CHAMPIONSHIP

MIAMI 21, BALTIMORE 0

January 2, 1972

Orange Bowl

Miami, FL

Three lightning plays and a persistent defense propelled the Dolphins into Super Bowl VI with a 21-0 rout of Baltimore before an all-time Orange Bowl record crowd of 78,939. Strong safety Dick Anderson intercepted a Johnny Unitas pass which was deflected by Curtis Johnson, and behind a wall of six open-field blocks Anderson weaved 62 yards for a third-quarter touchdown. "My eyes were popping as I ran," Anderson said. "I've never seen so many people land on their heads." Before Anderson's convoy made it 14-0, the Dolphins staggered the defending Super Bowl champions when Bob Griese and Paul Warfield hooked up for a 75-yard TD pass. Warfield applied the clincher when he escaped 50 yards with a Griese pass, setting up a five-yard TD slam by fullback Larry Csonka. The Colts had not been held scoreless for 97 games over seven seasons. They were stopped at the Dolphin 9 in the second quarter. Jim O'Brien missed two field-goal attempts and had another blocked by Lloyd Mumphord.

SUPER BOWL VI

DALLAS 24, MIAMI 3

January 16, 1972

Tulane Stadium

New Orleans, LA

A 252-yard rushing attack and sharp passing by Roger Staubach spurred the Dallas Cowboys to a 24-3 victory over the Dolphins at Tulane Stadium. Duane Thomas pranced 95 yards on 19 carries, fullback Walt Garrison added 74 yards on 14 carries and Staubach passed twice for touchdowns to Lance Alworth and Mike Ditka. Staubach, who was sacked twice in the first quarter, bounced back to complete 12 of 19 passes, and he scrambled from the Dolphin pass rush five times. The Dolphins were frustrated all day; in the first quarter, Larry Csonka lost a fumble and Bob Griese was chased by tackle Bob Lilly for a 29-yard loss. Griese also fumbled away a snap at the Dallas 16 in the fourth period. Although it was an intriguing 10-3 at halftime, the Cowboys marched 71 yards in eight plays after the kickoff, and Thomas swept three yards for the TD.

1972 AFC PLAYOFF

MIAMI 20, CLEVELAND 14

December 24, 1972

Orange Bowl

Miami, FL

On the ropes in the fourth quarter after an unprecedented 14 victories, the Dolphins responded to poised Earl Morrall and drove 80 yards for a touchdown with 4:56 to play for a 20-14 victory over the Cleveland Browns. Morrall, the NFL's leading passer after replacing the injured Bob Griese 10 weeks earlier, had completed only four passes for 38 yards. But he threw 15 and 35 yards to Paul Warfield, reaching the Browns 20, and a pass interference call against linebacker Billy Andrews, put the ball at the eight. Halfback Jim Kiick then bulled eight yards up the middle on a trap for the winning points. The triumph was sealed with a minute to play when Dolphin linebacker Doug Swift intercepted Cleveland QB Mike Phipps at the Dolphin 20. Despite stealing five of Phipps' passes, the Dolphins were stung by a 27-yard TD pass to Fair Hooker and trailed 14-13 with 8:11 to play.

1972 AFC CHAMPIONSHIP

MIAMI 21, PITTSBURGH 17
December 31, 1972

Three Rivers Stadium
Pittsburgh, PA

Quarterback Bob Griese, playing 11 weeks after he had broken his right leg, ignited a third-quarter touchdown drive with a 52-yard pass to Paul Warfield, and the Dolphins overtook the Pittsburgh Steelers, 21-17, in unusually warm 63-degree weather. Griese was given the nod in the second half after Earl Morrall had flipped a nine-yard touchdown pass to Larry Csonka for a 7-7 halftime deadlock. Punter Larry Seiple broke loose on a daring 37-yard run on fourth down to set up that TD. Trailing 10-7, Griese directed TD drives of 80 and 49 yards with Jim Klick blasting two and three yards for the scores. Steeler quarterback Terry Bradshaw, who closed the gap with four straight completions on a 71-yard TD drive, was intercepted by Nick Buoniconti at midfield with 2½ minutes to play. In addition to Seiple's dash, the Dolphins converted fourth-down situations on both Griese-led drives.

SUPER BOWL VII

MIAMI 14, WASHINGTON 7
January 14, 1973

Memorial Coliseum
Los Angeles, CA

"This is the ultimate," Coach Don Shula said quietly after his unbeaten Dolphins dominated the Washington Redskins, 14-7, to cap a perfect season. It was Shula's first Super Bowl triumph in three tries. A record Super Bowl paid crowd of 90,182 saw the Dolphins surge to a 14-0 halftime lead even as one touchdown was nullified by an offside penalty. Miami intercepted three of Bill Kilmer's passes, and Manny Fernandez scuttled the Redskin running game with 17 tackles. An original Dolphin, Howard Twilley, eluded cornerback Pat Fischer to snare a 28-yard touchdown pass from Bob Griese in the first quarter. Griese's 57-yard TD bomb to Paul Warfield was erased by the penalty, but a 32-yard interception return by linebacker Nick Buoniconti set up the Dolphins' second score. Safety Jake Scott thwarted Kilmer with an end zone interception and 55-yard runback. The Redskins finally scored on a bizarre 49-yard fumble recovery by Mike Bass after a blocked field goal and attempted pass by kicker Garo Yepremian. Scott was named MVP.

1973 AFC PLAYOFF

MIAMI 34, CINCINNATI 16
December 23, 1973

Orange Bowl
Miami, FL

A defense which had allowed only 15 touchdowns all season kept the Cincinnati Bengals out of the end zone while the Dolphins hammered 241 yards on the ground for a convincing 34-16 victory. Mercury Morris scooted 106 yards on 20 carries and Bob Griese completed 11 of 18 passes, including TDs of 13 yards to Paul Warfield and seven yards to Jim Mandich. Garo Yepremian converted long field goals of 50 and 46 yards in the second half to widen the winning margin. The Dolphins led 21-3 when a lapse just before halftime gave life to the Bengals. Safety Neal Craig intercepted Griese and returned it 45 yards for a score, and Horst Muhleman booted field goals of 46 and 12 yards – the second coming after Morris fumbled a kickoff – to make it 21-16.

1973 AFC CHAMPIONSHIP

MIAMI 27, OAKLAND 10
December 30, 1973

Orange Bowl
Miami, FL

A relentless running attack with Larry Csonka and Mercury Morris accounting for 203 of the 266 yards powered the Dolphins to a 27-10 triumph over the Oakland Raiders for a third straight American Conference title. Csonka, a 237-pound battering ram who had his third consecutive 1,000-yard season, scored three touchdowns with his 117 yards on 29 carries. The Dolphins covered 64 and 63 yards exclusively on the ground for a 14-0 halftime lead. Then as the Raiders battled within 17-10, Bob Griese directed ground assaults of 63 yards, culminating in a field goal, and 40 yards, ending in Csonka's third TD. Defensively, safety Dick Anderson forced a fourth-down fumble by Marv Hubbard at midfield, and the Dolphins took possession with a 20-10 lead and six minutes to play. Oakland had stopped Miami's 18-game winning streak, 12-7, three months earlier.

SUPER BOWL VIII

MIAMI 24, MINNESOTA 7
January 13, 1974

Rice Stadium
Houston, TX

Winning for the 32nd time in 34 games, the Dolphins repeated as Super Bowl champions and proved themselves "Best Ever" with a 24-7 rout of the Minnesota Vikings at Rice Stadium. There was no doubt from the beginning. The Dolphins swept 62 yards in 10 plays with the opening kickoff, scoring on Larry Csonka's five-yard smash. Minnesota punted, and the onslaught resumed with a 56-yard, 10-play Dolphin drive capped by Jim Klicik's one-yard plunge. It was 17-0 before the Vikings crossed their 40, and a fourth-down fumble by Minnesota's Oscar Reed was recovered by safety Jake Scott at the Dolphin six-yard line. A brilliant, diving catch by Paul Warfield netted 27 yards on a third-quarter TD drive that hiked the score to 24-0. Csonka finished with his best-ever total of 145 yards on 33 carries. The Dolphins rushed for 703 yards and outscored opponents 85-33 in the three-game playoff blitz. Csonka's yardage was a Super Bowl record and he was named MVP.

1974 AFC PLAYOFF

OAKLAND 28, MIAMI 26
December 21, 1974

Oakland-Alameda County Coliseum
Oakland, CA

Oakland quarterback Ken Stabler, falling in the clutches of Vern Den Herder, unloaded a wobbly eight-yard pass that Clarence Davis wrestled from three defenders in the end zone, and the Raiders scored a stunning 28-26 victory over the defending champion Dolphins. Stabler, who had spent the last of his timeouts, appeared to have thrown an interception. But running back Davis clutched the football when bodies were untangled with 26 seconds remaining. It was the fourth TD pass for lefthander Stabler and his second "freak" score. Four minutes earlier Cliff Branch fell while catching a pass at the Dolphin 27, but defender Henry Stuckey also slipped, and Branch got up and escaped for a 72-yard TD. The Dolphins, trailing by two points, went ahead with 2:08 remaining as rookie Benny Malone broke two tackles on a 23-yard touchdown run along the sideline.

1978 AFC WILD-CARD PLAYOFF

HOUSTON 17, MIAMI 9
December 24, 1978

Orange Bowl
Miami, FL

The Houston Oilers amassed a 455-209 margin in total yardage, and aided by five Dolphin turnovers, gained a 17-9 victory in a battle of AFC wild-card entries at the Orange Bowl. Toni Fritsch kicked a 35-yard field goal with 7:25 remaining to snap a 7-7 tie that existed since the first quarter. An interception by linebacker Greg Bingham led to a clinching 50-yard touchdown drive capped by Earl Campbell's one-yard dive with 1:55 to go. Campbell, the NFL rushing leader with 1,450 yards as a rookie, had been checked for only 16 yards on 13 carries in the first half. Dolphin quarterback Bob Griese, playing with very sore ribs, connected with tight end Andre Tillman for a 13-yard TD after Earnie Rhone had recovered a fumbled punt at the Houston 21. But Griese completed only 13 of 28 passes. Twice the Dolphins lost the ball inside the Oiler 10-yard line when the game was tied. Houston's Dan Pastorini wore a flak jacket to protect three broken ribs, and he passed for 261 of his 306-yard total in the first half.

1979 AFC PLAYOFF

PITTSBURGH 34, MIAMI 14
December 30, 1979

Three Rivers Stadium
Pittsburgh, PA

Launching a drive to their fourth Super Bowl title in six years, the Pittsburgh Steelers scored touchdowns on their first three possessions and coasted to a 34-14 victory at Three Rivers Stadium. Miami managed only 25 yards rushing against the Steel Curtain and was stopped twice in the second quarter after achieving a first down inside the Steeler 10-yard line. The Dolphins got as close as 20-7 with a seven-yard TD pass from Bob Griese to Duriel Harris in the third period, but Pittsburgh responded with a 69-yard TD drive. The Steelers marched 62, 62 and 56 yards for their first-quarter scores when quarterback Terry Bradshaw completed 8 of 10 passes, including touchdowns to John Stallworth and Lynn Swann, who was standing alone in the end zone. Don Strock directed a 13-play, 76-yard TD drive after relieving Griese in the fourth quarter.

1981 AFC PLAYOFF

SAN DIEGO 41, MIAMI 38 (OT)
January 2, 1982

Orange Bowl
Miami, FL

A record-setting showcase of the passing game resulted in NFL playoff marks for most points (79), most total yards (1,036) and most drama as the San Diego Chargers outlasted the Dolphins 41-38 in overtime. "The Miracle That Died" was the Miami Herald headline after the Dolphins rallied behind reserve quarterback Don Strock to overcome a 24-point deficit. The Pro Football Hall of Fame voted the contest as the "NFL's Game of the '80s." Strock completed 29 of 43 passes for 403 yards and four touchdowns, spurring the Dolphins to a 38-31 lead. A 12-yard sweep by Tony Nathan on the first play of the fourth quarter put the Dolphins on top. But Charger quarterback Dan Fouts, who passed for an NFL record 4,802 yards during the season, led an 82-yard drive capped by a 9-yard pass to James Brooks to tie the game with 58 seconds remaining. Five players had more than 100 yards in receptions, topped by Charger tight end Kellen Winslow with 13 catches for 166 yards. Fouts, who finished with 433 yards on 33 of 53 marksmanship, hooked up with Charlie Joiner for 39 yards to the Dolphin 10-yard line. Rolf Benirschke then kicked a 29-yard field goal to end the struggle after 13:52 of overtime. Benirschke had missed a 27-yard attempt eight minutes earlier, and Miami's Uwe von Schamann had two attempts blocked – a 43-yarder on the last play of regulation and a 35-yarder after 11:27 of overtime. It was the first game in NFL history in which two quarterbacks passed for more than 400 yards.

1982 AFC PLAYOFF (first round)

MIAMI 28, NEW ENGLAND 13
January 8, 1983

Orange Bowl
Miami, FL

For the first time in nine years, the Miami Dolphins won a playoff game, defeating the New England Patriots 28-13. Dolphin QB David Woodley had one of his finest games, completing 16 of 19 passes for 246 yards and two TDs. He was a perfect 8-8 in the second half. The Dolphins had not experienced a playoff win since January 13, 1974, when they downed Minnesota in Super Bowl VIII. The Dolphins took command in the second quarter, putting together back-to-back TD drives of 76 and 79 yards that turned a 3-0 deficit into a 14-3 halftime advantage. The four Miami TDs came on a pair of two-yard passes from David Woodley to tight end Bruce Hardy, a one-yard run by Andra Franklin and Woody Bennett's two-yard burst up the middle. Franklin finished with 112 yards on 26 carries, but lost the ball three times on fumbles. Two of those fumbles resulted in John Smith field goals of 23 and 42 yards for New England.

1982 AFC PLAYOFF (second round)

MIAMI 34, SAN DIEGO 13

January 16, 1983

Orange Bowl

Miami, FL

The Dolphins choked off the famed Charger offense and won 34-13. The Dolphin defense stopped the San Diego offense, holding it to a total of 247 yards - 203 yards below its league-leading average - while holding the Chargers scoreless in the second half. Dolphin defenders intercepted QB Dan Fouts five times, sacked him three times and held the Chargers to 15 completions for 191 yards - their lowest output since a January, 1982, playoff game in the ice at Cincinnati. The Dolphin offense kept Fouts and Company on the sideline by utilizing ball control that produced 80 plays to San Diego's 54 and an overwhelming time of possession advantage; the Dolphins had the ball for 40:46 to the Chargers' 19:14. Dolphin QB David Woodley guided his team to a 214-yard ground attack while connecting on 17-22 passes for 195 yards and two TDs. Woodley opened the scoring with a three-yard pass to Nat Moore in the first quarter and made it 14-0 by directing Miami 89 yards on 13 plays. Charger kickoff returner Hank Bauer fumbled a kickoff which was recovered by Uwe von Schamann at the Charger 23-yard line. Seven plays later, Woodley hit tight end Ronnie Lee on a six-yard look-in pass for the score. On the next kickoff, Dolphin rookie Rich Diana recovered a fumble by the Chargers' James Brooks, but this time Miami had to settle for a 29-yard von Schamann field goal. The Chargers scored two late TDs, one on a 28-yard pass from Fouts to Charlie Joiner and the other on Chuck Muncie's one-yard dive that ended the San Diego scoring. Von Schamann added a second field goal shortly before the end of the first half and Woodley scored on a seven-yard QB draw early in the fourth quarter.

1982 AFC CHAMPIONSHIP

MIAMI 14, N.Y. JETS 0
January 23, 1983

Orange Bowl
Miami, FL

For the third time in as many games in 1982, the Miami Dolphins defeated the New York Jets, this time on a rainy, mud-soaked Orange Bowl field. The Dolphins set an AFC Championship Game record by holding the Jets to 139 total yards. A.J. Duhe set an AFC playoff record with three interceptions, including one he returned for a 35-yard TD. The Dolphins set an NFL record by being the first team to have defeated the same team three times in a season - two times during the regular season and once in a playoff game. On nine occasions since the AFL-NFL merger, teams had met three times in a season - but no team had won all three games. Before a crowd of 67,396, the Dolphins' Woody Bennett rumbled seven yards up the middle to score the only points the Dolphins would need. That came in the third quarter after the teams had trudged through a scoreless first half on the soggy Prescription Athletic Turf.

SUPER BOWL XVII

WASHINGTON 27, MIAMI 17

January 30, 1983

Rose Bowl

Pasadena, CA

The Washington Redskins, behind the power running of John Riggins, came from behind to win Super Bowl XVII in the famed Rose Bowl, beating Miami 27-17. Before the second-largest crowd for a Super Bowl – 103,667 fans – the Redskins took the lead for the first time with a little more than 10 minutes left on the clock. The game was marked by a Super Bowl record performance by Fulton Walker, who returned four kickoffs 190 yards, including a 98-yard TD that gave Miami a 17-10 halftime lead. It was the first kickoff returned for a TD in Super Bowl history and the longest kickoff return in playoff history. Riggins ran up 166 yards on 38 carries, both Super Bowl records. On a short-yardage play – fourth-and-one from the Redskin 43 with 10:01 to play – Riggins broke a tackle and scored on a 43-yard run. Riggins accounted for 181 total yards, five more yards than the entire Miami offense could manage in the game. In the first quarter, Miami jumped to a quick lead with a 76-yard David Woodley to Jimmy Cefalo pass for a TD.

1983 AFC PLAYOFF

SEATTLE 27, MIAMI 20

December 31, 1983

Orange Bowl

Miami, FL

The Miami Dolphins saw their season end on a sour note as they lost a 27-20 decision to the Seattle Seahawks in the first round of the AFC playoffs. Before 71,032 fans in the Orange Bowl, Dolphin rookie quarterback Dan Marino returned from his December 4 knee injury. On their second possession, the Dolphins launched a 12-play, 80-yard drive ending with a 19-yard TD pass from Marino to tight end Dan Johnson (PAT missed). A 59-yard return by Zachary Dixon on the ensuing kickoff led to a six-yard scoring loss from Seattle's Dave Krieg to Cullen Bryant with the extra point, giving the Seahawks a one point lead. Miami immediately retaliated, using a 17-yard Marino to Mark Duper hook-up to pave the way for a 32-yard circus catch by Duper for the touchdown. Early in the third quarter, a David Overstreet fumble in Seattle territory set the Seahawks up for a 55-yard TD march featuring a 28-yard completion from Krieg to Paul Johns, and culminating in a one-yard run by Curt Warner. Norm Johnson's 27-yard field goal early in the fourth quarter gave Seattle a 17-13 lead. The Dolphins managed to regain the lead at 20-17 following a Gerald Small interception (18-yard return) and Woody Bennett's two-yard run with only 3:43 remaining. However, the lead was shortlived as the Seahawks came right back to score on Warner's short run following a pair of Krieg to Steve Largent completions for a total of 56 yards. Miami's Fulton Walker then fumbled the Seattle kickoff, thus leading to a 37-yard Johnson field goal. Another Walker kickoff fumble iced the game for the Seahawks, who were participating in the playoffs for the first time in their eight-year history.

1984 AFC PLAYOFF

MIAMI 31, SEATTLE 10
December 29, 1984

Orange Bowl
Miami, FL

The Miami Dolphins led by quarterback Dan Marino's three touchdown passes and a defense that shut out the opposition in three of four quarters, defeated the Seattle Seahawks 31-10 before 73,469 fans in the Orange Bowl. The Dolphins moved in front on their second possession and stayed there. Running back Tony Nathan keyed the 68-yard drive by gaining 38 yards on four carries, including the touchdown on a 14-yard run. A 26-yard Marino to Mark Clayton completion was the long play of the scoring march. A 32-yard interception return by Seattle's John Harris and a 25-yard pass from Dave Krieg to Steve Largent paved the way for Norm Johnson's 27-yard field goal that cut Miami's lead to 7-3. The Dolphins, however, came right back to score on their next series as a 20-yard reception by Woody Bennett preceded Marino's 34-yard scoring hook-up with Jimmy Cefalo. The Seahawks made it 14-10 at halftime when Largent scored on a 56-yard catch-and-run play. After Miami's defense had stopped Seattle on the Dolphin 24-yard line to open the second half, the Dolphins embarked on a 13-play, 76-yard TD drive that included a Bruce Hardy touchdown catch from three yards out. After the Seahawks' Jeff West managed just a seven-yard punt, Clayton made an acrobatic catch on a tipped ball in the end zone for a 33-yard TD. Miami closed out the scoring on Uwe von Schamann's 37-yard field goal in a drive that featured a 32-yard Marino to Hardy pass.

1984 AFC CHAMPIONSHIP

MIAMI 45, PITTSBURGH 28
January 6, 1985

Orange Bowl
Miami, FL

The Miami Dolphins, led by Dan Marino's 421 yards passing (four touchdowns) and Mark Duper's 148 yards receiving, advanced to Super Bowl XIX by defeating the Pittsburgh Steelers 45-28 in the AFC Championship Game before 76,029 fans in the Orange Bowl. The Dolphins scored on their first offensive series as they moved 67 yards in four plays following a William Judson interception, with the TD coming on a 40-yard pass from Marino to Mark Clayton. Pittsburgh's first score came on Rich Erenberg's seven-yard run that had been set up by Walter Abercrombie's 38 yards gained in the 66-yard march. A 26-yard Uwe von Schamann field goal preceded a 65-yard toss from the Steelers' Mark Malone to John Stallworth that gave Pittsburgh a 14-10 lead. The Dolphins then scored two TDs in the final 2:52 of the first half, the first score coming on a 41-yard reception by Duper. After Lyle Blackwood's interception, Marino hit TE Joe Rose for a 28-yard gain before Tony Nathan gave the Dolphins a 24-14 lead on a two-yard run. Miami then scored on its first three second-half possessions, leading off with Marino's 36-yard scoring strike to Duper. The Steelers closed the gap to 31-21 on Malone's 19-yarder to Stallworth (33-yarder to Louis Lipps in drive). Completions to Duper (41 yards), Nathan (20 yards) and Nat Moore (28 yards) then led to a one-yard TD dive by Woody Bennett. Moore then caught a six-yard touchdown pass before Wayne Capers closed out the scoring with a 29-yard TD reception.

SUPER BOWL XIX

SAN FRANCISCO 38, MIAMI 16
January 20, 1985

Stanford Stadium
Palo Alto, CA

The Miami Dolphins, unable to score in the game's final two quarters, dropped a 38-16 decision to the San Francisco 49ers in Super Bowl XIX before 84,059 fans in Stanford Stadium. The Dolphins were outgained in the contest by a 537-314 margin with the 49ers maintaining possession for 37:11. Miami opened the scoring on its first possession as Uwe von Schamann converted a 37-yard field goal (key play – Dan Marino's 25-yard completion to Tony Nathan). San Francisco jumped ahead 7-3 when QB Joe Montana led the Niners on an eight-play, 78-yard drive that culminated in a 33-yard TD toss to Carl Monroe. The Dolphins scored their only touchdown of the game on their next series as two Marino completions to Mark Clayton (18, 13 yards) and a 21-yarder to Dan Johnson paved the way for Johnson's two-yard scoring catch. Touchdown runs of eight and two yards by Roger Craig and Montana's six-yard scamper gave San Francisco a 28-10 lead. Von Schamann then connected on field goals of 31 and 30 yards in the final 12 seconds of the first half to close the Dolphin deficit to 28-16. The 49ers upped their lead on their initial second-half possession on Ray Wersching's 27-yard field goal, before closing out the scoring on Craig's 16-yard scoring reception (key play – 40-yard Montana to Wendell Tyler pass play).

1985 AFC PLAYOFF

MIAMI 24, CLEVELAND 21

January 4, 1986

Orange Bowl

Miami, FL

Most people had not given them much of a chance to win, but the 8-8 Cleveland Browns nearly upset the 12-4 Dolphins in the Orange Bowl. It would take two Ron Davenport touchdowns in the final 17 minutes to send Miami to a 24-21 victory and the AFC Championship Game against New England the following week. Fuad Reveiz put the Dolphins on the board early with a 51-yard field goal on Miami's first drive of the game. But Cleveland came back to score 21 unanswered points, and held a 21-3 advantage midway through the third quarter. Cleveland rookie quarterback Bernie Kosar, who had played two college seasons in the Orange Bowl for the University of Miami, hit Ozzie Newsome with a 16-yard touchdown pass for the Browns first points of the day. Earnest Byner (16-161) ran in from 21 yards out just before the half, and then he broke a 66-yard touchdown jaunt 3:38 into the second half. Just like that, the improbable began to look possible. Dan Marino connected with Nat Moore for a six-yard touchdown pass just over six minutes later and Miami had closed the margin to 21-10. Then it was time for Davenport (6-48) to show his stuff. First, he hit the hole for a 31-yard touchdown run late in the third period and then he closed the scoring and put Miami up for good, going over from one yard out with just 1:57 remaining in the game.

1985 AFC CHAMPIONSHIP

NEW ENGLAND 31, MIAMI 14
January 12, 1986

Orange Bowl
Miami, FL

The New England Patriots garnered a bid to their first Super Bowl by snapping an 18-game losing streak to the Dolphins in Miami with a 31-14 triumph at the Orange Bowl. The Patriots' only previous victory in Miami came in the first meeting between the two teams in 1966. New England backs Craig James (22-105) and Robert Weathers (16-87) combined for 192 yards rushing and quarterback Tony Eason was on target with a 10-12 performance for 71 yards as the Pats set up a Super Bowl date with the Chicago Bears. After New England got on the board first with a Tony Franklin 23-yard field goal, the Dolphins stormed back for their only lead of the afternoon when Dan Marino passed 10 yards to Dan Johnson early in the second quarter. Eason brought New England right back with three touchdown tosses, and the Pats led 24-7 after three quarters. Miami's last score of the day came early in the fourth quarter when Tony Nathan grabbed a 10-yard TD pass from Marino. New England fullback Mosi Tatupu ended the game's scoring with a one-yard TD jaunt midway through the fourth quarter.

1990 AFC FIRST ROUND PLAYOFF

DOLPHINS 17, KANSAS CITY 16
January 5, 1991

Joe Robbie Stadium
Miami, FL

Dan Marino threw two fourth quarter touchdown passes to lead the Dolphins to a dramatic come-from-behind 17-16 playoff win over the Kansas City Chiefs before a crowd of 67,276 at Joe Robbie Stadium. In the final period, Marino hit on all eight of his pass attempts for 101 yards and two touchdowns. It was the 16th time in his career that Marino has engineered a fourth quarter comeback. Including the third quarter, Marino hit on his last ten pass attempts - third longest in team history - to lead the Dolphins back from a 13-3 deficit to a 17-16 win. The win raised Miami's playoff record to 15-10 (all under Don Shula). Shula's overall playoff record improved to 17-13. Miami increased their record to 11-4 at home in playoff contests. The Chiefs opened the scoring in the first quarter when Charles Washington blocked a Reggie Roby punt and returned the ball to Miami's 37-yard line. However, the Miami's defense stiffened and held the Chiefs to a 27-yard field goal by Nick Lowery. Miami kicker Pete Stoyanovich tied the score at 3-3 in the second period by booting an NFL playoff record 58-yard field goal.

Stoyanovich's kick broke the previous record of 54 yards by Detroit's Eddie Murray on December 24, 1983, against San Francisco and it was the second-longest kick of Stoyanovich's career. The Chiefs took a 10-3 halftime lead by scoring on a 26-yard touchdown strike from Steve DeBerg to Stephone Paige. The Chiefs extended their lead to 16-3 on a pair of third quarter field goals by Lowery from 25 and 38 yards. In the fourth quarter, the Dolphins closed the score to 16-10 as Marino hit fullback Tony Paige with a one-yard touchdown pass. The key play in the drive was a two-yard run by Sammie Smith on a fourth-and-two from Kansas City's 45-yard line. The Dolphins forced the Chiefs to punt on their next possession and received the ball on their own 15-yard line with 10:39 left in the game. The Dolphins converted three third downs and drove to the Chiefs' 12-yard line with 3:28 left in the contest before Marino hit Mark Clayton with a 12-yard touchdown pass to give Miami a 17-16 lead. However, the Chiefs had a chance to win the game as they drove from their own 22-yard line to the Dolphin 34 before Lowery's 52-yard field goal attempt was just short.

1990 AFC DIVISIONAL PLAYOFF

BUFFALO 44, DOLPHINS 34
January 12, 1991

Rich Stadium
Orchard Park, NY

The Miami Dolphins saw the 1990 season come to an end with a 44-34 loss to the Buffalo Bills in an AFC Divisional Playoff contest in the snow and ice at Rich Stadium. The game was an offensive shootout as the teams combined for 78 points, 48 first downs, 923 total net yards, 662 passing yards, 261 rushing yards, nine touchdowns and five field goals. Individually, Dan Marino (23 of 49 for 323 yards with three TDs and two INTs) and Jim Kelly (19-29-339-3-1) both passed for over 300 yards. Kelly became the only quarterback to throw for over 300 yards against the Dolphin defense in 1990. Mark Duper (three catches for 113 yards and a score) and Buffalo's Andre Reed (4-122-2) and James Lofton (7-149-1) all went over the 100-yard receiving mark. On the ground, the Bills' Thurman Thomas (32 carries for 117 yards and two TDs) and Miami's Sammie Smith (21-99) led the way. Buffalo dominated the first quarter and jumped out to a 13-3 lead. The Bills scored on their first possession as Kelly hit Reed with a 40-yard touchdown strike and the Dolphins answered the score with a 49-yard field goal to close the score to 7-3. Buffalo added a pair of Scott Norwood field goals - from 24 and 22 yards - to close the first quarter scoring. The Bills struck first in the second quarter on a five-yard run by Thomas to lead 20-3. Miami answered the score on its next possession as Marino and Duper combined for a 64-yard touchdown. The Bills came right back and scored as Kelly threw 13 yards for a score to Lofton to take a 27-10 lead. On their next possession Miami was forced to punt, however the Bills' Al Edwards fumbled the punt and Reggie Roby recovered for Miami on Buffalo's 47-yard line. Miami drove down to the two-yard line where Marino ran in for the score to narrow Buffalo's lead to 27-17 at the half. The Dolphins and Buffalo exchanged third quarter field goals as Stoyanovich hit from 22 yards and Norwood connected from 28 yards. Miami closed the score to 30-27 early in the fourth quarter as Marino threw a two-yard touchdown pass to offensive guard Roy Foster. It was the first reception and touchdown of Foster's career as he became the first offensive or defensive lineman to score an offensive touchdown in a post-season contest since Chicago Bears' defensive tackle William Perry rumbled in from a yard out in Super Bowl XX on January 26, 1986. However, the Bills struck back for 14 quick points to put the game away. First, Thomas scored his second TD of the game on a five-yard run. On the ensuing kickoff, Miami returner Marc Logan fumbled the ball and Norwood recovered for Buffalo on the Dolphins' 29-yard line. Two plays later, Kelly and Reed combined for a 26-yard scoring toss and a 44-27 lead. The Dolphins scored the final touchdown of the game with just 1:15 remaining as Marino hit Tony Martin with an eight-yard TD pass.

DOLPHINS HALL OF FAME

LARRY CSONKA

#39

Fullback

Born: 12/25/46

College: Syracuse '68

NFL: 1968-74, 1976-79

Dolphins: 1968-74, 1979

Year Inducted: 1987

Csonka ranks as the Dolphins' all-time leading rusher with 1,506 carries for 6,737 yards (4.5 average) and 53 TDs. A five-time Pro Bowl selection, he put together three consecutive 1,000-yard seasons (1971-73) as Miami advanced to the Super Bowl each year. Csonka shined in those three Super Bowls, averaging 6.3 yards a carry and going over 100 yards rushing in two of them. Originally drafted in the first round out of Syracuse in 1968, he was named the MVP of Super Bowl VIII after carrying 33 times for 145 yards and two touchdowns as the Dolphins steamrolled the Minnesota Vikings, 24-7, for their second straight NFL title. Called a "modern-day Bronko Nagurski" by Dolphin coach Don Shula, "Zonk" also played three seasons with the N.Y. Giants (1976-78) and one year with the Memphis Southmen of the World Football League (1975). His career rushing totals in the NFL, which place him 12th on the league's all-time rushing list, are: 1,891 carries for 8,081 yards (4.3 average) and 64 TDs. He was elected to the Hall of Fame in his second year of eligibility. In 1990, he also was voted the fullback on the Dolphins' Silver Anniversary all-time team and was named as a running back on the Super Bowl Silver Anniversary all-time team. On Nov. 19, 1990, he was enshrined on the Dolphin Honor Roll at Joe Robbie Stadium.

BOB GRIESE

#12

Quarterback

Born: 2/3/45

College: Purdue '67

NFL: 1967-80

Dolphins: 1967-80

Year Inducted: 1990

He was unquestionably the "thinking man's quarterback." Bob Griese, renowned for his poised leadership and ingenious play-calling, sustained the Dolphin offense with a flair for winning from 1967-80.

The bespectacled quarterback became the 14th passer in the NFL's exclusive 25,000-yard club in 1980. On the same day he reached that milestone, he suffered a shoulder injury which ultimately forced his retirement on June 25, 1981. His No. 12 jersey became the first to be retired May 6, 1982, in ceremonies at the Dolphins' annual awards banquet. In 1990, he was also voted the quarterback on the Dolphins' Silver Anniversary all-time team, and on Nov. 19, 1990, he was enshrined on the Dolphin Honor Roll at Joe Robbie Stadium.

He had a .698 winning percentage (91-39-1) under Coach Don Shula. "Cornerstone of the franchise," Dolphin founder Joe Robbie called him. He was a consensus All-Pro quarterback in 1971 and 1977, made a team-record six appearances in the Pro Bowl and was voted the team's Most Valuable Player six times by South Florida media.

Since becoming eligible for induction into the Hall of Fame in 1985, Griese was named as a finalist all five years before being elected to the Hall of Fame in 1990, joining the three other Dolphin players who hold a place in Canton.

"He's probably the most unselfish guy I've ever been around," Shula said. "He got as much of a thrill calling the right running play for a touchdown as he did connecting on a bomb. That's just his makeup."

JIM LANGER

Center

#62

Born: 5/16/48

College: South Dakota St.
'70

NFL: 1970-81

Dolphins: 1970-79

Year Inducted: 1987

Langer was the anchor of the Miami offensive line during the Dolphins' championship years of the 1970s. Coming out of South Dakota State in 1970, he was signed as a free agent by Cleveland but was released on the final cut. Langer was picked up on waivers by the Dolphins and, after spending most of the year on the taxi squad, played in the final five games of 1970, mainly on special teams. After serving as a backup at center the following season, in 1972 he won the starting job, which he would hold until sidelined with a knee injury in 1979. A consensus All-Pro from 1973-77, Langer was a six-time Pro Bowl selection (five times as a starter), a Dolphin record. He played in a club-high 128 straight games during his career and also had a team-record 109 consecutive starts. Voted the team's Most Valuable Player by South Florida media in 1975, Langer also holds the distinction of having played every offensive down in the Dolphins' perfect 1972 season. Wanting to spend the final years of his career near his Royalton, Minn., home, at his own request Langer was traded to the Minnesota Vikings in 1980, where he played for two seasons (1980-81). He was elected to the Hall of Fame in his first year of eligibility. In addition, on Nov. 19, 1990, he was enshrined on the Dolphin Honor Roll at Joe Robbie Stadium.

PAUL WARFIELD

Wide Receiver

#42

Born: 11/28/42

College: Ohio State '64

NFL: 1964-74, 1976-77

Year Inducted: 1983

Warfield sandwiched two stints with the Cleveland Browns around a five-year career with the Dolphins. After spending his first six seasons in the NFL with the Browns (1964-69), Warfield was acquired by Miami in January of 1970 in exchange for a first-round pick in the upcoming draft. In his five seasons with the Dolphins, Warfield had 156 receptions for 3,355 yards (21.5 average) and 33 TDs — good enough to place him eleventh on the team's all-time receiving list. A member of both the '72 and '73 Super Bowl championship teams, he was selected to play in the Pro Bowl all five years he was with the Dolphins (once as a starter), in addition to being named to the AFC squad twice with the Browns. Warfield, the only Dolphin in the team's history to score four touchdowns in one game, also played one season with the Memphis Southmen of the World Football League (1975) before finishing his career with Cleveland (1976-77). His career receiving totals in the NFL are: 427 receptions for 8,565 yards (20.1 average) and 85 TDs. He was elected to the Hall of Fame in his first year of eligibility. In 1990, he also was voted as a wide receiver on the Dolphins' Silver Anniversary all-time team, and on Nov. 19, 1990, he was enshrined on the Dolphin Honor Roll at Joe Robbie Stadium.

RETIRED JERSEY #12

Bob Griese's No. 12 jersey became the first Dolphin number to be retired on May 6, 1982, in ceremonies at the Dolphins' annual awards banquet. Heading into the 1991 season, his No. 12 is the only Dolphin number to be honored in that fashion.

No other player in the history of the Dolphins, either before or after Griese, wore No. 12 in regular season play.

Griese was further recognized when he was elected to the Pro Football Hall of Fame in 1990, joining former Dolphins Larry Csonka, Jim Langer, and Paul Warfield in Canton.

DOLPHIN FACT

The 1972 Dolphins continue to hold the distinction of being the only unbeaten, untied team through the playoffs. Miami went a perfect 17-0 in winning Super Bowl VII. In that season, the Dolphins became the only team to lead the NFL in scoring offense and defense in the same season since the 1970 merger of the AFL and NFL.

DOLPHIN NAME

Mariners, Marauders, Mustangs, Missiles, Moons, Sharks, Suns – none of those other names suggested to the American Football League expansion franchise in 1965 could raise a fin to the runaway winner.

"Dolphins" was submitted by 622 entrants in a contest which attracted 19,843 entries and more than a thousand different names. The dozen finalists were delivered to a seven-member screening committee of local media.

The bottlenose dolphin, an intelligent creature with an irresistible built-in grin, has inspired wonder for centuries. Plutarch observed 1,900 years ago that the dolphin "is the only creature who loves man for his own sake." Every trainer will have a tale of the dolphin's cleverness and ingenuity, and scientists are fascinated by a dolphin's natural equipment which far surpasses the range of Navy sonar equipment.

"The dolphin is one of the fastest and smartest creatures of the sea," Joe Robbie said in announcing the team name on October 8, 1965. "Dolphins can attack and kill a shark or a whale. Sailors say bad luck will come to anyone who harms one of them."

Mrs. Robert Swanson of West Miami won two lifetime passes to Dolphin games with her nickname entry. The tiebreaker was picking the winner and score of the 1965 game between the University of Miami and Notre Dame – it ended in a scoreless tie.

DOLPHIN FACT

Heading into 1991, Miami has not been shut out at home since October 25, 1970, against the Cleveland Browns (28-0), the second-longest such streak in the AFC. Denver has never been whitewashed in Mile High Stadium since the team began play in the AFL in 1960.

DOLPHINS ON THE AIR

WIOD

In 1991, the Miami Dolphins' radio network will consist of over 35 radio stations (over 80 markets) with Miami's WIOD (AM-610) again serving as the flagship station. WIOD has been the originator of Dolphin broadcasts since the team's 1966 inception. Known throughout South Florida for its outstanding sports programming, WIOD's Dolphin coverage is among the most comprehensive in the NFL.

WIOD begins its game-day coverage three hours before kickoff with the "Dolphin Express," anchored by Joe Zagacki, Jeff DeForrest, and ex-Dolphin Jim Mandich. The program includes player interviews, a preview of that game's opponent, and information from around the NFL. Also included in the pre-game package is "The Don Shula Show," featuring a preview of the day's contest by the Dolphin head coach.

Following the game, "The Locker Room Show" includes interviews from both the Dolphin and opposing locker rooms with key players from that day's game. That is followed by "Sportstalk - NFL Edition," featuring updated scores of other games around the league as well as listeners' calls about the day's Dolphin game.

Handling the play-by-play will be "The Voice of the Dolphins," Rick Weaver, who enters his 21st season with the Dolphins. Weaver, who serves as Vice President of Sports at WIOD, is in his 28th year of calling NFL action. Weaver, who is famous for starting the "white handkerchief" in 1971, previously broadcast games for Dallas, Chicago and San Francisco. Weaver is a 10-time recipient of the Florida Sportscaster of the Year award.

Weaver was selected as an honorary member of the Miami Dolphin fans' 25th anniversary team as the team's broadcaster. A native of Toledo, Ohio, the Ohio State graduate resides in North Miami.

Joining Rick in the booth will be color commentator Hank Goldberg. Goldberg, a Duke University graduate, is one of South Florida's most controversial sports figures. In addition to his WIOD duties, where he also hosts a nightly talk show, "Goldberg At Night," Hank works for an advertising agency and WTVJ-TV (Channel 4) in Miami.

WQBA

For the tenth straight year, the Dolphins' South Florida Latin fans will be able to follow the team home and away on WQBA (1140 AM). The 1991 season marks the seventh year of the shift over to WQBA's AM outlet.

Rene Giraldo, who has been a part of WQBA's broadcasts for all ten seasons, will handle the play-by-play for his sixth straight year after previously serving as a color analyst. He will again be joined in the booth by veteran analyst Eduardo Lujan, who has served as the producer and color commentator on the Dolphins' Spanish broadcasts since their inception, and by Roly Martin, also a long-time member of the broadcast team.

SUNSHINE NETWORK

"Miami Dolphins Monday Night Magazine", the live weekly magazine program of the Miami Dolphins that is produced and distributed in association with Sunshine Network, enters its second season in 1991.

The one-hour show is broadcast live in prime time at 7:00 PM every Monday night during the football season to Sunshine Network's statewide television audience of three million cable homes. When it premiered last year, it was Florida's first regularly scheduled and locally originated statewide live television sports talk show.

"Miami Dolphins Monday Night Magazine" features current Dolphin players, coaches, and executives as well as prominent print and broadcast personalities and former Dolphin greats in a lively discussion. The program also includes game highlights, behind the scenes team features, a viewer call-in segment, fan features, and a preview of the Dolphins' upcoming game. Popular sportscaster Paul Kennedy returns as the show's host.

Sunshine Network is Florida's largest regional cable network (and the third largest in the nation), providing high-quality sports and public affairs programming to three million homes across the state, including over one million in the greater Miami area.

PRESEASON TELEVISION

Two of the Dolphins' five preseason games in 1991 will be telecast on a national basis on ESPN and ABC-TV, while the other three games will be broadcast in Miami on WCIX-TV (Channel 6). In addition, as part of the three-year agreement between WCIX-TV and the Dolphins, those three contests also will be telecast by WPEC-TV in West Palm Beach.

The Dolphins will make their first national television appearance of the season on Saturday, August 3rd, when their American Bowl game in Tokyo, Japan against the Los Angeles Raiders will be cablecast on ESPN, beginning at 10:00 PM (EDT). The Dolphins will make their second preseason appearance on national TV when they travel to Denver to play the Broncos in Mile High Stadium on Monday, August 19th. ABC-TV will telecast the game coast-to-coast as part of their "Monday Night Football" package, beginning at 8:00 PM (EDT).

The Dolphins' first and last preseason games, home contests on Friday, July 26th versus the Chicago Bears and on Saturday, August 24th against the New Orleans Saints, will be telecast by WCIX and WPEC. The games will be shown live at 8:00 PM if they are sold out 72 hours in advance of game time; otherwise they will be broadcast on a delayed basis. The Dolphins' remaining preseason game, a road contest on Saturday, August 10th in Tampa against the Tampa Bay Buccaneers, will be telecast live back to Miami by WCIX and WPEC at 7:00 PM (EDT).

This year marks the beginning of the three-year co-venture between the Dolphins and WCIX-TV, whereby that station will produce all the game action coverage and jointly broadcast the games with WPEC-TV. It also is the ninth consecutive season that WCIX has telecast Dolphin preseason games. Well-known announcer Jay Randolph will serve as the play-by-play broadcaster, while former Dolphin great Bob Griese, who last year was inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame, will serve as color analyst. In addition, WCIX-TV sports anchors Khambrel Marshall and Steve Shapiro will host the pregame, postgame, and halftime shows during those telecasts. Mac McDonald returns as the producer for WCIX.

MEDIA INFORMATION

CREDENTIALS: Media representatives who do not have press credentials for the entire season (but will be working for an accredited media outlet on an immediate deadline) may request them on a single-game basis. Written credential requests must be made at least four working days in advance to: Harvey Greene, Director of Media Relations, Miami Dolphins, Joe Robbie Stadium, 2269 N.W. 199th St., Miami, FL 33056 (305-623-6262). Reserved credentials can be picked up at the press gate, located inside Gate G of Joe Robbie Stadium, on the day of the game.

PHOTOGRAPHERS: Photographers with accredited media outlets on an immediate deadline may request credentials on a single-game basis from the Dolphins' media relations department. Credentials WILL NOT be issued to freelance photographers unless granted special approval by the Dolphins. Field photographers are reminded to remain outside of the bench area.

PRESS BOX: To get to the Joe Robbie Stadium press box, enter at Gate G. Go through two sets of doors and take the exclusive press elevator to the press box. There are two levels: working press (level 2) and TV/radio/coaches booths (level 3). Stairs and the elevator connect both levels. Only credentials issued by the Dolphins or the Professional Football Writers of America will be honored for admittance to Joe Robbie Stadium.

LOCKER ROOMS: Admission to the home and visiting locker rooms is governed by each individual team. Only media representatives with proper credentials, granting locker room access or those stamped with "Locker Room Access," will be admitted. No one will be admitted to the locker rooms prior to the game. Both teams' locker rooms are located on ground level on the west side of the stadium. From the press box, take the elevator to ground level. Out of the elevator follow corridor to the left and go a quarter of the way around the stadium to locker rooms and interview room.

INTERVIEW ROOM: Coach Shula will hold his post-game press conference immediately following the conclusion of the game in the interview room, which is located on the ground level in the west side of the stadium. From the press box, take the elevator to the ground level. Out of the elevator follow corridor to the left and go a quarter way around the stadium. Turn left into corridor before locker room to interview room.

PARKING: Press parking at Joe Robbie Stadium is very limited. All parking requests must be directed to Harvey Greene, Director of Media Relations, (305-623-6262).

TELEPHONES: Any media member desiring to have their own press box telephone line must order it directly from Thania Diaz, Southern Bell Special Services (lines) at (305) 780-2830. Instruments can be ordered from the Dolphins' media relations department, (305-623-6262).

COPY TRANSMISSION: Copy transmission is available at every Dolphin home game. The transmission representative is Tim Lippman, 16541 Blatt Blvd., Apt. 203, Ft. Lauderdale, FL 33326 (305-384-0620).

FIELD ACCESS: Only working newspaper and TV photographers and club/stadium officials are permitted on the field during the game. Press box passes will not be honored for field admittance at any time, except when there are less than six minutes remaining in the game. At that point all non-photographers are required to remain behind the endzone and only (no sideline access) outside the yellow restraining boundary line.

ADVANCING: Generally, the Dolphins request that the opposing team's media relations representative visit training camp on Wednesday to coincide with the weekly media conference call.

PRACTICE: Regular-season practice sessions usually are held at 4:00 p.m. Mondays, 2:00 p.m. Wednesday through Friday, and at 11:00 a.m. on Saturday (home game). Practices normally are closed to out-of-town media unless special permission is granted by the coaching staff. To request permission, or to arrange any interviews, contact the Dolphins' media relations department. The team locker room is open to the media for 45 minutes (lunchtime) Monday and Wednesday through Friday. The players are off on Tuesdays.

FOR MORE INFO: For more information on the Dolphins, contact the media relations department: Harvey Greene, Director of Media Relations, Scott Stone, Assistant Director; and Gayle Baden, secretary. Office phone is (305) 623-6262, night numbers are (305) 623-6271/623-6132 and training camp PR numbers are (305) 625-7888 and (305) 625-6491-switchboard.

TRAINING CAMP: The Dolphins practice at St. Thomas University (formerly Biscayne College) during both the preseason and regular season. The campus is located in North Miami at 16400-D N.W. 32nd Ave.

DIRECTIONS

FT. LAUDERDALE TO TRAINING CAMP: From the north, take I-95 South to 826 West. Follow 826 West to N.W. 27th Ave. exit. When taking exit ramp, proceed straight through the first light (stay in right lane) to the second light and turn left (N.W. 32nd Ave.). The entrance to the University will be about 500 yards down on your right. The guard at the gate will direct you to the Dolphin complex.

MIAMI AIRPORT TO TRAINING CAMP: From the airport, take 836 West to 826 North. Follow to N.W. 37th Ave. exit. When taking exit ramp, proceed straight through first light (stay in right lane) to the second light and turn right (N.W. 32nd Ave.). The entrance to the University will be about 500 yards down on your right. The guard at the gate will direct you to the Dolphin complex.

FROM THE SOUTH TO TRAINING CAMP: From the south, take I-95 North to 826 West. Follow 826 West to N.W. 27th Ave. exit. When taking exit ramp, proceed straight through the first light (stay in right lane) to the second light and turn left (N.W. 32nd Ave.). The entrance to the University will be about 500 yards on your right. The guard at the gate will direct you to the Dolphin complex.

FT. LAUDERDALE TO STADIUM: Take I-595 West to Florida Turnpike South. Take Turnpike South nine miles to Exit 2 (N.W. 199th Street/Honey Hill Road). Proceed off exit to 199th Street and make right. Enter parking Gate 4.

MIAMI AIRPORT TO STADIUM: Take I-95 North to Ives Dairy Road. Proceed west for five miles (name of road changes to 199th Street) and stadium is on right.

PERSONNEL GUIDE

WAIVERS: The waiver system is a procedure by which player contracts or NFL rights to players are made available by a club to other NFL clubs. During the procedure, the 27 other clubs either file claims to obtain the players or waive the opportunity to do so – thus the term “waiver”. Claiming clubs are assigned players on a priority based on the inverse of the won-lost standings. The claiming period normally is 10 days during the off-season and 24 hours from early July through December. In some circumstances, a club is allowed another 24 hours to rescind its action (recall of waiver request) and/or the claiming club to do the same (withdrawal of claim). If a player passes through waivers unclaimed and is not recalled by the original club, he becomes a free agent. All waivers from July through December are no recall and no withdrawal. Under the Collective Bargaining Agreement, from the beginning of the waiver system each year on the day after the Pro Bowl through the trading deadline (October 8, 1991), any veteran who has acquired four years of pension credit may, if about to be assigned to another club through the waiver system, reject such assignment and become a free agent.

ACTIVE LIST: The Active List is the principal status for players participating for a club. It consists of all players under contract, including option, who are eligible for pre-season, regular-season and post-season games.

In 1991, clubs are allowed to open training camp with no more than 80 players under contract and thereafter must meet the mandatory roster reductions prior to the season opener.

Teams will be permitted an Active List of 45 players and an Inactive List of two players for each regular season and post-season game during the 1991 season. Provided that a club has only two quarterbacks on its 45-player Active List, a third quarterback from its Inactive List is permitted to dress for a game, but if he participates in the game, the other two quarterbacks are thereafter prohibited from playing.

ROSTER CUTDOWN DATES: All clubs must reduce their active roster to 60 players on Aug. 20, 1991, and to the final total of 47 players (listing two as inactive) on Aug. 26, 1991.

ROSTER SIZES: During the 1985-90 seasons, roster size was set at 45 players, the same number it stood at from 1978-81. Between 1982 and 1984, the roster limit was at 49. From 1975-77, each club was allowed to have 43 players on the active roster. The first roster limitation rule went into effect in 1925 (16 players) and rose gradually until it reached 47 in 1974.

RESERVE LIST: The Reserve List is a status for players who, for reasons of injury, retirement, military service or other circumstances, are not immediately available for participation with a club. Players on Reserve/Injured are not eligible to practice or return to the Active List until four regular-season games have been played.

Each club will have five free activations for players on Reserve/Injured after the final cutdown. Players also can be returned to the club's Active List if they clear Procedural Recall waivers. Any player placed on Reserve/Injured prior to or concurrent with the final cutdown on August 26, may not return to the club nor practice with the team that year. Clubs participating in postseason competition will be granted an additional activation for each post-season game, provided they have exhausted all previous activations.

Players in the category of Reserve/Retired, Reserve/Did Not Report, or Reserve/Veteran Free Agent Asked to Re-sign, may not be reinstated during the period from 30 days before the end of the regular season through the post-season.

TRADES: Unrestricted trading is allowed between clubs through the Tuesday following the sixth regular-season game (October 8, 1991) and does not resume again until January 27, 1992.

MEDICAL GLOSSARY

AC Joint – Acromioclavicular joint; joint of the shoulder where acromion process of the scapula and the distal end of the clavicle meet; most shoulder separations occur at this point.

Abduct – Movement of any extremity away from the midline of the body. This action is achieved by an abductor muscle.

Abrasion – Any injury which rubs off the surface of the skin.

Abscess – An infection which produces pus; can be the result of a blister, callus, penetrating wound or laceration.

Adduct – Movement of an extremity toward the midline of the body. This action is achieved by an adductor muscle.

Adhesion – Abnormal adherence of collagen fibers to surrounding structures during immobilization following trauma or as a complication of surgery which restricts normal elasticity of the structures involved.

Aerobic – Exercise in which energy needed is supplied by oxygen inspired and is required for sustained periods of vigorous exercise with a continually high pulse rate.

Anabolic Steroids – Steroids that promote tissue growth by creating protein in an attempt to enhance muscle growth. The main anabolic steroid is testosterone (male sex hormone).

Anaerobic – Exercise without use of oxygen as an energy source; short bursts of vigorous exercises.

Anaphylactic Shock – Shock that is caused by an allergic reaction.

Anterior Compartment Syndrome – Condition in which swelling within the anterior compartment of the lower leg jeopardizes the viability of muscles, nerves and arteries that serve the foot. In severe cases, emergency surgery is necessary to relieve the swelling and pressure.

Anterior Cruciate Ligament (ACL) – A primary stabilizing ligament within the center of the knee joint that prevents hyperextension and excessive rotation of the joint. A complete tear of the ACL necessitating reconstruction could require up to 12 months of rehabilitation.

Anterior Talofibular Ligament – A ligament of the ankle that connects the fibula (lateral ankle bone) to the talus. This ligament is oft times subject to sprain.

Anti-Inflammatory – Any agent which prevents inflammation, such as aspirin or ibuprofen.

Anterogram – A film demonstrating arteries after injection of a dye.

Arthrogram – X-ray technique for joints using air and/or dye injected into the affected area; useful in diagnosing meniscus tears of the knee and rotator cuff tears of the shoulder.

Arthroscope – An instrument used to visualize the interior of a joint cavity.

Arthroscopy – A surgical examination of the internal structures of a joint by means for viewing through an arthroscope. An arthroscopic procedure can be used to remove or repair damaged tissue or as a diagnostic procedure in order to inspect the extent of any damage or confirm a diagnosis.

Aspiration – The withdrawal of fluid from a body cavity by means of a suction or siphonage apparatus, such as a syringe.

Atrophy – To shrivel or shrink from disuse, as in muscular atrophy.

Avascular Necrosis – Death of a part due to lack of circulation.

Avulsion – The tearing away, forcibly, of a part or structure.

Baker's Cyst – Localized swelling of a bursa sac in the posterior knee as a result of fluid that has escaped from the knee capsule. A Baker's cyst indicates that there is a trauma inside the knee joint that leads to excessive fluid production.

Bone Scan – An imaging procedure in which a radioactive-labeled substance is injected into the body to determine the status of a bony injury. If the radioactive substance is taken up the bone at the injury site, the injury will show as a "hot spot" on the scan image. The bone scan is particularly useful in the diagnosis of stress fractures.

Brachial Plexus – Network of nerves originating from the cervical vertebrae and running down to the shoulder, arm, hand, and fingers.

Bruise – A discoloration of the skin due to an extravasation of blood into the underlying tissues.

Bursa – A fluid-filled sac that is located in areas where friction is likely to occur, then minimizes the friction; for example between a tendon and bone.

Capsule – An enclosing structure which surrounds the joint and contains ligaments which stabilize that joint.

Cartilage – Smooth, slippery substance preventing two ends of bones from rubbing together and grating.

CAT Scan – Use of a computer to produce a cross sectional view of the anatomical part being investigated from X-ray data.

Cellulitis – Inflammation of cellular or connective tissue.

Cervical Vertebrae – Group of seven vertebrae located in the neck.

Charley Horse – A contusion or bruise to any muscle resulting in intramuscular bleeding. No other injury should be called a charley horse.

Colles' Fracture – A fracture of the distal end of the radius with the lower end being displaced backward.

Concentric Muscle Contraction – A shortening of the muscle as it develops tension and contracts to move a resistance.

Concussion – Jarring injury of the brain resulting in dysfunction. It can be graded as mild, moderate or severe depending on loss of consciousness, amnesia and loss of equilibrium.

Contusion – An injury to a muscle and tissues caused by a blow from a blunt object.

Cortical Steroids – Used to suppress joint inflammation.

Costochondral – Cartilage that separates the bones within the rib cage.

Cryokinetics – Treatment with cold and movement.

Cryotherapy – A treatment with the use of cold.

Cyst – Abnormal sac containing liquid or semi-solid matter.

Degenerative Joint Disease – Changes in the joint surfaces as a result of repetitive trauma.

Deltoid Ligament – Ligament that connects the tibia to bones of the medial aspect of the foot and is primarily responsible for stability of the ankle on the medial side. Is sprained less frequently than other ankle ligaments.

Deltoid Muscle – Muscles at top of the arm, just below the shoulder, responsible for shoulder motions to the front, side and back.

Disc, Intervertebral – A flat, rounded plate between each vertebrae of the spine. The disc consists of a thick fiber ring which surrounds a soft gel-like interior. It functions as a cushion and shock absorber for the spinal column.

Dislocation – Complete displacement of joint surfaces.

Eccentric Muscle Contraction – An overall lengthening of the muscle as it develops tension and contracts to control motion performed by an outside force; oft times referred to a "negative" contraction in weight training.

Eccymosis – Bleeding into the surface tissue below the skin, resulting in a "black and blue" effect.

Edema – Accumulation of fluid in organs and tissues of the body; swelling.

Effusion – Accumulation of fluid, in various spaces in the body, or the knee itself. Commonly, the knee has an effusion after an injury.

Electrical Galvanic Stimulation (EGS) – An electrical therapeutic modality that sends a current to the body at select voltages and frequencies in order to stimulate pain receptors, disperse edema, or neutralize muscle spasms among other functional applications.

Electromyogram (EMG) – Test to determine nerve function.

Epicondylitis – Inflammation in the elbow due to overuse.

Ethyl Chloride – "Cold spray," a chemical coolant sprayed onto an injury site to produce a local, mild anesthesia.

Fat Percentage – The amount of body weight that is adipose, fat tissue. Fat percentages can be calculated by underwater weighing, measuring select skinfold thickness, or by analyzing electrical impedance.

Femur – Thigh bone; longest bone in the body.

Fibula – Smaller of the two bones in the lower leg; runs from knee to the ankle along the outside of the lower leg.

Flexibility – The ability of muscle to relax and yield to stretch forces.

Flexibility Exercise – General term used to describe exercise performed by a player to passively or actively elongate soft tissue without the assistance of an athletic trainer.

Fracture – Breach in continuity of a bone. Types of fractures include simple, compound, comminuted, greenstick, incomplete, impacted, longitudinal, oblique, stress, or transverse.

Gamekeeper's Thumb – Tear of the ulnar collateral ligament of the metacarpophalangeal joint of the thumb.

Glycogen – Form in which foods are stored in the body as energy.

Grade One Injury – A mild injury in which ligament, tendon, or other musculoskeletal tissue may have been stretched or contused, but not torn or otherwise disrupted.

Grade Two Injury – A moderate injury when musculoskeletal tissue has been partially, but not totally, torn which causes appreciable limitation in function of the injured tissue.

Grade Three Injury – A severe injury in which tissue has been significantly, and in some cases totally, torn or otherwise disrupted causing a virtual total loss of function.

Hamstring – Category of muscle that runs from the buttocks to the knee along the back of the thigh. It functions to flex the knee, and is oft times injured as a result of improper conditioning or lack of muscle flexibility.

Heat Cramps – Painful muscle spasms of the arms or legs caused by excessive body heat and depletion of fluids and electrolytes.

Heat Exhaustion – Mild form of shock due to dehydration because of excessive sweating when exposed to heat and humidity.

Heat Stroke – Condition of rapidly rising internal body temperature that overwhelms the body's mechanisms for release of heat and could result in death if not cared for appropriately.

Heel Cup – Orthotic device that is inserted into the shoe and worn under the heel to give support to the Achilles tendon and help absorb impacts at the heel.

Hematoma – Tumor-like mass produced by an accumulation of coagulated blood in a cavity.

Hot Pack – Chemical pack that rests in water, approximately 160 degrees, and retains its heat for 15-20 minutes when placed in a towel for general therapeutic application.

Humerus – Bone of the upper arm that runs from the shoulder to the elbow.

Hydrotherapy – Treatment using water.

Hyperextension – Extreme extension of a limb or body part.

Illiotal Band – A thick, wide fascial layer that runs from the iliac crest to the knee joint and is occasionally inflamed as a result of excessive running.

Inflammation – The body's natural response to injury in which the injury site might display various degrees of pain, sweating, heat, redness, and/or loss of function.

Internal Rotation – Rotation of a joint or extremity medially, to the inside.

Lesion – Wound, injury or tumor.

Ligament – Band of fibrous tissue that connects bone to bone or bone to cartilage and supports and strengthens joints.

Lumbar Vertebrae – Five vertebrae of the lower back that articulate with the sacrum to form the lumbosacral joint.

Magnetic Resonance Imaging (MRI) – Imaging procedure in which a radio frequency pulse causes certain electrical elements of the injured tissue to react to this pulse and through this process a computer display and permanent film establish a visual image. MRI does not require radiation and is very useful in the diagnosis of soft tissue, disc, and meniscus injuries.

Meniscectomy – An intra-articular surgical procedure of the knee by which all or part of the damaged meniscus is removed.

Meniscus – Crescent shaped cartilage, usually pertaining to the knee joint; also known as "cartilage." There are two menisci in the knee, medial and lateral. These work to absorb weight within the knee and provide stability.

Metacarpals – Five long bones of the hand, running from the wrist to the fingers.

Metatarsals – Five long bones of the foot, running from the ankle to the toes.

Myositis – Inflammation of a muscle.

Necrotic – Relating to death of a portion of tissue.

Neoprene – Lightweight rubber used in joint and muscle sleeves designed to provide support and/or insulation and heat retention to the area.

Neuritis – Inflammation of a nerve.

Orthotic – Any device applied to or around the body in the care of physical impairment or disability, commonly used to control foot mechanics.

Parasthesia – Sensation of numbness or tingling, indicating nerve irritation.

Patella – The kneecap. The patella functions to protect the distal end of the femur as well as increase the mechanical advantage and force generating capacities of the quadriceps muscle group.

Patella Tendinitis – Inflammation of the patella ligament; also known as "jumpers knee."

Patellofemoral Joint – Articulation of the kneecap and femur. Inflammation of this joint can occur through: 1) acute injury to the patella, 2) overuse from excessive running particularly if there is an associated knee weakness, 3) chronic wear and tear of the knee, 4) as a result of poor foot mechanics. Patellofemoral irritation can lead to chondromalacia, which in its most chronic condition, could require surgery.

Peroneal Muscles – Group of muscles of the lateral lower leg that are responsible for everting the knee. Tendons of these three muscles are vital to the stability of the ankle and foot.

Phalanx – Any bone of the fingers or toes; plural is phalanges.

Phlebitis – Inflammation of a vein.

Plica – Fold of tissue in the joint capsule and a common result of knee injury.

Posterior Cruciate Ligament (PCL) – A primary stabilizing ligament of the knee that provides significant stability and prevents displacement of the tibia backward within the knee joint. A complete tear of this ligament necessitating reconstruction could require up to 12 months of rehabilitation.

Quadricep Muscles "Quads" – A group of four muscles of the front thigh that run from the hip and form a common tendon at the patella; they are responsible for knee extension.

Radiography – Taking of X-rays.

Radius – Forearm bone on the thumb side.

Reconstruction – Surgical rebuilding of a joint using natural, artificial or transplanted materials.

Referred Pain – Pain felt in an undamaged area of body away from the actual injury.

Retraction – The moving of tissue to expose a part or structure of the body.

Rotator Cuff – Comprised of four muscles in the shoulder area that can be irritated by overuse. The muscles are the supraspinatus (most commonly injured), infra-spinatus, teres minor, and subscapularis.

Rotator Cuff Impingement Syndrome – A microtrauma or overuse injury caused by stress, and the four stages are: 1) Tendinitis with temporary thickening of the bursa and rotator cuff; 2) Fiber dissociation in the tendon with permanent thickening of the bursa and scar formation; 3) A partial rotator cuff tear of less than 1 cm.; and 4) A complete tear of 1 cm. or more.

Sacrum – Group of five fused vertebrae located just below the lumbar vertebrae of the low back.

Scapula – Shoulder blade.

Sciatica – Irritation of the sciatic nerve resulting in pain or tingling running down the inside of the leg.

Sciatic Nerve – Major nerve that carries impulses for muscular action and sensations between the low back and thigh and lower leg; it is the longest nerve in the body.

Shin Splint – A catch-all syndrome describing pain in the shin that is not a fracture or tumor and cannot be defined otherwise.

Sorbothane – An energy absorbing polyurethane utilized in some foot orthotics to absorb shock forces of the foot.

Spasm (Theory) – Muscle soreness induced by exercise; is the result of reduced muscle blood flow, which results in pain.

Spleen – Large, solid organ responsible for the normal production and destruction of blood cells.

Spondylosis – Inflammation of one or more vertebrae.

Spondylolisthesis – Forward displacement of one vertebrae over another below it due to a developmental defect in the vertebrae.

Spondylosis – Abnormal vertebral fixation or immobility.

Sprain – Injury resulting from a stretch or twist of the joint and causes various degrees of stretch or tear of a ligament or other soft tissue at the joint.

Sternum – The breast bone.

Steroids – Any one of a large number of hormone-like substances. See Anabolic steroids and cortical steroids.

Strain – Injury resulting from a pull or torsion to the muscle or tendon that causes various degrees of stretch or tear to the muscle or tendon tissue.

Stress Fracture – A hair-line type of break in a bone caused by overuse.

Stress X-ray – A continual X-ray taken when a portion of the body is stressed to its maximum in order to determine joint stability. This is a test utilized in some ankle injuries.

Stretching – Any therapeutic maneuver designed to elongate shortened soft tissue structures and thereby increase flexibility.

Subluxation – Partial dislocation of a joint. The term usually implies that the joint can return to its normal position without formal reduction.

Talus – The ankle bone that articulates with the tibia and fibula to form the ankle joint.

Target Heart Rate – A pre-determined pulse to be obtained during exercise when circulation is working at full efficient capacities.

Tarsals – Group of seven bones of the foot consisting of the calcaneus, talus, cuboid and three cuneiform bones.

Temporomandibular Joint (TMJ) – The articulation of the jaw and skull; considered by some to be vital in resolution of injuries throughout the body.

Tendinitis – Inflammation of the tendon and/or tendon sheath, caused by chronic overuse or sudden injury.

Tendon – Tissue that connects muscle to bone.

Tennis Elbow – General term for lateral elbow pain.

Thoracic – Group of twelve vertebrae located in the thorax and articulate with the twelve ribs.

Thoracic Outlet Compression Syndrome – A neuro-vascular disorder of the upper extremity common in throwing.

Tibia – Larger of the two bones of the lower leg and is the weight-bearing bone of the shin.

Tomograph – A special type of X-ray apparatus that demonstrates an organ or tissue at a particular depth.

Trachea – The windpipe.

Transcutaneous Electrical Nerve Stimulator (TENS) – An electrical modality that sends a mild current through pads at the injury site which stimulates the brain to release the natural analgesic, endorphin.

Transverse Process – Small lateral projection off the right side and left side of each vertebrae that functions as an attachment site for muscles and ligaments of the spine.

Trapezius – Flat triangular muscle covering the posterior surface of the neck and shoulder.

Triceps – Muscle of the back of the upper arm, primarily responsible for extending the elbow.

Ulna – Forearm bone that runs from the tip of the elbow to the little finger side of the wrist.

Ulnar Nerve – Nerve in elbow commonly irritated from excessive throwing.

Ultrasound – An electrical modality that transmits a sound wave through an applicator into the skin to the soft tissue in order to heat the local area for relaxing the injured tissue and/or disperse edema.

Valgus – Angulation outward and away from the midline of the body.

Varus – Angulation inward and toward the midline of the body.

Vasoconstriction – Decrease of local blood flow.

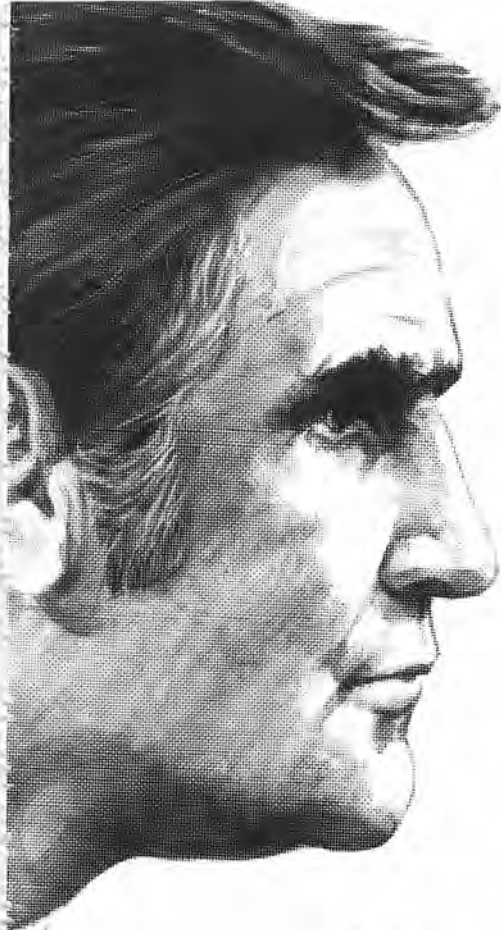

Vasodilation – Increase of local blood flow.

"Wind Knocked Out" – Syndrome describing a contraction of the abdominal nerve trunk, the solar plexus, as a result of an abdominal contusion.

Wrist – The junction between the two forearm bones (radius and ulna) and the eight wrist bones (trapezium, trapezoid, capitate, hamate, pisiform, triquetrum, lunate and scaphoid).

Zygoma – The cheekbone.

TICKET INFORMATION

- $28.00
- $22.00 Family Section/No Alcohol
- $26.00
- $22.00 Family Section

Single-game tickets are priced at $28, $26 and $22 and season tickets are priced at $280, $260 and $220 in Joe Robbie Stadium. New this season is the Dolphins Family Section. Ticket prices in the Family Section were set at $22 and three of five sections have been designated alcohol-free. Tickets for all Dolphins home games are available at the Dolphin Ticket Office, located at Gate G of Joe Robbie Stadium, and at all TICKETMASTER outlets. The Dolphin Ticket Office is open during the season Monday through Saturday from 10:00 a.m. to 6:00 p.m. Gate G should be used for customer service and will call.
